...ENJOYING MOTORBOATS.—A large number of motor-boats owners of Souris had quite an enjoyable sail from Souris to Fortune, recently, where they spent the day. They had a delightful time.F.

...RIBS BROKEN.—Mr. Alex. McKenzie of Fortune Bridge, it will be regretted, met with a severe accident on Saturday last. Mr. McKenzie was hauling wood and in the process of driving his horse along, the wagon struck against a stump throwing the driver from his seat, to the ground. He struck on another stump and suffered painful injury, three of his ribs being broken. It is most pleasant to be able to report that he is doing nicely and will soon be in good health again.F.

...RUNAWAY.—Those people situated on the north side of Fortune Bridge were greatly excited recently by something which seemed as though it could end only in disaster. This was when a valuable brood mare, owned by Mr. John Wilts, became frightened, caused by its foal getting entangled in the reins, and commenced to run at its full speed the foal racing at its side. They kept on till they came to a wire fence which was easily cleared, but the mare was brought up abruptly by the wagon failing to get over. Both animals got off without any injuries.F.

SEASICKNESS
TRANSICKNESS
Prevented—Stopped

MOTHERSILL'S, after thorough tests, is now officially adopted by practically all the Great Lakes and New York Steamship Companies running south, and many Transatlantic lines. Four years ago Mr. Mothersill gave a personal demonstration of his remedy on the English Channel, Irish Sea, and the Baltic, and received unqualified endorsement from leading papers and such people as Bishop Taylor Smith, Lord Northcliffe, and hosts of doctors, bankers and professional men. Letters from personages of international renown—people we all know—together with much valuable information, are contained in an attractive booklet, which will be sent free upon receipt of your name and address. Mothersill's is guaranteed not to contain cocaine, morphine, opium, chloral, or any other dangerous drugs. 50 cent box is sufficient for twenty-four hours. $1.00 box for a Transatlantic voyage. Your agent for Mothersill's is your wholesaler. If you have any trouble getting the genuine, send direct to the Mothersill Remedy Co., 383 Superior Bldg., Detroit, Mich. Also at 19 St. Brido St., London; Montreal, New York, Paris, Milan, Hamburg.
