Many People Wonder

why it is that glasses are worn more commonly in the present generation than in the past. Some say that the face is deteriorating, some that it is for style, but the real reason is that our modern civilization requires the eye to do more work than was even the case before. Consequently, the eyes, if in the least defective, may give you a lot of trouble though in reality they are no worse than those of your grandfather who did not wear glasses till he was an old man.

If you feel the least symptom of eyestrain, remember that it is nature warning to you and consult us at once.

D. Campbell, postmaster at Charlottetown, Montserrat, visited him to Lot 8 a pleasant one. He also saw many other old friends and relatives throughout the little Red Isle. Mr. Gallagher also visited the spot where he first saw the light of day and after sixty years found the remains of the old log cabin in which he was born and many of the landmarks of those bygone days in the old south-west which is now called Kinkora. And better still he found the good people including many cousins, prosperous and happy. They also made his stay in Kinkora enjoyable. Newton, Charlottetown, St. Peter's, Montserrat and other places were also visited and Mr. Gallagher thinks a more beautiful tract of country cannot be found. He says it is the most delightful spot in North America to spend a summer's vacation and Nature has certainly blessed her in many ways.

In Memoriam

MR. JOHN L. HAWKINS.

John L. Hawkins died at his home, White Sands, on July 19th, at the 84th year of his age. His final illness was brief. Though he had suffered from rheumatism for many years, a strong will kept him active even in old age. He maintained a lively interest in the affairs of the community until the end. For a number of years he had been a member and an officer of the Methodist church at White Sands and gave liberally of his time and means to its support.

Mr. Hawkins was twice married. His first wife was Maria J. Broughton, by whom he had three children: Elisha M., of New York; Charlotte E., wife of Edward S. McGregor, and Eliza M., wife of Daniel McDonough, both of White Sands. His second wife, Helen McNeill, passed away over four years ago. Four children were born of this union. One of these, Ernest A., a railway engineer, was killed by a snowslide near Revelstoke, B.C., some fourteen years ago. The others are: Marie J., now at home; John Hampton, Gloucester, Que.; and C. Waldo, White Sands.

A large concourse of people gathered for the funeral, which took place on July 21. The services at the home and grave were conducted by his pastor, Rev. S. Howard, of Murray Harbor. It was a fitting occasion to meditate on the prayer of the Psalmist: "So teach us to number our days that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom."

TEACHERS CHANGE POSITIONS

Witness:—Watson lost the services of three very competent teachers at the end of June. They all leave with the best wishes of pupils and parents, who still hope that after a suitable change and rest they will again offer their services to Watson. Miss Johnson who conducted the senior department of the public school left for her home in Nova Scotia. Miss Reid of the Junior Department returned to Toronto and will teach near her home. Miss O'Marah who conducted the Sacred Heart Catholic School left for Yorkton where she will read examination papers for the next few weeks. She will then go to her old home in Prince Edward Island and will remain there for a long holiday. The Sacred Heart Catholic School was made a writing centre for both Grade VIII and second class professional examinations this year. Miss O'Marah conducted a very large and difficult school here with marked success and on the eve of her departure was suitably remembered by the mothers of the pupils who motored to her boarding house and gave a surprise party and banquet in her honor. On the morning of her leaving her pupils were at the station and presented her with a beautiful French ivory travelling set and bouquet of choice flowers.

A Dog Story

(By Dominion News Service) CHEENOCK, July 31.—Gorge Pirrie of Grey Place, Greenock was awakened early this morning by his dog. The animal was pawing his face and barking in a peculiar manner. Mr. Pirrie immediately smelt gas and going into the hall was almost overcome. He managed to reach the rooms of his brother and sister and found them both unconscious. Summoning help they were all three carried out of the house. An explosion afterwards blew up part of the sidewalk outside the house and a leaking gas main was discovered.

Home Living Royalty

EDINBURGH, July 31.—A small boy named Harvey upset the old nursery rhyme about the King being in the counting house, the Queen in the parlour, and the maid in the kitchen. As a matter of fact in the King and the Queen were both in the kitchen of the home of the Master Harvey's parents in Earl Haile's Garden Settlement for disabled ex-servicemen here. Young Harvey suddenly became ex-royalty by the importance of the occasion. He ran upstairs crying lustily. "Why," said the Queen, "what's he crying for. I'll run up and see what's the matter with him." She disappeared and in a few moments the crying ceased. "Asked what the King did during the King and the Queen were both in the kitchen of the home of the Master Harvey's parents in Earl Haile's Garden Settlement for disabled ex-servicemen here.
