FOR some time past the high price of bread has been much talked of in this city and readers will be pleased to learn by the ad which appears elsewhere, that, on account of the decrease in the price of flour the bread from Doyle's North Bakery will in future sell at 6c per loaf wholesale instead of 7c as in the past.

These men have had much success in their work elsewhere and it is believed that their presence will add much to the interest and profit of the Convention. AS the Guardian Employment and Information Bureau, established some months ago, has been so greatly appreciated, and has been the means of securing employment for so many people and help for so many business houses and householders, it has been decided to establish in connection with this paper, an Advertising Agency. Thus any persons or firms desiring advertising in any newspaper outside of this city, can have some of the same rates as if they placed their order direct, and have each advertisement checked to see that it gets the proper number of insertions and appears as desired.

CORRESPONDENTS should remember that to ensure early appearance of correspondence all matter sent in should be cut down as much as possible. Every attention is paid to correspondence but it is impossible to get everything in as written, especially when as of late many communications are being received each day.

PREVIOUS to his departure from Albany School for Prince of Wales College, D.C. Harvey, the teacher, was presented with a very eulogistic address and a well filled purse as a token of appreciation from his pupils. Mr. Harvey was taken by surprise but replied in a few well chosen words of thanks and advice. The Guardian regrets that lack of space makes it necessary to omit the printing of addresses on occasions of this kind.

Mrs. SUSAN PYE, widow of the late Charles Pye of Stoughton Mass., died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. A. Harvey of Eastern Furnace, Saturday, September 1st, after a lingering illness, aged 81 years.

Mrs. Pye was a native of Charlottetown and went to Stoughton in 1836, where she made her home until a few years ago when she went to live with her sister on account of feeble health. She leaves three daughters; Mrs. Harvey of Eastern Furnace, Mrs. Sarah Kelley of Raynham, and Mrs. C. Walter Blackmer, of Stoughton; and four sons, W. W. Pye, James J. Pye and Charles N. Pye of Stoughton, and Walter B. Pye of Easton.

CAPTAIN W. B. PROWSE, of the Fourth Regiment C. A., has received from C. Company of the Worcester (Mass.) Light Infantry, an invitation requesting the attendance of Captain Prowse and that of his brother officers of the 4th Regiment, at the one hundred and third anniversary of the company's organization. The celebration is to be held on October 9th and there will be a short street parade in Worcester in the afternoon, followed by a banquet in the evening. This is another evidence of the strong brotherly feeling which is being evidenced by the visiting of Canadian and United States troops which has been carried on extensively of late. It would not be a bad thing at all if some of the fine looking representatives of the Fourth could attend, and show the people of Worcester that this Province has soldiers equal to any in Canada.
