—The woman doted on the boy, who was fifteen years old, and despite the trouble he had all ways given her she spent her small savings to obtain a lawyer to argue in his favor. In the court room she sat tense and rigid, her eyes fastened on her son with a longing, hungry look, her mind alert to catch every little bit of the proceedings. Only when the interpreter repeated questions or answers in Hungarian could she understand, for she did not speak English.

—Sunday morning Theodore Draus, living on the floor below Mrs. Harcharick, at No. 271 Helen street, detected a strong odor of gas. Tracking it to the Harcharick's floor he tried to enter their rooms but the gas drove him back. With a wet cloth he hurriedly dragged the bodies of the four persons from the room and shouted for help. An ambulance on Thursday last charged with the surgeon said that the woman and

WOMEN'S AILMENTS CAUSED BY NEGLECT

Are Quickly Cured and Robust Sound Health Restored by Dr. Hamilton's Pills.

Women are on the whole more sickly than men. One reason is that their system is more complicated; another and more important reason is they put off measures of relief too long. At the beginning, constipation is the cause of nine-tenths of women's ailments. The blood becomes weakened and polluted—the nerves suffer and a run-down condition takes root.

Because of their mildness of action as a system regulator, because of their undoubted power to remove constipation, irregularities, no medicine for women can compare with Dr. Hamilton's Pills. The kidneys quickly respond to the remedial action of Dr. Hamilton's Pills and the result is as you would expect—pain in the back and side, shortness of breath, and bad color disappear—the functions of the body then operate naturally, congestion and pain are prevented and perfect health returns. Thousands of happy women say Dr. Hamilton's Pills are the greatest and best blood-purifier, the finest complexion renewer, the most certain regulating medicine known. All dealers in 25c. boxes, or the Catarrhose Co., Kingston, Canada.

—Besides Mrs. Harcharick and her husband the dead were John Prevusnack a nephew of Mrs. Harcharick and John Kepser, who boarded with them.

A wide open valve where a meter had formerly been placed was allowing gas to pour into the rooms where the Harcharicks had lived.

HYPNOTIZED BECOMES INDIAN ON WARPATH

HARRISBURG, Pa., Nov. 19.—James Caldwell went to a party last evening, and, for the amusement of the company, an amateur hypnotist hypnotized him.

The events that followed make it seem probable that the amateur hypnotist suggested to Mr. Caldwell that he was a tipsy Indian on the warpath. Plainly, some such idea possessed Caldwell and his sub-consciousness and then whatever consciousness he was under that.

For, yelling madly, he broke out of the house and briefly terrorized the neighborhood of Sixth and Calder streets. Before his shouts and wild, threatening gestures, children, prickly with gooseflesh, with chills running up and down their short spines, fled in all directions.

"A wild man! A wild man!" they screamed, proving the accuracy of even adolescent observation.

Scared by Caldwell's antics, two horses ran away, their hoof-beats timing a warning chorus, "Look out! look out!" Finally Young-Man-ka-Tear, or Big-Bear-on-the-Rampage, or whoever Caldwell imagined himself to be, made an earnest effort to carry into captivity two highly respected female palefaces. Shrieking, they ran into a saloon, the nearest refuge, where two railroad brakemen were enjoying their evening beer. They captured Caldwell, and, despite his fierce struggles, sat on him.

"He's mad as a loon," said one of the brakemen. "Get a doctor, an ambulance, a straitjacket—any old thing."

It happened that a physician who was called from his house across the street had studied hypnotism, and, recognizing Caldwell's condition, brought him out of the hypnotic state.

"Where am I?" asked he, when his sub-consciousness stopped working. "I know where you ought to be," retorted a brakeman.
