Are you on a party line? Are you letting another man get most of the profits of your business? Are you using the powerful business weapon—the telephone—in favor of competition and against yourself?

If you only knew how many orders—dollars—passed into the hands of your competitor every time a customer was answered with "line busy"—and you not using the phone.

A MYSTERY SURROUNDING THE RETURN OF A KIDNAPPED BOY. THE POLICE BAFLED

NEW YORK, Sept. 11.—Although little Michael Scimeca, the three-year-old son of Dr. Michael Scimeca, a prominent Italian physician, is today safely in the hands of his relatives, having been held for nearly three months a captive by "Black Hand" kidnapers, the abductors of the boy have so far escaped the police trap set for them when it was learned that the little fellow was about to return to his guardians. Fifty detectives of the Italian squad had been for hours watching ferry and railroad stations and the vicinity of Dr. Scimeca's home in Manhattan in expectancy of trapping the kidnapers, when the lad mysteriously turned up late last night at the home of Dr. Scimeca's father-in-law in Brooklyn.

The police had heard that Scimeca was trying to raise $7,000, which had been demanded as a ransom for the boy. Dr. Scimeca yesterday, however, denied that he had paid a cent for the return of the child.

Much mystery surrounds the circumstances of the child's re-appearance. It was said at the Petrella home that a telephone message was received during the evening that little Michael would be found walking on Fifty-Fifth Street, Manhattan. The Petrellas, driven in their carriage, left for that locality, they spied the lad alone on the sidewalk. The boy uttered a cry of joy when he saw his relatives and was soon snugly wrapped up in the waiting carriage.

A report which had come to the police that the kidnapped boy, instead of being found alone in the street, had been brought to the waiting carriage at the curb by a rough-looking man, who disappeared as soon as he had delivered his charge, was yesterday being investigated by the police. Lieutenant Vachris, of the Italian squad, declared that he knows the captors and arrests in the case are considered probable.

Michael Scimeca was spirited away from his parents' home on June 17th last by men who lured him with promises of candy. Shortly afterwards demands for large sums of money for his ransom began to pour in on his father through mails and mysterious telephone calls. Threats that the boy would be killed were also received and his parents were in an agony of terror lest harm would come to him.

Minard's Liniment Co., Limited.

Gentlemen,—I was badly kicked by my horse last May and after using several preparations on my leg nothing would do. My leg was black as jet. I was laid up in bed for a fortnight and could not walk. After using three bottles of your MINARD'S LINIMENT I was perfectly cured, so that I could start on the road.

THIRST DROVE CHINESE STOWAWAYS FROM HIDING-PLACE.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Sept. 11.—lean, yellow hand stuck out a freight car door in the yards of the Boston & Maine railroad here today, and a faint voice pleading in broken English for a drink of water led to the discovery of four Chinamen curled up on some baled hay and their prompt arrest on the charge of attempting to evade the immigration laws. They lay in the car was consigned from Burke, up near the Canadian line, in New York state, on the Rutland, railroad, to M. E. Monahan, of New Haven, (Conn.) All four Celestials were in a pitiful condition from lack of water, an empty jug, some bread and some ham showing that they had entered the car prepared for a journey of several days. A railroad clerk checking up the number of freight cars made the discovery. He was passing the hay car when he heard voices and then a hand was thrust out and a request made for water. The clerk first brought the water and then a policeman, who at once took the four aliens to the police station.
