Ronald Colman In "Bulldog Drummond" At Prince Edward

Ronald Colman made a triumphant return to the screen of the Prince Edward Theatre last night, after a year's absence from pictures, in "Bulldog Drummond Strikes Back," —and 20th Century could not have chosen a happier vehicle for their new star than this thrill-packed sequel to the delightful "Bulldog Drummond," which brings him back in the characterization most beloved of his fans.

Colman is his old, charming self and the script, which Nunnally Johnson prepared from the latest novel by H. C. McNeile, creator of the dashing adventurer, is rich in that suave humor which the star is so excellent at putting across, and the film found an eager, excited and delighted audience at the Prince Edward and presented in co-operation with the Ladies Aid of P. E. I. Hospital.

"Bulldog Drummond Strikes Back" finds the lovable adventurer returned from a big game hunting expedition to attend the wedding of his nitwitted friend, Algy, to a gushing young beauty named Gwen, and swearing off excitement for life. Lost in a London fog, he wanders into a deserted house and finds the body of a murdered man. When he returns with the police, he is baffled to find the sinister Hindu Prince Achmed, apparently spending a quiet evening at home with his daughter Lady Jane and her husband Dr. Sothern—all amazed at the very idea of violence.

Thrilling Mystery

When Lola Field, a beautiful, hysterical girl, comes to him and sobs out a mysterious tale of an uncle who had vanished from the Oriental's house, Drummond determines to solve the riddle at any cost—and calls in the reluctant Algy to help him.

It would be unfair to reveal the plot in further detail, but we promise you will get more than your share of thrills, suspense and laughter as you watch this smart, fresh, swift-paced mystery thriller unroll. Colman has never been seen to better advantage, and the remaining players, particularly Warner Oland as Prince Achmed, Loretta Young as Lola, Charles Butterworth as Algy, Una Merkel as Gwen, C. Aubrey Smith as Inspector Neilson of Scotland Yard and Kathleen Burke as Achmed's daughter, are perfectly cast and turn in performances of uniform excellence.

Despite your age or cinema preferences, you're bound to have a swell time at "Bulldog Drummond Strikes Back!"

"Gift Of Gab" At Capitol

Comedy, drama and music—offered by the largest collection of stage, screen and radio stars ever seen together—feature the most unusual entertainment to come to the Capitol Theatre in many months. The production, which opened last night, is Universal's "Gift of Gab."

The story of "Gift of Gab" concerns itself with the rise of Edmund Lowe from an auctioneer to the foremost broadcasting announcer and reporter in America. Lowe and Gloria Stuart, blonde and more beautiful than ever, furnish plenty ofthrills as he rises and falls on the way to the top.

Comedy elements are supplied by a large assortment of stooges, Phil Baker, Victor Moore, proprietor of "Trivers' Livers," sopnsoring the broadcast; Alice White, Hugh O'Connell, Douglas Fowley, Henry Armetta, Helen Vinson and Sterling Holloway.

Music is given to the audience by Ruth Etting, Ethel Waters, Phil Baker, Gene Austin, the Beale Street Boys, the Downey Sisters and Gus Arnheim and his band. Satire is presented during a radio broadcast by a mock murder mystery in which Bela Lugosi, Karloff, June Knight, Binnie Barner, Chester Morris, Douglass Montgomery, Paul Lukas and Roger Pryor display their talents.

The conglomeration is tuneful, punchy, rollicking and at times insane, but entertainment at all times. If you want to see a great collection of players at their best, hurry right down to the Capitol.

Presbytery of P. E. Island

The Presbytery of Prince Edward Island of the United Church of Canada met in regular session in Heartz Hall, Charlottetown on May 14th with the Chairman, Rev. G. A. Christie M. A. presiding. There was a large attendance of ministers and lay representatives. The action of the executive in postponing the meeting of Presbytery for one week was confirmed. A call in favour of Rev. L. E. G. Davies, Nappan from Summerside was received and passed on to the Settlement Committee, also a call to Rev. B. C. Salter, Sussex to Kensington was dealt with in in the same manner. A motion was passed that ministers from other churches applying for admission into the United Church be not received unless individual cases warrant it. Presbytery adjourned from one to two-thirty to enable members to attend the funeral of the late Mr. W. T. Huggan, who for many years was a valued member of the Church and its courts.

The following officers of Presbytery and Chairman of Committees were chosen. Secretary, Rev. W. E. Aitken; Treasurer, Rev. J. M. MacLeod; Evangelism and Social Service, Rev. J. W. A. Nicholson; Home Missions, Rev. F. E. Boothroyd; Christian Education, Rev. D. M. Sinclair; foreign Missions, Rev. J. G. Hockin; Publications, Rev. M. A. MacMillan; Pensions, Rev. G. Ayres; Boundaries, Rev. A. F. Baker; Church Property, Rev. D. K. Ross; Students, Rev. G. N. Somers; Historical, Rev. E. R. Woodside; Rural Life, Rev. J. W. A. Nicholson; Statistics, Rev. T. R. Goudge; Pastoral Relations, Rev. Thos. Palethorpe; Missionary and Maintenance, Rev. G. A. Christie. The members of the Settlement Committee for 1936 are Revs. A. R. Wallis, and D. K. Ross. The selection of a Chairman was deferred until after Conference.

The Chairman spoke briefly on the preparations being made for remembering the Tenth Anniversary of our Church. Special services reviewing the past will be held on or near June 10th. A Thankoffering of $250,000. is asked for of which our share in P. E. I. is $3,250. or approximately one sixth our total givings to the M & M last year. Each congregation is asked to give one sixth of their givings to M & M last year as a special Thankoffering. During the last few years our Church has been able to minister successfully to the stricken areas in the West. In the Autumn it is planned to hold several great gatherings to be addressed by outstanding speakers, with representatives from every Pastoral Charge in attendance.

Rev. D. M. Sinclair reported briefly on Religious Education statistics for 1934. Sunday Schools, Y. P. Societies, Junior, Boys', and Girls' organizations have been maintained and good work done. The Rev. I. J. Levy, Maritime Boys' Work Secretary was welcomed to the Court and spoke on the work of the M. R. E. C. The religious Education Council represents the cause of Christian Education among Protestant churches in the Maritimes. Mr. Levy made a plea for greater support for all the various activities among boys and girls and young people, such as camps, conferences, Boys' parliament, Leadership Training Camps, older boys conferences, and Sunday School conventions. The staff of the M. R. E. C. has been greatly depleted in recent years but the work is still being done very efficiently. The speaker emphasized our boys program which is definitely Christian and Christ-centered in its teaching and asked that the cooperating churches loyally promote it.

Applications for emergency grants were passed in favour of Rev. W. A. Thompson, Mrs. Mary E. Spencer, and Mrs. Laura MacKenzie.

By a vote of eighteen for and twenty-six against Presbytery decided against the passing of legislation opening the ministery to women. The question was thoroughly discussed, all being given an opportunity to express their views. Elmer Ashly, B. A. was received and licensed to preach, and recommended to Conference for ordination. Roy Vessey, York, made application and was received as a candidate for the ministery. The request of Bideford to build a church at Conway was referred to the Property Committee, to report at the June Meeting of the Presbytery. Revs E. R. Woodisde and W. A. Paterson were appointed to the Boy's Work Board.

Hitler's Speech To Be Broadcast ThroughoutReich

(C. P.-Havas)
(By Guardian's Special Wire)

BERLIN, May 15—The importance of Chancellor Adolf Hitler's forthcoming declaration before the Reichstag, now set for Tuesday evening, was indicated today when officials of the communications ministry announced it would be broadcast to all parts of the Reich.

The Fuehrer personally selected the hour for his address, so that the majority of citizens would be in their homes, or free to hear the address at their neighborhood cafes.

It was remarked in "inspired quarters" today that the press of Britain, France and Italy had made repeated efforts to provoke a declaration of foreign policy from the Chancellor in the past few weeks, in order to simplify the diplomatic negotiations underway among those three nations. The Nachtausgabe commented:

MY UNCLE TOM

From the Cosmos elementals—
To this human life, he came—
A Canadian by his birthright
And a Reilly, by his name.

A farmer born, by heritage,
And a sailor lad by trade—
But a rod-man and surveyor
When the C. P. R. was laid.

Across the wild Dominion—
From its East to Western sea—
He helped to lay its roadbed
Out from Guelph to Calgary.

He saw the buffalo herds by day
Roam o'er the prairie plains—
And heard the coyote howl at night
Along the shanty lanes.

He saw the scurvey patients,
And the mountain fever had—
And was nursed by friendly Indians
Out among Ontario's crags.

Yes! He saw the Riel rebellion
Out in Manitoba's wilds—
And related it to me so oft,
When I was but a child.

He found gold in a Dalton rock—
Along Superior's shore—
And Mica quartz at Dog Lake dug
And kicked the mineral o'er.

He saw Winnipeg in prairie—
And Fort William as a lake—
And refused to sign a charter
Such wild land to hold or take.

Brandon, Portage and Regina,
Were but spots upon the map—
Of the C. P. Railway's highway
Across the plains and Rooky gap.

From old Quebec out to Vancouver,
Shining rails of steel were laid—
And railroad history in the New World
In fair Canada was made.

But the call from mountain sickness
To his native Isle was heard—
And he went home to Prince Edward
To regain his health—deterred.

Thence, to Boston street car service
Horse drawn and electric driven—
And thru subway and "L" way knowledge
To line foreman he had risen.

Settled in this Boston city—
With a wife, and family blessed,
He worked hard for home and loved ones
And in service, he progressed.

Till one night, out on his duty—
He was helping splice a wire—
Where the trolley pole had smashed it
And it blazed in liquid fire.

A street car smashed into their ladder
And hurled them headlong to the ground
And when X ray's told their story—
Many broken bones were found.

His health was broken, and his body
Wracked with pain repressed in life,
Then the God who gave his helpmate—
Took away this loving wife.

From that day he hobbled hither—
Till that final Call was given—
And he joined the Great Surveyor
On the plains of peace,—in heaven.

—Peter Allan Reilly, 32 Westland Avenue, Boston, Mass.

Thistles' Best On Soccer Team To Tour Canada

(Copyright, 1935, by The Canadian Press)

Considered in many quarters the strongest ever choses to represent Scotand abroad the Scottish Football Association team will open their United States-Canadian tour at Philadelphia May 18 and will play their first Canadian game in Toronto May 22. Sketches of the players follow:

William Stevenson (Goalkeeper, Clyde)—one of the most consistent goalkepers in Scotland. To the unprejudiced man on the terracing his claims for interntional honors are as good as most custodians. He has played in the United States. Graduating from Strathclyde (junior Glasgow club) he joined Arthurlie and then crossed the Atlantic. Returning home he played for Third Lanark and shortly after joined Clyde.

Andrew Anderson (Full-back, Hearts) —Scotland's right-back against England for the past three years. A fast and a sound tackler he has any amount of courage. He was an automatic choice for the North American tour because of his record in internationl games. Airdrie-born he served his apprenticeship with a Coatsbridge juvenile club before going to Baillieston juniors. He joined Hearts, his first and only senior club.

George Cummings (Full-back, Partick Thistle)—In his first international game between England and Scotland this year he played like a veteran, tackling superbly and kicking accurately with both feet. A native of Grangemouth, he played at first with Grange Rovers. Cummings tried out for Rangers and Celtic before being signed by Partick.

Robert McDonald (Full-back, Rangers)—"Whitey" as he is known in Canada and Scotland is an Irishman who learned his football in Hamilton, Ont., where he played for Hamilton Thistles. Later while playing as a half-back for Ulster United, Toronto team, he was discovered by Glasgow Rangers during thir first Canadian tour. Prevailed upon to try his luck in Scotland he was converted into a left-back and has played many the games for the league champions in that position. He has been capped by Ireland.

David Meiklejohn (Half-back, Rangers)—His selection came as a surprise as he is now approaching the veteran stage, having joined his present and only senior club from Perthshire in 1919. He toured Canada with Scottish Football Association team in 1927. A fine half-back, his ball control, positional play and anticipation are wonderful. He is the possessor of 20 cups.

Robert Fraser (Half - back Aberdeen)—Never before invited to play on a representative team, this Motherwell-born youth has been a serviceable member of any side he has been connected with. He first played in senior football with Albino Rovers before migrating to Aberdeen. He is captain of the Dons and very popular.

Robert Donnelly (Half-back, Partick Thistle)—One of the mainstays of Partick Thistle's defence, he was born in Wishaw. After playing with a local junior side he joined his present club. It was not until last year that he made his post a permanency. A brawny player, he is equally strong in attack or defence.

Peter Wilson (Half - back, Hibernians) — Another surprise selection. Like Meiklejohn he is a veteran. He has played four times for Scotland and three times in inter-league games when a member of the Celtic post-war team. He reached Easter Road two years ago after 10 seasons with Celtic. Born in Beith, he is slight, but a fine attacking half-back.

Thomas Smith (Half-back, Kilmarnock)—Played for Scotland at Wembley last year and was far from being a failure. A Cumnock lad he jumped from the local juvenile club into Kilmarnock's league eleven. Smith shines more in defence than in attack, his height and weight being advantageous. He gave up accountancy for a football career.

Thomas Walker (Forward, Hearts)—The baby and the star of the team. Hearts are said to have refused $50,000 for his transfer and Arsenal is now reported to be offering a record fee of $60,000. Walker, 19 years of age, is the biggest discovery in Scottish football for two decades. Hailing from Livingstone a New Lothian village he was given a job at Tynecastle when playing for Linlithgow Rose at a time when he was too young to be registered as a professionl. He is an expert at traditional Scottish forward play.

William Miller (Forward, Partick Thistle)—Not a great success when he arrived at Firhill, Miller survived a rather severe barracking to become a favorite. He played against the English league last November. A real bustling type of forward with deceptive swerve he packs a hot shot.

Hugh Gallacher (Forward, Derby County)—A representative of Scotland seven times against England, he is recognized as Scotland's best centre-forward since the war. Hughie has travelled since leaving his home in Bellshill. He has played for Queen of the South, Airdrieonians, Newcastle United, Chelsea and Derby County. His return to from has been one of the sensations of the present season. He has scored 26 goals in international matches for Scotland.

David Wilson (Forward, Hamilton Academicals)—An Englishman and the best centre-forward in Scottish football this season, he is a native of Hebburn, near Newcastle. The Accies brought him north for the matter of the railway fare and he has paid his way ever since. He relies on his skill rather than upon his physical advantages.

William Mills (Forward, Aberdeen)—Another youngster one of three Vale of Leven brothers, who are equally at home on running track and football field. He was playing with Bridgeton Waverley, Glasgow Junior club when Aberdeen signed him four years ago. Mills established himself as one of the most useful inside forwards in league football.

Robert Main (Forward, Rangers) —Although he has been five seasons at Ibrox Park he has never quite realized the expectations engerdered by his play as a junior with Baillieston. On his day he can produce as dazzling football as his predecessor, Sandy Archibald. The league has recognized his abilities during the past two years but this is the first time he has been capped by the S. F. A.

Alex Ferguson (Forward, St. Johnstone)—Just 20 years of age and a native of Dundee he was playing with Lochee Harp when the Perth Club spotted him to the annoyance of several other senior clubs. Fast and full of tricks he is a source of worry to the opposing defence.

(A.P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

LIMA, Peru, May 15 — Antonio Miro Quesada, leading Peruvian publisher and statesman, was assassinated by a student today and his wife died at his side in a vain attempt to shield him.

The double slaying took place on a principal street as Miro Quesada, 60, and his wife walked towards the Club Nacional.

Senora Miro Quesada rushed to his side and stood over him to cut off further shots. Two bullets entered her body and both died almost instantly.

Wild confusion reigned as police arrested Spiers, who was said to have attempted suicide before he was seized.

Miro Quesada was a former president of the chamber of deputies and former minister to Belgium.

ONCE FARMER, NOW SINGER

LONDON, May 15—(C.P.)—Charles Benson of Tasmania, scored something of a triumph when he made his first appearance as a tenor. He was a sheep farmer on a large scale, but met with an accident, and on the advice of the late Dame Nellie Melba, turned his attention to singing.

How To Save Money

Why pay out your hard earned money on rent when you can save enough in ten years and own your own home.

$20.00 a month amounts to $2,400 in ten years and $50.00 runs into $6,000.00. In the same time, with interest added figure for yourself.

A number of very desirable building lots are for sale situated at the new extension of School Street. These Lots are in the City and also others just outside. Ornamental trees are to be planted (this Spring) on each side of the street. A very modern building is now in the course of erection and another will be in full swing in a few weeks. When you are settled down in your own home you will wonder why you wasted so much money on rent.
