Sport Echoes From Prince County

The last place Kinsmen Juniors sprang a surprise on the league-leading Legionaires Monday night holding the 1947 champions to a 2-1 draw. With Alan Stewart back from summer school and fogging them in for the Frigid Freshmen, the team looked pretty formidable again, as they had looked in the early days of the regular schedule.

Porky Lyle got the old razzberry from the fans in the bleachers when MacMurdo, dashing for the plate in the fourth inning, was tripped and tagged out. Lyle's strategy was just sound, however, and might easily have worked. With one out, MacMurdo represented the tying run on third, and Joe Bernard, as dependable a ball player as they come at bat, Lyle's decision to try the squeeze play was smart baseball.

In the first important game of the year with players bringing elimination closer with each miss, it seemed rather odd that it was the veteran ball players who seemed to jitter on the defence while the kids, or most of them, played as if it were just another ball game.

Besides being a top-notch backstop and pretty good with the hickory too, Charlie Deignan has the happy faculty of keeping his teammates in line when the gang get a bit sore at an umpire's decision and start taking the steps that, if followed long enough, will get them thrown out of the game.

Now that the chips are really down it will be more difficult than ever to keep the players from crabbng at what they consider off-color decisions on the part of umpires. The arbiters will have to be stricter than ever. Umpire Phillips showed no disposition to take any pointed remarks from the players Monday night. He was ready to throw them out at the drop of a hint that his eyesight was impaired, and the way it should be. No umpire minds a player questioning one of his decisions in a quiet, good-natured way, but if the player starts to get tough about it, that is the proper time for the ump to point to the exit and tell the protesting player to get on his bicycle.

Rae "Giblets" Arsenault has allowed only five hits in the last thirteen innings he has pitched. This is pretty fair flinging for a guy who was supposed to be all through pitching two years ago. Rae's performances this year must be pretty nearly as good as his mound work some years ago when he was in his prime. We think that Arsenault is going to be a pretty handy fellow to have around when the Charlottetown-Summerdale Intermediate series gets under way.

The baseball treat of the year is coming up this (Wednesday) afternoon for fans of Prince County. The Philadelphia Colored Giants will be in Summerdale to play a double-header with our All-Stars and anyone who has not seen those colored travelling teams Detroit in a action has no idea what a afternoon and evening of entertainment and excitement they will bring. The colored boys will display some baseball such as is not seen in these parts very often, and in addition to that they have a colorful (no pun intended) way of displaying themselves that never fails to entertain the fans.

Defending Golf Champ In First Round Victory

Canadian Press Staff Writer RIVERSIDE GOLF CLUB, N.B., Aug. 24—Defending champion Grace Lenczyk, from Newington, Connecticut, today breezed safely through the opening round of the Canadian ladies' open golf championship, a round that produced few upsets and most victories by convincing margins.

Twelve Canadians and four Americans came safely through the first 18-hole match-play test. The 21-year-old Connecticut girl, with accurate drives and sharp putting, set up an early five-hole lead over Mrs. C. L. Urquhart of Riverside and was never threatened in winning 6 and 5. Miss Lenczyk lost only one hole, winning seven and halving the remainder.

The tightest match of the day produced something of an upset when Mrs. A.L. Smith, a 15-handicap player from Oak Ridge, Ont., defeated Mrs. Bruce Campbell of Winnipeg, Manitoba champion, on the 16th green. It was the only extra-hole match in today's play. Mrs. Campbell overcoming a one-hole deficit after half the journey only to lose out at the 19th.

Another surprise came with the elimination of Miss Marjorie Row, Windsor, Ont., scratch player, at the hands of Miss Isabelle Jarvis of Victoria, a four-handicap golfer. Miss Row was three down after nine holes but came back courageously and squared the match at the 17th. But Miss Jarvis out-drove her on the 18th and sank a short putt to win.

Mrs. N. J. Carlson, Toronto Rosedale veteran who was medalist in interprovincial team play, was eliminated by the steady play of youthful Anne Sharpe of Welland, Ont., who increased her one-up margin after nine holes to win 3 and 2.

Another veteran tournament player, Mrs. C. H. Shuttleworth of Bartonville, Ont., fell by the wayside. Miss Evelyn Mills, of York Mills, Ont., playing a careful game and putting well, won 2 and 1 after a close fight all the way.

Miss Ada McKenzie of Toronto, five times champion, raced into an early five-up lead over Miss Jo Anna of Welland, Ont., and won 4 and 3.

Ontario's champion, Mrs. Cecil Gooderham of Toronto, had a comparatively easy time in curling back Miss Kay Heller, Toronto, 4 and 3, leading by two holes after the first nine.

O'Brien Wins Heat With Indian Land

MILWAUKEE, Aug. 24—(AP)—Grattan McKillop, a big black gelding, paced the fastest mile of the Grand Circuit season today to win the second heat of the $2,000 free-for-all race in 1:59 4-5 at the Wisconsin Centennial Exposition.

The gelding, owned by Mrs. B. F. Owen of Omaha, Neb., was driven by Canadian reinsman Ned Huslett, ran third in the four-horse field until the stretch where Huslett went wide to the outside to come in front. The time on his last quarter of the one-mile dirt track was 26 4-5 seconds.

McKillop paced the first quarter in 30 seconds flat, the second in 30 2-5 and the third in 29 3-5 to become the first harness horse to break two minutes this year. It broke in the first heat and finished fourth to earn a split of the purse with Indian Land, driven by Joe O'Brien of New Glasgow, N. S.

The richest race on the card, the $9,726 three-year-old Trotting Club Pace, was won by Knight Dream, last year's leading two-year-old pacer owned by Gray Brothers and Armstrong of East Providence, R. I. The bay colt went the first heat in 2:01 3-5 and the second in 2:02. Ralph Baldwin of Lloyminster, Sask., led by their victory. The locals proved that they are one of the best intermediate baseball clubs ever to represent the Province.

It was the same All Stars that stole the show and the manner in which they backed up the smart hurling of "Lefty" McAleer shows conclusively that the locals are ready for their coming tests in the Island playdowns against Summerdale All Stars and if they can get by the formidable Summerdale team should be strong contenders for the Maritime title, a crown they last held in 1945.

For the third time this season come Sunday afternoon the same All Stars will face the Tata-magouche intermediates. It will be the third meeting between the two clubs this year with each having won a victory on home grounds and the coming encounter should be a natural.

Much rivalry has been creeping into the game between the two and both will field their strongest lineups in an endeavour to come out with a victory in the rubber match. The week-end contests against outside teams have been giving the fans some real exhibitions of baseball and are doing much to put the game on the firmest kind of footing.

KEIGHLEY, Yorkshire, England, Aug. 24—(Reuters)—Keighley drew with Rochdale Hornets 13-13 in a rugby league match here tonight.

Amherst Red Wings, smart girls softball team from the Nova Scotia centre and Cumberland and Colchester Counties champions meet the Knights of Columbus All Stars at the latter's diamond here this afternoon in a game that is expected to draw a large crowd of fans.

The visitors will present a well-balanced, smooth fielding club that has been piling up an enviable number of victories on the mainland and their appearance here has created a big wave of interest in softball circles with the main trend of thought being just how the locals will fare off against them.

The All Stars shouldn't do badly by any means. Continuous play ever since the season got underway in the K. of C. league has seen the squad develop into a much more formidable outfit than they were last season and it seems to be the consensus of opinion among fans who have been following their activities that they will give the Amherst squad quite a battle of it, all the way.

Although Philadelphia Monarchs performance in their game against Freddie McCabe's All Stars didn't live up to expectations yesterday evening nevertheless by their victory the locals proved that they are one of the best intermediate baseball clubs ever to represent the Province.

Ruth Would Have Been Greatest "Lefty" In Game

NEW YORK, Aug. 24—(AP)—Walter Johnson, Washington Senators' immortal righthander, used to chuckle every time Babe Ruth's slugging feats were recalled.

"Nobody can deny that the Babe was the greatest home-run hitter of them all," Sir Walter would say. "But if the big guy hadn't pitched from the mound to outfield, he would have become the greatest left-handed pitcher of them all."

In the 21 years Johnson tolled for the Senators, he worked against hundreds of pitchers, but he always maintained the Babe was the toughest pitcher for him to beat. "I took me three years before I finally was able to beat him," Johnson once related, "and I had to pitch a shutout to do it."

Ruth and the big train hooked up in eight pitching duels, the Babe winning six and Johnson three. Another time Ruth beat Johnson's big league pitching years. Johnson won 145 games, an average of 24 a season. So he must have been good.

Nearly all of the duels between the Babe and Johnson were thrillers. Three of them ended with the score 1-0, and Ruth won all three. Another time Ruth beat Johnson 2-1. Once Ruth won 4-3 and once 5-1.

Johnson's first triumph over Ruth came on Oct. 3, 1917, 3 1/2 years after Ruth joined the Red Sox. Johnson struck out seven Red Sox. Johnson also won their last encounter 4-3, in 10 innings, pitching only the final frame, in relief.

The only eligible contestant missing was Dr. A. McDonald formerly of Summerside but who is now located in Western Canada. Yesterday's match was not decided until the last shot. Mal. Allan needed a bull's eye to force a shoot-off with the winner but his final shot was an inner.

Howard compiled his margin in the early rounds with Wells coming along strongly in the stretch to make it a close battle. There were two knockdowns, Howard staying on the canvas for an eight count and Wells jumping up before one.

Wallace McLeod, 185, of Sydney, battered Sallor Humphreys' face before being given a technical knockout over the English sailor at 1:24 of the fifth.

Sgt. McLennan Is Winner Of Rifle Trophy

Sgt. G. G. McLennan of Alexandria, staging a steady shooting display yesterday won the late Col. H. M. Davison President's Cup in a shoot-off with six other marksmen at the range at Alexandria.

Shot at 200, 500 and 600 yards the winner put together scores of 31, 33 and 33 for a total of 97 out of the possible 108 to lead Col. John Andrew, Cpl. F. J. Landrigan and Major A. W. Allan all of whom had counts of 96.

The other two participants, Lt. P. T. Hooper and Sgt. Roy Coley wound up with scores of 95 and 92. The trophy captured by the winner was put up by the former president of the Provincial Rifle Association. It was to be shot for over a period of ten years with winners of the Grand Aggregate at the P. R. A. Meets in that time meeting in a shoot off to decide permanent possession. War intervened in the meantime and the match as delayed until yesterday afternoon.
