NEW S. S. ASSOCIATION

To be Known as South Kings District S. S.

Association.

According to previous announcement a number of Sunday School workers of Lot 61, 63, 64, assembled in the Presbyterian Church at Murray River, Friday afternoon and after listening to explanations from the Field Secretary, Rev. G. P. Raymond of Charlottetown, as to the needs and benefits of interdenominational Sunday School associations, they decided to organize a District Association to be known as South King's District S. S. Association. The following officers were elected.

President—E. G. Geddings, Murray River.

1st. Vice Pres.—John Gillies Little Sands.

2nd. Vice Pres.—D. A. Horton, Murray Harbor South.

Secretary—Adella E. Horton, Murray River.

The following ministers were elected as additional members of the Executive Committee—Rev. E. Gillies, (Presby.) Rev. Mr. McCaully, (Methodist) and Rev. H. Carter, (Baptist.)

Although the notice of the meeting was only given a few days previous to the date of the holding of the meeting, yet it was gratifying to find the following schools represented, viz:

Murray River, (Presby.)—Edgar Gedding, Miss McIntosh, Miss Whiteway Mr. and Mrs. McClure.

Murray Harbor S. (Presby.)—Mr. L. Gowan, Mr. Albert Horton, Mrs. Albert Horton.

Murray Harbor S. (Methodist), Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Brooks, Mr. George Roberts, Mr. Josiah Roberts.

Little Sands, (Presby.)—Miss Janet McKay, John Gillies.

Cape Bear (Baptist)—Rev. H. Carter.

Gladstone (Union)—Miss A. Horton.

The evening session was opened with devotional exercises lead by Rev. E. Gillies, who also presided throughout the meeting, and gave a very earnest address on the need of increased interest in the important work of Bible study and teaching. Rev. H. Carter also gave an address emphasizing the points already set forth.

A SIGN OF THE TIMES.

In these days of business activity, when business man is pitted against business man, each trying to surpass the other in the endeavor to secure the lion's share of trade, when every new idea as it originates in the brainiest brain is immediately brought to bear on the happy possessor's business, every step of progressiveness is marked by a corresponding improvement in the "Home of the Trade."

Two of the most successful, energetic and enterprising young men in the city to-day are Messrs. Harry James and Alfred Trainor the well-known Past Masters of the shears and razors—the Acme Barbers. Messrs. James & Trainor started business first on Dorchester street in the stand formerly occupied by Messrs. McIsaac and Arbing. Nothing daunted by a severe scorching at the fire that gutted the Stevenson building last spring they moved into their present stand on Queen street taking one half the store, and fitting it up with almost everything new. With the help of a judicious amount of advertising, modern methods of their artistic profession, and a pleasant genial way of treating their many customers the Acme Parlors soon became one of the busiest stores in the city. Business grew apace, day after day new faces appearing for the application of lather, brush and razor, and new heads for the shears. Satisfactory work produces the best results as Messrs. James & Trainor can attest, and the three chairs were kept constantly busy, all this spring they saw that something must be done to accommodate their fast increasing patronage.

Accordingly the whole shop was rented and placed in the hands of carpenters, plumbers and painters, and to-day the Acme Tonsorial Parlors stand pre-eminently the best without a doubt in the province.

The whole shop has been re-papered with a pleasing pattern of paper and bordering, a polished hardwood floor has been laid, new chairs of birch maple, new show cases, new mug stand with mirror front placed, as well as a handsome round marble sink for hot and cold water set in the centre of the shop.

A row of electric lamps all round the room cast a delicately shaded glow of light on the neatly appointed and attractive adornments after night, and with the addition of another first class and up-to-date revolving chair which is ordered for early delivery the Acme Parlors will present an inviting and cheerful appearance to the passers by.

Messrs. James & Trainor richly deserve the ever increasing patronage they receive as improvement and progressiveness are strong points in the treatment of their customers as in the appointments of their shop.

The alterations in the shop were made by Messrs. H. & S. Lowe, the plumbing by T. A. McLean, and the painting & by Messrs. Stentford & Taylor.

and expressing the hope that the visit of the Field Secretary and the Association effected at the afternoon session would prove beneficial in arousing and continuing an enthusiastic interest on Sunday school work. He pointed out that we organize to co-operate to evangelize.

A paper on the "Qualifications and work of a S. S. Teacher" was then read by Miss A. E. Horton.

The Field Secretary then addressed the meeting on the advantages of Normal Classes and Home Departments and urged the introduction of these two new and helpful features into all our schools.

A number of questions were handed in which showed an intelligent interest and earnest desire to learn how to meet difficulties in Sunday school work. These were answered by the Field Secretary and Revs. Gillies and Carter.

A collection of $2.45 was taken in aid of the Provincial work. The next meeting will be held at Little Sands in August.

ADELLA HORTON, Secretary.

MR. JERRY SULLIVAN.

A Sarnia Man who has made an Important Discovery—His Letter to the Public.

To the tens of thousands who suffer with Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Sour Stomach, and Heartburn, the message of Mr. Jerry Sullivan will be a welcome one. Mr. Sullivan has found a cure Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets. He is anxious to help others, and writes the following letter for publication:

"For three years I have suffered with Dyspepsia and Sour Stomach. I could get nothing to help me, although I consulted some of the leading doctors. I began to fear I would never be well.

"I purchased a box of Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets, and after I had used these, I found my trouble growing gradually less. I continued the treatment, and am now perfectly cured.

"I want all who may be suffering as I did to know of Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets. They are the sure cure for Dyspepsia and Sour Stomach."

Mr. Sullivan whose home is in Sarnia, Ont., has found out the difference between a medicine that "relieves," and one that "cures." Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets cure, and those who are cured, stay cured. There is no good reason why any one should suffer a moment longer with Stomach Trouble.

Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets have cured so many, that there is no room for doubt in the mind of any reasonable man or woman. They have never failed to cure all Stomach Weaknesses, when used according to directions.
