

"I'M great at cleaning your woodwork, too"

Just put Bon Ami to work on any smooth painted woodwork you may have—and see for yourself how nice and clean it can make it.

You'll be surprised to see how easily and quickly Bon Ami removes the dirt, smudges and smears—how it freshens and brightens up the paint, particularly if it is white or light in color.

Try Bon Ami also on your bathtubs, kitchen sinks, windows, pots and pans. It doesn't scratch or injure what it cleans... doesn't redden or roughen your hands... and is odorless.

—YOUNG PEOPLE'S RALLY —The Western Union of Young People's Societies of the United Churches of Prince County, which is made up of eighteen societies extending from Cavendish to Cape Wolfe, held a most successful rally on Wednesday afternoon in Staver's field at Schurman's shore. The road leading to the shore was lined with cars and it was estimated that over three hundred people were present. Not long ago there has been such a gathering on Schurman's shore. The Tryon Society had the largest number of members present. Several ministers attended the rally and were delighted with the attendance. North Bedeque Young People opened the rally with a devotional period at 2 o'clock. Following this Rev. J. C. MacDonald, a missionary on furlough from Trinidad, gave a most interesting story of the work of the missionaries in China, Japan and other parts of the Far East. The remainder of the afternoon was given up to games. At five o'clock all went in for a dip in the cool waters of Bedeque harbour. For the supper hour the Young People were arranged in groups and they enjoyed the delicious supper provided. More games followed the supper hour. This part of the program was in charge of Miss Mary Ann and Rev. Mr. Nicholson. At 8:15 a huge camp fire was made and all groups themselves around it and a regular sing-song was enjoyed. Some of the young ladies played guitars and everyone was having a good time, when a heavy downpour of rain sent everyone hurrying to the cars for shelter. This rather spoiled an otherwise perfect outing. Lot 18 group had arranged a splendid program for the closing number but owing to the shower this was abandoned.—S.

The report of the festival held recently, on the lawn adjoining the home, was submitted and approved, and it showed a satisfactory surplus. The congratulations of the Supreme Board was contained in a communication read from the Supreme Secretary and complimenting the Council upon the success of the recent initiation class. In honor of the Supreme Knight his efforts in this regard. A further communication was read from the Supreme Secretary with reference to holding an initiation at Tignish. The Grand Knight announced his committees and the appointments for the year. The "Good of the Order" was conducted by the Worthy Lecturer, Brother Cyril J. Carver, who introduced the speaker of the evening, Rev. Dr. G. J. McLellan, V.G., Chaplain of the Council, who gave an illuminating address on "Jacques Cartier." The learned Chaplain in a concise talk outlined the work accomplished by the great explorer and the glorious heritage he left to the people of Canada and exhorted his hearers to study Canada's history and acquaint themselves with its thrilling pages from the time Cartier first planted the Cross in the name of his God and his King right down to the present day. In these trying times of depression there was a challenge to the citizens of Canada to emulate Cartier and display the same dauntless courage in facing the various problems and obstacles confronting us so that Canada might continue to be the great and free nation she now is, said the speaker. A hearty vote of thanks to Father McLellan was moved by Past State Deputy Summerside.—S.
