IT PAYS to buy in this Province. (From Yesterday's Evening Guardian)

ARTISTIC CARDS.—The Guardian has received from Mr. M. S. Acorn, a handsome series of real photo post cards showing several beauty spots in, and about the prettily situated town of Souris. Mr. Acorn with time artistic instinct has chosen his scenes for beauty and has a splendid view of The Souris Harbor, the Souris Light House with a schooner under sail making the harbor. Lover's Lake near Souris and a shady Glen near the town, beside the principal building, churches, etc. The series will do much to advertise the beauty spots in Eastern Kings.

WESTMORELAND.—Mr. John Pembroke, Woburn, Mass., is visiting in Westmoreland the guest of his brother, Mr. James Pembroke. Mr. Albert Sturdy paid a flying visit to the city last week. Messrs Mark McVittie, Albert Oakes and Jesse Oakes left last week for the West. The many friends in Westmoreland are glad to hear that Miss Winnie Hagan has recovered from a very severe illness. Miss Granville McVittie has returned to Charlottetown, after spending her Easter holidays at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chron McVittie. A very enjoyable evening was spent at the home of Mr. Heath McVittie last week, when a number of the young folks of the vicinity gathered together there. Games and other amusements were indulged in, until finally supper was served. After supper the amusements were again resumed and were continued until the wee small hours of the morning. Mrs. Robert McVittie spent Sunday in Crapaud with her daughter, Mrs. George McDonald.

POINT PRIM.—The youth and beauty of Point Prim took advantage of the good sleigh roads recently and drove to the home of Mr. and Mrs. John McLeod's, Newtown, where a very enjoyable time was spent. Music was indulged in by Mr. Patrick Bulger and Miss Katie McLeod. An excellent supper was served. Mrs. McLeod's best style. The farmers are busy preparing for their spring's work, and those interested in lobster factories have most of their hauling down. Mr. Clarence L. Gillis, and Mr. Angus A. MacDonald, up-to-date carpenters, are finishing Mr. William McDonald's dwelling house. The many friends of Mr. Alex J. McRae are glad to see him improving after his recent illness. Mr. Donald MacKinnon and Mr. Frank Gillis are welcomed back to Point Prim after visiting their friend, Thos. Nicholson. Mr. Dougald MacKinnon has returned home after spending the winter in New Glasgow. Mr. Rod MacDonald intends to move to his new farm, this coming summer. Miss Bell J. Nicholson from Orwell Cove, is visiting her cousin Miss Bell J. McLeod. Miss Mary L. MacDonald and Miss Desbie McLeod, intend spending a few days with friends and relatives in Commercial Cross. The school is progressing under the skillful teacher Mr. Patrick Bulger.

FRIDERICTON, ETC.—There will be service in Fredericton Hall at 3 p. m., and in Braselane Christian Church at 7 p. m. Sunday 5th inst.

KINGSTON.—The service in the Methodist Church last Sunday was largely attended and was of an Easter character, the topic dealt with by the pastor Rev. George Orman being the Resurrection. The choir under the leadership of Miss Lola Barrett who presided at the organ in her usual efficient manner rendered appreciative music which was highly appreciated.

GRAND SOCIAL.—The members of King George L. O. L., No. 2238 held a very enjoyable and profitable social in Winsloe Hall on the eve of March 26th in aid of their Lodge. Bro. Wm. Robinson, W. M., in the chair. The program opened with The Song of the Brotherhood by the Choir. Song—Masters George and Nelson Robinson. Dialogue—Discourtesy Punished. Song—When the Sunset Turns the Ocean's Blue to Gold. Dialogue—Mindreading. Character Song—Mr. John Robinson, (encored). Dialogue—Mr. and Mrs. Brown and Pete. Song—I've got rings on my fingers—Mr. Geo. A. Cudmore. Character Song—Mr. J. W. Rodd, Encored. Violin and Harmonica solo, Bro. Geo. A. Cudmore. Chorus by the choir. Dialogue from Pumpkin Ridge. Then came the sale of boxes and baskets which were very ably and creditably auctioned by Bro. Wm. McLeod. Much credit is due Bro. Hurst who performed the duties as Organist. Special mention must also be made of the style and manner in which Mr. John Robinson and Mr. J. W. Rodd, acted their respective parts. A very neat sum was realized considering the prospects of a wet evening. Many thanks to the audience for their kind attention.—Com.
