The Farmerette

"A city girl a milking went
The cow she chose was violent
The farmer called him 'Mike' because That's the kind of a cow he was."

"The city girls said 'that big hen should lay big eggs.' The big hen then just crowed and crowed and crowed, because That's the kind of a hen he was."

Poultry Feeds

A writer in the New York Sun tells us that there are many things about hens a great many of us would like to know. He asks:

"Why are eggs cheap when my hens are laying and high when they are not laying?"
"Why are hens cheap when I sell them, and high and tough when I buy?"

After referring his questions to Mr. Hoover or to a graduate of some good reliable chicken college, he adds:

"Why is a hen, anyway? A rooster is a very simpleminded individual and after you have shaken hands with him two or three times he will speak to you anywhere he meets you, whether you are dressed up or not. But a hen—good night! You can't even approach her without getting a scolding, and when she does lay an egg even once a week she will hide the egg if she can, and then come out in the open and yell her head off just because she has laid something she knows you want and hopes you will never find."

However the hens bring the eggs, the eggs bring the dollars. Just received:—

Ask for Minard's and take no other.

TO RELIEVE CATARRHAL DEAFNESS AND HEAD NOISES.

If you have Catarrhal Deafness or head noises go to your druggist and get 1 ounce of Minard's (double strength), and add to it 1/4 pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar. Take tablespoonful four times a day. This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy and the mucus stop dropping into the throat. It is easy to prepare, costs little and is pleasant to take. Any one who has Catarrhal Deafness or head noises should give this prescription a trial.

THE CRISIS!

JUST an ordinary cup of coffee! Surely nothing could be more commonplace to you. But—

To wounded, broken and exhausted Canadian men staggering out of a furnace of shells, at Vimy Ridge, with nerves torn to pieces, that little refreshment in the moment of crisis—who can measure its significance? For it may mean life itself!

Canada-Wide Appeal

Here is an officer's picture of the need: "I wish you and the people supplying free hot drinks could see the men coming in after a big action. They would look like grotesque scarecrows if you couldn't see the pathos of it. Their shoulders and heads sag forward and they slouch slowly along with never a glance to left or right. The strangest thing about them is their faces. If the tension is not broken the brain may snap. I certainly believe that in thousands of cases it was that first hot coffee that dragged the man back to life and sanity."

Is there a man, woman or boy in all Canada to whom these heroes would appeal in vain? Will you help the Y.M.C.A. supply the coffee and the thousand and one other needs of body, mind and spirit "over there?"

Can proud Canadians send a more heartening, more practical message to Canadian heroes now amid the perils of the greatest battle in history than this: "that the Canadian people responded to the Call of the Y.M.C.A. with magnificent, abundant whole-hearted Generosity!" Will YOU Help?
