 time headed the Palestine commission.

Urges Labor To Get Together CALGARY, Alta., Oct. 29. (By the Canadian Press)—Canadian labor was urged to gather together under one banner by William Irvine, Labor member in the House of Commons for Wetaskiwin, Alta., who addressed a meeting here under the auspices of the Canadian Brotherhood of Railway Employees.
 All supporters of the Labor polities should merge under the banner of a Canadian Federation of Labor, according to Mr. Irvine.
 Referring to the activities of the American Federation of Labor, Mr.
 Irvine said Canada should have its own organization whose policies and affairs were controlled by Canadians. He said the Brotherhood of Railway Employees believed that the Canadian Congress of Labor should become the only organization for Canadian labor.

SCORES IRVINE
 "The Trades and Labor Congress of Canada has fulfilled the functions of a Canadian Federation for Canadian workers for the past 47 years," said Tom Moore, Ottawa, President of the Trades and Liber Congress of Canada, discussing a despatch from Calgary in which William Irvine, Labor M. P. for Wetaskiwin urged Canadian labor to gather under one banner as a Canadian Federation of Labor.
 "Mr. Irvine was never a member of a trades union," added Mr.
 Moore, "and has only a superficial knowledge of the affairs of Canadian workers who he attempts to guide. The Trades and Labor Congress of Canada has full autonomy and is directed entirely by Canadians. It has full authority over Canadian matters."
 The Canadian Federation of Labor, Mr. Moore said, had certain jurisdiction regarding relations between various organizations, but was chiefly concerned with United States labor legislation.

"If Mr. Irvine had studied the work of the Trades and Labor Congress annual meeting in Vancouver the week prior to the annual meeting of the American Federation of Labor in the same city, he would have seen that a great deal of work was done and suggestions advanced in the interests of Canadian labor," Mr. Moore said, referring to Mr. Irvine's contention that the American Federation of Labor wasted time to no good purpose at its recent annual meeting.
 "Notwithstanding the habits of people like Mr. Irvine to attack the trades and Labor Congress," Mr.
 Moore concluded, "the membership showed a substantial increase at the last annual meeting, proving that the workers are taking a lively interest in its work in spite of the depression."

THIRD WEEK'S PUZZLES REPEATED

WIFE'S DRESSES GAVE INVENTOR GREAT IDEA How was the idea of the gas-filled balloon conceived?
 Montgolfier, the famous French balloonist of the last of the eightteenth century, one day volunteered to air his wife's gowns. While engaged in this task he noticed that, when filled with hot air from the fire, the gowns became inflated and began to raise themselves up. He was keenly interested, and by the time his wife came in, Montgolfier was sending up little paper balloons, and thus beginning the invention that made him famous.
