[P]IANO CLASS DEMONSTRATION

A very unique and unusual entertainment was given at West Kent School Tuesday afternoon, in the form of a demonstration of teaching the piano to beginners in class. There were three classes taking part and the routine of class work was gone over by the children and teacher for the benefit of the parents and friends.

In a few opening remarks, the piano class teacher for West Kent School, Prof. Thompson, sopke of the benefits of the theoretical side which is taken up along with the practical work.

It was delightful to the onlooker to watch the children demonstrating their knowledge of theory at the black board, while the children's playing of pieces at the piano was very pleasing. The playing of the pieces from memory reflected great credit upon teacher and pupils alike. Two short trios written in four parts were well performed and displayed the children's knowledge of time. The story of the origin of the staff was effectively told by Miss Claire Farquharson.

The following pupils took part: Trio, "Little Prelude," by Herbert Murray, Beryl DeBlois and Graham [...]tt.

Pieces:
"Hymn," Durell Murray.
"Chimes", Katherine Paton.
"Pussy Cat", Lois Brady.
"Ringing Bells", Delys Worth.
Trio, "Children's Hymn", by Marjorie Hill, Claire Farquharson and Doris Dalziel.
Pieces:
"Scotch Lullabye", Beth McLaine.
"Good Morning, Merry Sunshine," Joan Fripps.
"The Storm", Stuart Chandler.
"Bugle Band", Constance Williams.
"Ringing Bells", Billy Brehaut.
"Scotch Lullaby", Ruth Smith.

The Rhythm Orchestra brought the program to a close with a selection entitled "The Blue Danube" Waltz by Strauss.

A young wife said to her husband the other day: "I've decided to give you a manicure set, a lovely rose bowl, and a hearth-rug for our wedding anniversary, dear."

Then she looked at him affectionately. "And what," she asked, "do you think of giving me?"

"I thought," he answered, rather curtly, "of giving you a safety razor."

For the first forty-seven weeks of 1933, hogs graded in Canada numbered 2,801,537 as against 2,761,606 in the corresponding period of 1932.

—BELOW ZERO WEATHER— The cold weather which has been pretty general all last week took a sudden drop on Tuesday evening and at midnight the thermometer was down to zero at Summerside. During the night it dropped to eight below. All day Wednesday it was around the zero mark. At St. Eleanors it was three below and at Miscouche ten below. This is the coldest December weather for a good many years. S.

—SANTA PALS—The Boy Scouts of Summerside are busy making preparations to assist Santa Claus this year distribute Christmas goodies to the little ones. Their headquarters will be at the office of the late J. E. Wyatt on Central Street, which Mrs. Wyatt has very kindly loaned to the Scouts for this work. There is more need than ever this year for willing helpers, so that every child will have something in his stocking on Christmas morning. If you wish to be a Santa Pal, please notify Scout Master Hallett or Scout Master Wedge and they will call or send a Scout for your gift, or you can call at their headquarters and see the Scouts in action. S.

—CHILDREN'S AID MEETING —The regular monthly meeting of the Children's Aid Society of Prince County was held on Tuesday in the Red Cross Room in the Town Building, Summerside. Dr. J. A. McPhee, the president, presided. The agent of the Society, Mr. Vincent J. Harrington, reported on a number of cases of distress among children in several country districts, and reported that he had supplied shoes and underwear to enable the children to go to school, and the same thing has been done in a number of cases in Summerside. The demands for clothing for children are exceeding that of any year since the organization of the Society, and he urged upon the members and the citizens generally the need of sending him second hand clothing, as he had calls every day from children for the same. Any citizens who would call Mr. Harrington by phone at his house and advise him they had second hand clothing for children up to 16 years of age, he would gladly call for the same, as the need is great. He reported that truancy for the month had been kept in hand by keeping after the parents of a number of children who seem to be absent from school if they get the least opportunity to stay away. But he was not obliged to bring any of them before the Juvenile Court. Several applications were received from families in the country asking for clothing for children and the agent was ordered to investigate and if he considered it necessary to supply their needs. S.

The prospective customer stopped before a handsome piece of furniture.

"What is the price of this table?" he asked the dealer.

"That's going at thirty guineas," the other replied.

"Thirty!" ejaculated the customer. "Why, man, that's far to expensive. You must have a very strange idea of present-day values."

The furniture dealer looked hurt. "Not at all," he replied warmly. "I think I ought to know a good deal by now."

"Possibly," said the customer quietly; "but why label it mahogany?"

..*SONG SERVICE ENJOYED— Owing to the very unfavorable weather the attendance at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Montague, on Sunday evening last was not as large as it would have been had conditions been more favorable; however, the fifteen minutes of song which serves as a prelude to the regular service, and which is a new venture in church circles in this locality, was greatly appreciated by the congregation. The condition of the roads preventing the minister from arriving on time, the duties of announcing the hymns and explaining the reason for this new innovation, devolved upon the efficient and capable organist, Mrs. Davison, her own immediate perception coming to the rescue. She performed the task in a manner creditable not only to herself, but to the congregation as well. A faithful worker in the Master's vineyard, and one who never wearies in well doing, Mrs. Davison apparently finds real pleasure in supplying the musical wants of this exalted and sacred institution.
