BEWARE THE MAGGOT IN OUR APPLE . . .

THE strength of democracy is its soundness at the core! The problem is to keep it so. That is the job of every citizen . . . not just "the other fellow."

When our democracy is fighting for its very life against foreign enemies, it's more essential than ever that we do all we can to rid ourselves of weakness at home.

Now here's a paradox. The greatest danger we face at home is the complacency of those who refuse to admit there is any danger at all! Who refuse to admit, for instance, that there is any possible danger of losing the freedom of the press . . . which means their freedom to get the facts they need!

Yet without vigilant public opinion, a free press can so easily be made unfree . . .

First, it's "Please don't disclose these facts—they might unsettle people."

Then it's "This subject must not be discussed."

Finally it's "DON'T PRINT THIS—PRINT THAT!"

And out the door goes freedom . . . every freedom!

Obviously! Because how can you be really sure what plan to support or what leaders to trust, without a free press to give you the straight FACTS of what is happening? Can you decide how to use the money in your pocket or how to save it, without papers free to bring you the news of sales and the claims of every competing product?

"All right," you say, "We know all that. We agree with you. But what shall we do about it? How can I help?"

To start with, do these things . . .

FIRST, fight complacency wherever you find it. Go after the smug people! Don't let anyone tell you it can't happen here . . . Shrugged shoulders soon bow!

SECOND, read your newspaper still more carefully. Really think about what you read. Hazy minds are soon enslaved!

THIRD, if you ever suspect that truth is being suppressed, if facts you know are twisted, do something about it, yourself! Write the editor! Talk with your neighbour! Don't let it slide! The publisher can't do the whole job alone!

THE PRICE OF FREEDOM IS ETERNAL VIGILANCE! This is one of a weekly series of institutional messages sponsored by an informal Committee of Publishers under the chairmanship of Hon. W. A. Buchanan, and appearing in newspapers from coast to coast. Clubs, patriotic societies, business firms or individuals who would like reprints may have them by writing to the business office of this newspaper.
