THE MURDER MYSTERY YET IS WITHOUT A SOLUTION

Coroner's Jury is Working Untiringly and Secretly

In Their Endeavor to Fix the Blame on the Assassin Sat Again Last Night With Closed Doors.

MICHAEL POWER, JR.,

Now under arrest on suspicion of having committed the murder but generally believed to be innocent of the crime.

Mystery is still the predominant feature of the Warren murder case.

The Coroner's jury met yesterday afternoon at four o'clock in the Police Court Room and then adjourned to the home of Michael Power Sr., where they took the evidence of John Power who has been sick in bed there for some weeks. The press and the general public were excluded from the hearing and nothing of the nature of the proceedings would be given out by the Coroner at the close of the session.

After taking the evidence the jury went over the ground around the place of the murder and minutely examined many places to which reference was made in the evidence.

It is thought by many that the jury are working on some important clue and a surprise may be sprung on the public in a day or two. At any rate the jurymen and the Coroner are leaving no stone unturned to unravel the mystery and have devoted much time and energy to a study of the different features of the case.

The secrecy of last night's deliberation of the Coroner's jury was even greater than on the previous night. Doors were closed, all but witnesses were excluded and even the names of those that were examined were withheld from the press. It was reported yesterday that Detective Power was in the City working on the case. The Guardian is enabled to state authoritatively that this is not so. Many new theories are constantly spreading. One of the latest is that the murder was done by a woman. The only thing in substantiation of this is the number of blows on the body inflicted by the assassin—ten or eleven in all. This conclusion however is not considered seriously by the authorities.

IMPORTANT CHURCH CANON.

Boston, Oct. 17—(Special)—The Bishops at this afternoon's session adopted an amendment to the canon on marriage and divorce prohibiting any clergyman from marrying a person that has been divorced for any cause.

THE FULL TEXT.

The amendment adopted by the Bishops is as follows: No minister shall solemnize a marriage between any two persons, unless by inquiring, he shall have satisfied himself that neither person has been or is the husband or the wife of any other person then living, from whom he or she has been divorced for any cause arising after marriage.

AS TO THE SACRAMENTS.

Several additional amendments were presented in the House of Bishops, one of which provides that a divorced person shall not be admitted to the sacraments.

A SAVING PROVISIO.

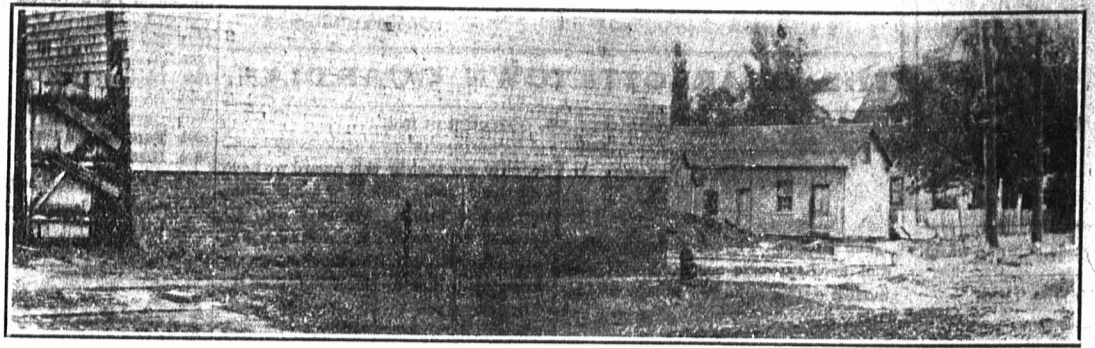

There is a proviso, however, that the sacraments shall not be refused a penitent person in imminent danger of death, nor

THE SCENE OF THURSDAY NIGHT'S TRAGEDY.

In the extreme left of the picture is the gangway in front of the closed gate of which it is claimed the assassin stood. To the right about 12 feet stands the stake placed by the Guardian representative where the murdered woman fell and where the blood still stains the sidewalk. In the left centre is the home of the Powers and around the further of the two telephone posts the man running away from the tragedy was seen turning by Mrs. Kelly and Albert Mellette as he passed probably into the lot back of the Power house. A little to the left of the picture stands the Charlottetown Hospital.

GREAT BATTLE STILL IN PROGRESS CONFLICTING REPORTS OF FIGHT

RUSSIANS GAIN A POSITION.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 17, 6.30 p. m.—(Special)—The fighting which began yesterday was concluded at 8 o'clock this morning with the capture of Lone Tree Hill, the importance of which it is explained is due to the fact that the Japs therefrom were able to pour an enfilade fire upon the Russian post east and west along the Shakhe River.

RUSSIANS GET 12 GUNS.

The Japs fully appreciated its value and promptly mounted heavy guns on the Hill of which the Russians captured twelve; the others were removed.

ADVANTAGES GAINED.

The possession of Lone Tree Hill will now enable the Russians in turn to enfilade the Japanese trenches right and left of the hill.

JAP. REINFORCEMENTS COMING.

An effort on the part of the Japanese to recapture the hill is expected, as reinforcements are seen moving from the other side of the railroad, ostensibly for this purpose.

MAY INVOLVE DELAY.

It is not improbable that the Japs will require some time to dispose their troops and concentrate for the attack.

RUSSIAN WAR OFFICE ALERT.

The War Office is keenly watching for any evidence of a wide flanking movement from the East with the object of compelling Mukopotkin to withdraw towards Mukden, but as yet there is no sign of it.

RUSSIAN ATTACKS REPULSED.

Tokio, Oct. 17, 2 p. m.—(Special)—The following report reached Tokio today: "On Oct. 16 the enemy made six counter attacks against our left column of the left army but the attacks were entirely repulsed and heavy losses inflicted on the enemy."

THE RUSSIAN DEAD

The enemy's dead left on the field in the direction of our left army increases to a total of 400.

The dead are too numerous to count.

VAST RUSSIAN FORCES.

An official estimate places the Russian force engaged in the battle of Shakhe River at 200,000 infantry and 20,000 cavalry with 950 guns.

INTERVENTION NOT POSSIBLE.

Washington, Oct. 17—(Special)—Count Cassini, Russian Ambassador, to-night said, "There is absolutely no opportunity for intervention to stop the war."

"Russia proposes to prosecute the war to the end and all offers of peace at this time must be rejected."
