—IRISHTOWN—What the ladies of Irishtown are capable of performing in the line of parlor socials was clearly demonstrated on February 19th, when they met at the home of Mr. J. B. Millman to raise money for Red Cross Work. The night was very unfavorable, and only a small crowd gathered. After music was rendered by Mrs. Campbell and Mr. Bentley, Mr. Irvine recited several French-Canadian pieces which greatly amused his listeners. Mr. Irvine is certainly a noted elocutionist. Then supper was served and such a supper! Only those who know the Irishtown and Long River "fair ones" can form any idea as to what it was like. Goose, salads, pies, cake, cookies and in fact everything which the stomach craves. It was without any doubt the best supper ever served in Irishtown. The snug sum of $27 was realized which goes for Red Cross work. The thanks of all is due to Mr. and Mrs. Millman for making the social such a success.

—WEDDING BELLS—On Tuesday January 23rd at St. Paul's R. C. Church, Summerside a very pretty wedding took place when Mr. James McDougall led to the altar one of Conway's most popular young ladies in the person of Miss M. Flostina Murphy, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Murphy of Conway. The bride looked lovely gowned in a suit of blue broadcloth with blue hat and gold trimmings. The bridesmaid was Miss Maud McDougall, cousin of the groom while Dr. Woods ably supported the groom. A host of friends join in wishing the newly wedded couple a happy journey through life. Immediately after the ceremony which was performed by the Rev. Father McLean, the happy couple left by train for Charlottetown where they spent their honeymoon. Miss Murphy will be much missed at Conway and vicinity where she made many friends. Congratulations also come from St. Paul's church, where she spent the past two years and through her pleasant disposition made a host of friends.

—A GIFTED SKATER.—The Cleveland Press says: "Heartless Mondays are increasing the number of skaters on City ponds. Many who have not skated in years are out on skates this February. George Conroy, Euclid Avenue is one of the regulars on the Wade Park pond. He is fifty-seven years old. He is one of the few who can skate the Dutch Toll. Conroy gathered for his exhibitions nineteen years ago when he came to Cleveland from Prince Edward Island. His skill never fails to hold the attention of skaters." Mr. Conroy is a son of the late Mr. Nicholas Conroy of Irish origin and is well and favorably known. His island friends will be glad to learn though weighing two hundred and forty pounds he is still listed as one of the best "sports" of Cleveland.

—BIRTHDAY PARTY.—There was a merry birthday party at "The Manse" on the 19th, when the ladies of O'Leary, surprised Mrs. Murray, by coming in a body and wishing her many happy returns of the day. After supper, prepared by the visitors, Mrs. Turner called the meeting to order, and the following address signed by twenty ladies, was read by Mrs. Matheson: Dear Mrs. Murray,—On this, the anniversary of your birthday, we take the opportunity to show our appreciation of your helpfulness to the support, and advancement, of every good cause, since your occupancy of the Manse. We wish you many happy returns of the day, we wish you health, and prosperity, and God's blessing on all your work. Please accept this gift, as a token of our love and respect. In behalf of the ladies, Mrs. Palmer presented Mrs. Murray with a hand-bag snugly filled. After singing a birthday hymn, Aid Lang Syne, and the National Anthem, the party dispersed feeling they had a very pleasant evening.

—RED CROSS SOCIETY.—The Freeport Red Cross Society held a very successful concert and basket social, on the 11th inst. in Freeport Hall; the large and commodious hall was packed to its utmost capacity, and best of order prevailed, while a carefully prepared programme was carried out. Rev. Mr. Bamford occupied the chair and spoke for a few minutes on Red Cross work. The programme was as follows:—Chorus, The Maple Leaf Forever, Recitation, Win the War, Ingham Palmer, Dialogue, Meeting in Pumpkinville, Song, Tenth Tonight, by eight boys, Everett Hardy, Wilbur Hardy, Ingham Palmer, Sinclair McKay, Ignatius Murphy, Roland Williams, Lloyd Henderson and Ivan Hardy. Dialogue, Jambou Jambou, Step dancing by private John Coady, Music by Mr. and Mrs. Reagh Williams, Closing Chorus, God Save our King and God save our Splendid Men. Miss Florence M. Palmer ably performed the duties as organist for the occasion. A large number of baskets and pies were then auctioned, tea was also served, everyone doing justice to the inner man. The net sum of $40.00 was realized which goes towards the fund for Red Cross work.

—*AGED RESIDENTS.—The residents of Milburn and district desire to congratulate Mrs. N. Boulton on her reaching her 84th birthday which they also desire to Mr. W. Williams who is in his 93rd year. Both of them have stood the cold weather better than some who are far younger. May they still live a good number of years. The old gentleman is very interested in the war. He maintains that Germany should be made pay for all the loss which the war has brought about. This in his view is only dealing in justice.—W.

—*LOBSTER TRIAL.—On Thursday 21st inst. Messrs. J. H. Myrick & Co., The Tignish Trading Co., and J. A. Johnston were summoned to appear before a magistrate at Tignish for alleged having in their possession on August 13—1917 berried lobsters contrary to the provisions of the fisheries act. The statement of the witnesses were quite conflicting yet his honor imposed a fine of fifteen dollars and costs in each case. It is reported that the case may be taken to a higher court as it is currently believed that the trials were only feelers. It is also indicated that many lobster fishermen of this vicinity may yet be brought to trial under the same head.
