OUR NEWS BUDGET FOR OUR SATURDAY SUBSCRIBERS

MONDAY

Mr. Reg. MacKinnon, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. MacKinnon of this city arrived home from Ottawa Friday evening on a brief holiday visit. He is serving with the Civil Service.

The death of Miss Effie Thompson occurred in the Moncton Hospital Tuesday afternoon following a long period of ill health. She had been admitted to the hospital last Wednesday. The late Miss Thompson was 42 years of age, was born at Grand River, Prince Edward Island, but had lived in Moncton for the past 18 years.

RETIRED FARMER DIES— Benjamin B. Graham, 82-year-old retired farmer died at Bay View yesterday. A native of Cavendish north shore community a few miles away, he had lived at Bay View since a young man. His wife predeceased him about a year ago. They had no family. Funeral services will be held Tuesday. Burial will be in Cavendish cemetery.

—DIES UNEXPECTEDLY — A Chinaman, Ark Sick, Seto, 55, died unexpectedly at Summerside late Saturday night. He was a chef at a restaurant there. It was learned he was taken ill suddenly and almost the first indication those around him had of his illness was when he collapsed and fell from his chair to the floor. He died almost instantly. His body will be sent to Halifax on Tuesday for burial.

SERIOUS DAMAGE FROM STORM—The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Silliphant, Sr., of Hunter River are glad to know they were not hurt when the lightning hit their house last week doing great damage upstairs, down and outside. Their dog was killed in the kitchen and windows broken. One chimney is down and another damaged. Mr. and Mrs. Silliphant have recovered from the great shock and thankful that they were not injured.

—FUNERAL OF MRS. EFFIE THOMPSON — The funeral services for Miss Effie Thompson were held on Saturday afternoon from the residence of her brother on the old homestead at Grand River, and was very largely attended by her many old friends and neighbours. Rev. George Ayres conducted the service and Mrs. John Hogg sang very beautifully a solo appropriate for the occasion. The pallbearers were Messrs. Claude Ramsay, Glen Ramsay, Ralph Monkley, Oswald Yeo, Birch Yeo and Dan Fraser. She was the daughter of the late Henry Thompson and Thurso Yeo Thompson of Grand River. Her sister, Miss Nettie Thompson, was with her when she died.—S.

The vacation preacher at St. James Church yesterday was again Rev. Edwin J. White of St. Matthew's Montreal, who conducted the service, and chose for the subject of his sermon "The Boot on the Other Leg", his text being St. Matthew, Ch. VII V, 12. He applied the lesson to international as well as personal relationships, and prophesied that history would look back upon the present method of settling differences between nations to be as barbarous and inhuman as the application of the boot and the screw to prove individual innocence or guilt in a by-gone age. He will occupy the pulpit again next Sunday. The soloist was Mrs. H. S. Henderson who rendered Meetop's "Oh Saviour of Mankind". The organist, acting for Miss MacKenzie, was Mrs. K. S. Rogers.

—FUNERAL OF MRS. REBECCA HOWATT—The funeral services for Mrs. Rebecca Howatt, who passed away on Wednesday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Calvin Chappelle, Summerside North, was held on Friday afternoon from Messrs. P. L. Bowness and Son undertaking rooms, Summerside, where a short service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Jarvie, pastor of Trinity United Church. The funeral cortege then drove to Cape Traverse, where the remains were taken to the Kirk Church for a service there, which was attended by many old friends. Rev. Mr. Bishop, pastor of the Church of Scotland on the Island, conducted the service assisted by Rev. Mr. Jarvie. At the grave the hymn, "Good night here and good morning up there," was beautifully sung by Mrs. Thomas Bell and Miss Muttart, old friends of the deceased. Interment was in the cemetery adjoining the church. The pall bearers were Messrs. T. D. Carruthers, Lucius Crue, Alexander Chappelle, James Chappelle, Henry Paterson and E. C. Bell. —S.

Almost 500 members of the Reserve Army were preparing last night to break camp today after two weeks of intensive training. Yesterday they held church parade to Zion Presbyterian Church and to St. Dunstan's Basilica.

At the Basilica High Mass was celebrated by Rev. Louis A. Dougan while Rev. Leonard Ayers preached the sermon.

At Zion Church the Protestant party heard a sermon by the Rev. J. R. Skinner of Cornwall, chaplain of the 17th (R.) Armoured Regiment.

On Saturday the reserve units completed manoeuvres which took them more than 35 miles from their camp here. A fleet of 65 privately-owned automobiles were used in place of armoured cars. The men moved rapidly east as far as Cardigan and then circled to the north to pass through Mount Stewart and then back to camp.

At night the soldiers slept by the roadside while some sought shelter in nearby barns. The scheme was launched on Friday.

In addition to the armoured unit other outfits taking part included, No. 6 District Signals and the 204th Field Battery, R.C.A. Both are part of the reserve army in camp here.

While the men were under canvas they were inspected by Maj-Gen. B. W. Browne, director-general of Canada's Reserve Army of Ottawa. He praised the men for their initiative and patriotism. He had particular words of praise for some men in camp who returned to their farm homes each evening after training to help with the work because of the farm labor shortage.

Minard's relieves sprains.

VISIT PROTESTANT ORPHANAGE—Mr. and Mrs. R.S. Lea of Montreal who are enjoying a holiday with friends here paid a pleasant visit to the Protestant Orphanage on Thursday, August 13. They held a lawn party for the children and each was presented with a small gift. On Saturday they sent an ice cream treat to the Orphanage for all.

CONTINUING LARGE CROWDS —Large crowds continue to hold their Sunday picnics at Rocky Point and Victoria Park. Although the number of people going to Rocky Point is getting smaller, there still is a large crowd. Yesterday, the Captain of the Rocky Point ferry informed us, between 700 and 800 people made the crossing. The largest crowd to cross was about 1400 people.

RESCUES OFFICER—The following clipping was received by Mrs. D. A. MacKinnon from her sister, Mrs. deCastello, (Maud Bremner), of Cape Town, South Africa. The young man referred to in the clipping is well known in Charlottetown and is a nephew of Mrs. Gordon Hughes:— "Airman Rescued (Sapa's War Correspondent), Cairo, Saturday. Two South African pilots on their way back from an engagement with Stukas and enemy fighters were shot down and then picked up, one by a Tomahawk and the other by a Hurricane. Major J. Neeker, who cames from Umtata, was picked up by Lieut. C. J. Horne, of Pretoria A young Canadian pilot officer, G. C. Keefer, of Prince Edward Island, rescued Lieut. John de la Harp Lane of Pretoria."

O'NEILL — STEWART — An interesting and happy event took place in Verdun, Quebec, on Friday evening, July 17th, 1942, when Carmen Stewart, daughter of Mr and Mrs. Allan Stewart of French River, P.E.I., was united in marriage to Joseph O'Neill, son of Mr. and Mrs. O'Neill of Charlottetown, P.E.I., and who has for sometime been stationed in the R.C.A.F in Quebec. The bride looked lovely in a street length dress of white sheer over satin with white accessories. They were attended by Miss Margaret Allan and Harold Briley, both of Verdun, Quebec. The bride previous to her departure was tendered several parties by her girl friends of "The Charlottetown Hotel" of which, the bride was a valued member. She was also tendered a shower by her many friends at the home of her parents when she received many lovely gifts. The groom before joining the R.C.A.F., was employed with Hughes Drug Co, in Charlottetown, for several years. Their many friends join in wishing both Carmen and "Red" many happy years of wedded bliss.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER — A large number of friends of Miss Alice Fell gathered at the home of Mrs. W.F. Rogerson, School Street, to tender her a Miscellaneous Shower previous to her approaching marriage. She was led to a beautifully decorated chair in pink and white, done by the girl friends of the bride-to-be, and a heavily laden basket decorated in the same colors was carried in by the winsome litte daughters of Mrs. Rogerson, Joan and Maida. Two of the girl friends of the bride-to-be helped open the presents and read the amusing verses attached. Although quite overcome with surprise, Alice made a pretty little speech of thanks for the lovely gifts received, after which the crowd sang "For She's a Jolly Good Fellow." Games and contests were then taken part in after which the hostess brought the evening to a close by serving a bounteous lunch. The bride-to-be was then bounced and all departed to their homes wishing Miss Fell every happiness in the years to come

The death yesterday at her home, Wheatley River, of Mrs. Malcolm Rackham will be learned with much regret by a wide circle of friends and acquaintances The deceased, who was formerly Miss Katherine Isabelle MacDonald, was born in Wheatley River and was a lifelong member of Brookfield Presbyterian church. Death followed a lengthy illness, which she bore with Christian patience and fortitude.

WITH PARACHUTISTS— From Fort Benning, Georgia, yesterday it was learned a Charlottetown soldier, Lieut. C. F. Hyndman, is with the Canadians training in a parachute infantry school there. Lieut. Hyndman is attached to the group temporarily from the Royal Canadian Army Medical Corps to discuss medical problems with the medical officers of the United States parachute corps. The Canadians arrived at the camp Sunday night. The course will last for five weeks.

PLEASANT SURPRISE.—Mrs. F. L. Luque of Crapaud had a real pleasant surprise on Sunday afternoon, August 9th when her nephew Sergeant Pilot Robert Coffman of Lakoma Bark, Maryland, U. S. A., dropped in to visit her. Sergeant Coffman came to Canada in 1941 to offer his services in the R. C. A. F.. He commenced training at once and has been most successful. His training period has been in Canada and his arrival at Charlottetown Saturday night, is of much interest to his many relatives here. Sergeant Coffman was accompanied to Crapaud by his friend Sergeant Pilot Earl Linkletter formerly from Northern Ontario. Sergeant Coffman is a great grandson of Mrs. John MacDonald of Crapaud.

—ISLAND HORSES SHIPPED ABROAD—The fact that Prince Edward Island can still produce good horses was recently proved conclusively by Mr. Donald Baker when he shipped for R. T. Holman, Ltd., what he believes to be one of the largest geldings ever sent out of the Province. This animal was purchased from the well known horseman, Edmund Burns, of Lower Freetown and tipped the scales at 1900 lbs. Also travelling with this fine beast was another splendid piece of horseflesh which was bought from John L. DesRoches of Summerside. Both horses were destined for Leonard Lockhart of Moncton, who runs an extensive lumber business. He was well pleased with his purchase and says he will come to P.E.I. again when looking for good Percheron horses or any other breeds. —S

WEDNESDAY

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER— A very pleasant event took place on Monday evening, when about 25 nurses met at the home of Mrs. (Dr.) G. L. Smith, Hillsborough Street, to honour Miss Mary Devereaux, R.N., whose marriage takes place next week. The popular bride-to-be was escorted to a gaily decorated chair, as Miss Carolyn Kenny played "Here Comes the Bride". A tea wagon loaded with gifts was wheeled in by Miss Betty Smith and Master Joseph Revel who were dressed as bride and groom. The numerous parcels were opened by Miss Eileen MacDonald and the verses read by Mrs. J. T. Revell. Miss Devereaux, although taken completely by surprise, expressed her thanks and gratitude after which she was "bounced" several times. Delightful music for the evening was supplied by Miss Carolyn Kenny as violinist and Mrs. Basil McQuaid and Mrs. Art. Arsenault at the piano. Lunch was served by the hostess, Mrs. G. L. Smith, assisted by friends of the bride-to-be. The happy evening was brought to a close by the singing of "For she's a jolly good fellow" and wishing Miss Devereaux many years of wedded bliss.

—Friends will be glad to know that Mr. Eric Arsenault of Urbainville is doing as well as can be expected after his serious appendix operation.

—Friends are pleased to see Alan Andrew out again after his recent accident which had confined him to his home for some time. Mr. Andrew was thrown from his motorcycle when he tried to avoid a car at the St. Eleanors crossing.

On the evening of August 10, 1942, a very large number of people from Kingston and vicinity gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Gallant, to pay tribute to one of their young men. John W Docherty, who is a cook in the army at Aldershot, N. S. He was presented with a beautiful watch, besides a sum of money. Johnnie, in his usual quiet manner, thanked them one and all for their nice gift and hoped he would be back soon again. "For He's A Jolly Good Fellow" was then sung after which Johnnie was heartily bounced. The evening was spent in dancing and social intercourse. Lunch was served by the ladies and they all wended their way homeward after wishing Johnnie the best of luck in his field of training.

RED CROSS BENEFITS FROM SALE OF SALVAGE—This week the Prince Edward Island Division of the Canadian Red Cross Society was delighted to receive two large-sized amounts—the proceeds from the sale of Salvage collected in the province. $500.00 came from the Provincial Salvage Committee which is headed by Mr. R. S. MacBeth and $50.00 from the Montague Salvage Committee per Mr. R. T. Matheson, Secretary. These amounts are greatly appreciated and will go a long way towards alleviating suffering. It is only by the co-operation of everyone concerned that results of this kind can be obtained and it is certainly most gratifying to know that such splendid amounts can be realised by the sale of salvage. This should encourage all to make an even greater effort to save scrap.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the chapel of St. Paul's Anglican Church here on August 15 when Miss Jean McLean Jackman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Jackman of Pictou, N.S., became the bride of George Edward Hart, M.A., son of Mrs. G. F. Hart and the late Mr. Hart of Charlottetown. Rev. A. LaDrew Gardner, rector of the church officiated.

Mr. John Leo McGuigan, farmer at Hope River died at the Charlottetown Hospital early today. He was fatally injured in a fall from a load of grain at his farm yesterday.

Details of the accident were not learned but it was understood he was thrown from the load as it entered the barn. He struck his head on a concrete driveway.

Hon. Mark R. McGuigan, Minister of Health and Education Charlottetown is a brother.

SUMMER PARTY—The Misses Eleanor and Ferne Mill entertained about thirty guests at a weenie and marshmellow roast held in their home at Marshfield in honor of Miss Janet Chaffie, Potter Hill, Rhode Island, who was visiting her cousin, Mrs. Hector Jenkins, Marshfield. The earlier part of the evening was spent in games, while the latter part enjoyed by roasting the weenies and marshmellows in the large open fireplace. Music was then supplied by Graeme Boswall and Frankie Lutes, after which all departed to their immediate homes, wishing Janet a pleasant vacation on P. E. I.

DEPARTURE REGRETTED. — The many friends of Mrs. J. T. Ferguson, Marshfield, will be interested to learn she left yesterday on a visit to Winnipeg. Before her departure, the members of Marshfield W. I. after the August meeting, held an afternoon tea at the beautiful home of Mrs. Edgar Heartz. The president, Mrs. Ernest Foster, on behalf of the Institute told how every member would miss Mrs. Ferguson as a wonderful worker in all the work of the community and as a friend to all. The ladies wished to give her a small gift as a token of the very high esteem in which she is held in the community. She then presented Mrs. Ferguson with a lovely bag and a pair of kid gloves. The good wishes of her many friends follow Mrs. Ferguson on her visit to the West.

"Life is as a vapor that appeareth for a little time and then vanisheth away" was strikingly exemplified in the announcement that Alexander R. Buntain of Kensington had passed away on Thursday, August 13th, 1942, at the age of eighty years. He was born at Rustico and when quite a young man purchased a farm at Clifton, New London, and being of an industrious nature he was able to retire twenty years ago and live at Kensington. He leaves to mourn two sons, Rev. D. N. Buntain, Toronto, and Chester at Clifton, also two daughters, Mrs. Robert Fyfe, Boston, and Miss Gertrude, R. N., Kensington, P. E. I., who unstintingly cared for her venerable father during his declining years. The funeral was held from his late residence to the United Church on Saturday, Aug. 15th. The service was conducted by his pastor, Rev. A. D. Sterling, assisted by Rev. John Stirling and at the grave side by Rev. John Murchison Mr. Stirling spoke effectively from the following text "For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved we have a building of God, a house not made with hands eternal in the heavens." The Hymns sung were "The Lord's my Shepherd," "Peace Perfect Peace," "Safe in the Arms of Jesus." The many and beautiful floral gifts testified to the popularity of the deceased.

The pall bearers were Messrs. J. F. Profitt, W. C. McLeod, Geo. Cousins, Wallace McKay, Harland Found, Augus Green.

DRISCOLL - MacDONALD — A very pretty wedding was solemnized at St. Dunstan's Basilica Saturday, August 15th at 8.30 a.m. when James Russell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Driscoll, Mt. Herbert, was united in marriage to Elizabeth Cecilia, only daughter of Mrs. and the late Mr. Hugh L. MacDonald, Charlottetown. Reverend Father Louis Dougan, performed the ceremony. The bride, who was given in marriage by her cousin, Mr. James H. MacDonald, St. George's, looked very winsome in a two-piece, street-length dress of heaven blue crepe, with matching hat. Her corsage was of sweetheart roses, and she carried a beautiful white prayer book and Rosary. Her only attendant was Miss Ann O'Meara, Ottawa, who wore pale pink sheer with white accessories. Her shoulder bouquet was of sweet peas. Mr. Wilfred Driscoll, cousin of the groom was best man. The organist was Mrs. Joseph Dougan. Immediately after the wedding breakfast was served to the immediate relatives of the contracting parties at the home of the bride's mother, 43 Weymouth Street. The young couple left by motor on a short honeymoon to New Glasgow and Antigonish, Nova Scotia. For travelling, the bride donned a smart dress of London tan crepe, with brown accessories. Prior to her marriage, the bride was the guest of honor at several charming showers.
