Runs Two Blocks To Police Station With Only Underwear On

Slick, seven years old, ran two blocks through the snow early today, clad only in underwear, to appeal to the police to restrain his father from breaking up the Christmas celebration which was to have taken place when John's five younger brothers and sisters should awaken.

After the police revived John by wrapping him in a blanket and placing him beside the radiator he told them his father had come home as his mother was decorating the Christmas tree. His father, he said, had become enraged at the sight of the and had torn the ornaments from it and thrown them away. The father then seized the youngest child, a six months' old baby, was sleeping. Mrs. Slick struck her husband before he could reach the child and felled him. The police hastened to the home and arrested Slick before he could do any other damage.

Soil And Sun

India is many times the size of Nova Scotia, and Ceylon many times the Annapolis Valley.

It is not enough to know that it is India or Ceylon Tea—Cape Breton apples don't compare with Annapolis Apples, nor does ordinary India or Ceylon Tea compare with Blue Bird which is grown, where sun and soil unite to make the most fragrant and flavorful of teas.

S. Africa May Ban Airplane Dodgers

LONDON, Dec. 30. — Propaganda from airplanes is becoming a public danger in South Africa, according to "The Daily Express" correspondent at Johannesburg. Councillor Weir, at the meeting of the Transvaal Municipal Association at Middleburg, strongly urged that the association should endeavor to bring about legislation preventing airplanes from being used as a means of advertising by letting fall pamphlets which fluttered in the air, and became oblivious to their surroundings. In this way, whenever these papers came falling into traffic-carrying streets the children ran laughing after them and became probable victims to oncoming vehicles. Councillor Cowan seconded and also cited an actual case where he had seen children at the agricultural show nearly trampled under the hoofs of the arena horses as these pamphlets were scattered over the crowd from a circling airplane. The recommendation was passed.

You Would Fly Out of Your Skin

Eczeema Makes You Wish You Could

Your disease, which is sometimes called salt rheum, not only itches but also burns, oozes, dries and scales over and over again. Some times it covers the whole body, and causes intense suffering. You have found that local applications have no lasting effects, and you want permanent relief. You must thoroughly purify your blood or the eruption will continue to annoy, perhaps agonize you. Take Hood's Sarsaparilla. This blood-purifying medicine has been successfully used in thousands of cases. To make and keep the bowels normally active, take Hood's Pills. They are gentle and thorough.
