Mt. A. Holds U.N.B. To Tie

SAINT JOHN, N. B., Feb. 12.—(CP)—Playing their first game of the season in the New Brunswick Ice Hockey League, Mount Allison University hockeyists held University of New Brunswick to a 4-4 overtime tie tonight.

But On retiring from the Island competition both curlers leave with the satisfaction of having been on three consecutive Island title rinks and in so doing realize their capturing of the first one three years ago, mainly to make it three in a row before calling "quits."

Many followers of the game probably will be wondering today just why the matches were staged at such short notice after being originally scheduled for Wednesday. However local officials were in receipt of a wire yesterday saying Island winners must be declared immediately and they had no choice in the matter but stage the playoff last evening.
