OUR NEWS BUDGET FOR OUR SATURDAY SUBSCRIBERS

MONDAY

FUNERAL SERVICES — The funeral of Teddy Paquet was held Saturday morning from his late residence, Kensington Road, to St. Dunstan's Basilica, where High Mass of Requiem was celebrated by Rev. P. McMahon, D. D. The pall bearers were Messrs Ralph Flemming, Ernest Carmody, Malcolm McDonald, Angus Paquet, William Lawson and Joseph Trainor. Service at the grave was conducted by Rev. W. McCardle.

RETURNS FROM OVERSEAS.— Dr. J. D. MacGuigan has returned from his trip overseas and resumes his practise today. Dr. MacGuigan was one of the members of the Vimy Pilgrimage to France, after which he visited Milltown Park, Dublin, where his son Elliott was ordained to the Holy Priesthood on July 31st. There in company with Father Elliott, he toured throughout Ireland, Scotland and England, visiting many places of historic and present day interest. The Doctor also took the opportunity of doing Post-Graduate work in several of the leading Hospitals in the British Isles.

— PRESENTATION — A number of friends in Travellers Rest and New Annan called on Mr. and Mrs. John C. Pillman recently to welcome them on return from their honeymoon, and especially to welcome the bride, nee Miss Edith MacDonald, formerly of Sherbrooke. Mr. George Ramsay very capably presided. After the guests had all assembled, Miss Helena England was called upon to read an address of welcome to the young couple, after which they were presented with a davenport and easy chairs. Miss Evelyn Ramsay and Miss Blanche Rayner made the presentation. Mr. and Mrs. Pillman replied very suitably to the address and extended a cordial welcome to all to visit them in their new home. After refreshments had been served, dancing was enjoyed on the lawn.

ZION CHURCH W. M. S. — The Woman's Missionary Society of Zion Church met in regular session on Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 9th. The president, Mrs. F. A. A. Mutch, presided. After the devotional exercises and the regular routine of business were disposed of, plans were made for the activities of the society for the fall months. A letter from Miss Gladys Murphy, a foreign missionary in Kobe, Japan, was read by Miss Janie Patterson and was greatly appreciated. Cards of thanks were read by the secretary from members who had been ill, to whom the society had sent flowers and fruit. Mrs. A. A. MacDonald, Mrs. C. W. Patterson and Miss Marian MacLennan were appointed delegates to attend the annual meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society (E. D.) which will be held in Halifax, N. S., Sept. 23rd and 24th.

What might have been a much more serious accident occurred shortly after midnight on Saturday when two cars driven respectively by Lloyd Phillips, Summerside, and Fremont Archer, Charlottetown, collided at the intersection of Belmont and Eustane Streets, Summerside.

Mr. Phillips in a DeSoto Coupe was driving south down Eustane Street and Mr. Archer driving a Chevrolet Roadster was coming across Belmont Street. The cars met at the intersection, Archer's car striking the coupe side on. The force of the impact sent the coupe up over the curb on to the lawn of Mr. Elton Robertson striking a young tree. The car was jammed up against the electric light post. The left rear wheel was broken right off and the back damaged considerably. The right side of the car which was the side struck was badly smashed up the running board being broken in two.

Mr. Phillips who was alone in the car escaped with a few cuts and bruises but was rather badly shaken up. Mr. Archer's car had the radiator front smashed in and right head light was put out of commission. He and his companion were unhurt. While the police were investigating the accident they were called away to a fracas on Water Street and several "drunk and incapables" were arrested. Some of them will appear in court this morning.

— FRACTURES HIP — His many friends will regret to learn that Mr. Joseph P. Leckie of Miscouche, had the misfortune to fracture his hip on Friday afternoon when he fell off a load of grain. Mr. Leckie was harvetsing his grain and was returning to the barn with a load. Part of the grain gave way and Mr. Leckie slipped off, fracturing his hip. He was brought to the Prince County Hospital and his injuries were attended to, and he is now resting as comfortably as can be, under the circumstances.—S.

TUESDAY

—VISITING IN FREETOWN — Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Williams of Watertown, Mass., are visiting in Freetown, the guests of Mr. William's sister, Mrs. Wilbert Reeves; and also his brother, Mr. W. F. Williams and Mrs. Williams, Summerside.—S.

It is with deep regret that we record the death of Mr. Arthur B. Dickieson, which occurred at his home in New Glasgow on Tuesday evening, September 8th, at the age of eighty six years. Although he did not enjoy good health for the past two months, it was thought at times that he would regain strength but God willed otherwise, and he peacefully passed away on the above mentioned date.

—RETURNED FROM EUROPE —Mr. and Mrs. Percy Crosby of St. Eleanor's have just returned from an interesting tour of Europe and the British Isles. During their trip they visited Paris and other places in France. They spent some time in London and saw much to interest them. Some of the beauty spots of England were also visited, their daughter, Miss Mary, accompanied them. —S.

—VISITING IN ST. ELEANOR'S — Mrs. E. Scott Eaton of Wolfville, N. S., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Crosby of St. Eleanor's. Mrs. Eaton was accompanied by her son, Mr. George Eaton and his wife. After a brief visit Mr. and Mrs. Eaton left by motor for Toronto, Ont., where Mr. Eaton will continue post graduate work at the Toronto University. —S.

A series of agricultural meetings held during the past few weeks in the Mt. Herbert, Webster's Corner, Johnston's River districts culminated recently in the formation of another branch of the P. E. I. Co-operative Live Stock Marketing Board, Inc. This association will be known as the East River Live Stock Shipping Club, and will commence to operate as soon as hogs in these districts are ready for the market.

—VISITS HOME AFTER 45 YEARS — Mrs. Nettie Banton and her brother, Mr. Daniel T Gillis, motored from Stoney Brooks, Long Island, New York, and Jamaica Plains, to visit their brother, Mr. Lambert Gillis and Mrs Gillis of Miscouche. It is 45 years since Mr. Gillis visited his old home and he sees many changes and improvements since that time. Mrs. Banton was home five years ago. They expect to remain some weeks.—S.

THE LATE NAPOLEON PETERS —The funeral of Napoleon Peters who passed away in the City Hospital September 12th took place from the residence of his brother, Joseph Peters, Malpeque road yesterday morning at 8.45 to Saint Dunstan's Basilica. Pallbearers were: James Smith, Joseph Curley, Abraham Peters, Frank Roper, Henry Callbeck, Ivan Mitchell. Service at the church was conducted by Father McCardell and at the grave by Father Dowling. The late Mr. Peters was an employee of the Experimental Station for a number of years.

PRIZE HERDS — Mr. Harold Stead, Charlottetown Royalty and Mr. Guy Rodd, Brackley, returned from St. John exhibition last night where they were showing Jerseys and Guernseys. Mr. Stead the well known Jersey breeder who can always hold his own under heavy competition, excelled himself at St. John, winning Senior Champion male, a number of firsts and seconds. Mr. Rodd, a new comer on the Maritime circuit, winning Senior and Grand Champion female on Brackley Della, also a number of firsts and seconds, making heavy inroads into the strong Oakfield Estate herd who show at the Royal each year.

GOVERNMENT APPOINTMENTS — The following appointments were announced at the conclusion of a Provincial government meeting here: J. W. Brennan, Souris, as retail vendor, shop to be opened Oct. 1; Justices of the Peace— For King's County, W. F. Harris, Murray Harbor; for Queens, Lester B. Mellish, Montague.

WEDNESDAY

—GUESTS AT LINKLETTER.— Mrs. Edward Harrington had as her guests at her summer resort at Linkletter, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Chase; Mr. Robert Moreshead, and Mrs. Anderson, of Portland Maine. They had also visited relatives in West Prince. They were very charmed with the Island hospitality and lovely scenery. S.

—PREACHED IN THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.—Rev V. E. Osborn, of New London was the special speaker at the morning and evening services in the Presbyterian Church, Summerside on Sunday. The regular choir rendered very acceptably the hymns and anthem at the morning service. Assisting at the evening service in two well rendered solos, were Miss Coffin and Rev. Mr. Orsborn. —S.

—VISITED HOME AFTER ABSENCE OF 34 YEARS— Mr. Alva Crossman, Belfast Maine, is visiting his cousin Mr. Solomon B. Crossman of Central Bedeque. Mr. Crossman who has not been home to the Island for 34 years is one of our successful Islanders abroad, first in the Canadian West where he was connected with the Fairbanks-Morse Co. and later in U. S. A. as a mechanical engineer. He has now retired on a small fruit farm in Belfast Me. While home he has erected a beautiful monument in the Baptist Cemetery to his father and mother (Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Crossman late of Bedeque) and also to some deceased sisters and brother. Mr. Crossman sees a great many changes since he was home last, to Bedeque. With the exception of Messrs George McFarlane; Thomas Moyse, and William Callbeck, and one or two others hardly any of the men who occupied the farms and places of business when he went away, are alive today. Mr. Crossman is accompanied by his wife. They motored down and have been touring the Province. He greatly enjoyed visiting the old swimming pool, and fishing pond around the haunts of his boyhood days; and attending Masonic lodge meetings.

An honoured and outstanding citizen of Summerside passed to his eternal rest at 1.30 on Tuesday morning at his home on Spring Street.

Mr. Hicks was 80 years of age and had been associated with the business life of Summerside for 55 years.

There are left to mourn one brother, William of Moncton, N. B., and one sister, Mrs. F. B. Smith of Fredericton, N. B. to whom sympathy is extended.

On Tuesday, Sept. 1st, at Kensington there passed peacefully to the Great Beyond, Mrs. Annie MacKinnon, widow of Daniel MacKinnon, who predeceased her 21 years ago. Mrs MacKinnon was 72 years of age, the daughter of Scottish parents, the late James Lamont and Isabelle MacLeod of French River.

MCALEER — FLOOD—A very pretty wedding was solemnized at Holy Redeemer Church Charlottetown Wednesday morning, Sept. 9, when Miss Mary Rose McAleer daughter of Mrs. Mary McAleer and the late Peter McAleer, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. John P. Flood, son of Mrs. Catherine Flood and the late Patrick Flood of Lot 65 Parish. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. H. Fleming C. S.S.. R. Hymns appropriate to the occasion were beautifully rendered by Miss Mary Moran while Mr. Alfred Doucette presided at the organ. Miss Lillian McAleer, Cousin of the bride, acted as bridesmaid while the groom was supported by his brother Mr. Russell Flood. T

Much sympathy is extended to the widow and daughters, Miss Gertrude and Miss Pearl, in the death of their husband and father, Joseph P. Leckie, who passed away at 12.30 Monday night in the Prince County Hospital.

Besides his wife and daughters there are left to mourn two brothers, John at Summerside and David in Miscouche and two sisters Mrs. Philip McDonald and Mrs. John Farrell of Lot 16. His wife was formerly Miss McKinnon of Grand River. Sincere sympathy is extended to the bereaved family in their sudden loss.

The Angle of Death visited this community last week and bore away to the great beyond the spirit of Mrs. John MacDonald. The late Mrs. MacDonald, who was in her eighty-fourth year, was a woman of sterling qualities, a good neighbor and highly respected in the community in which she lived for so many years. There is left to mourn his loss one son Albert, who lived with the deceased. In the absence of their regular pastor, services at the church and grave were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Long, Montague. Following were the Pallbearers;. Messrs Rupert McInnis, William Birt, Joseph Mooney, Elmer McInnis and George Leard. Hearse driver Mr. Murdoch Macdonald. DOCTORS CHECK KIDNEYS FIRST

Because they know that healthy Kidneys remove from the blood the waste matter—the excess acids and poisons, formed by the ever-changing human body as it decays and rebuilds itself. But if the Kidneys fail, illness surely follows. Backache, Rheumatism, Impure Blood, Lack of Energy, Too Frequent Urination, Sleeplessness, Headaches—all may result from faulty kidneys. As a health safeguard—as a wise precaution—regulate your kidneys frequently with Dodd's Kidney Pills—for over fifty years the favorite Kidney remedy—non-habit forming—safe. 105
