

No Boiling — No Rubbing Just Rinse with Rinso

A package of Rinso is a package of miniature soap bubbles.

You simply dissolve for 25 seconds the tiny bubbles in hot water, soak the clothes a couple of hours, or overnight, rinse them well in clean water and—that's all.

Result—clean, sweet-smelling clothes, hours of time saved and the hand work changed to just rinsing.

Rinso dissolves the dirt, you rinse it out.

You will never know how easy it is to do the washing until you've used Rinso, the greatest time and labour saver the housewife has ever known.

The Man Nobody Knows

BY BRUCE BARTON

INSTALMENT VIII. A MUSCLED MAN.

It is a very familiar story, much repeated upon and pictured. But almost invariably the pictures show him with a halo around his head, as though that was the explanation of his triumph.

The truth is so much simpler and more impressive. There was, in his eyes, a flaming moral purpose; and greed and oppression have always shriveled before such fire.

HAMILL-McCOURT NUPTIALS.—The marriage was solemnized yesterday morning, July 21st, in St. James Church, Summerfield, of Mr. Thomas William Hamill and Miss Ann Margaret McCourt. The officiating clergyman was Rev. Father Frank Macdonald. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Mary A. and the groom was supported by his cousin, Mr. Frederick Murray. Quite a large number of friends witnessed the ceremony. After the ceremony the wedding party motored to Charlottetown where they received the congratulations of many friends. They returned to the home of the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard McCourt, Emerald, where a reception had been held about one hundred by Saturday the price had dropped couples awaited the home coming to fifteen cents per box.

WEDDING BELLS.—A very pretty wedding took place on Monday evening June 21st when Mary MacQuarrie and Charles H. MacDougall were united in marriage at the home of the groom's sister Mrs. Victor Boyce, 15 Dexter St., Medford, Mass., at 8 P. M. by the Rev. Robert Watson, Pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Boston, Mass. The double ring service being used. The bride looked very pretty in a gown of white satin and carried a shower bouquet of white bridal roses and lilies of the valley. She was given away by her brother Mr. Jas. MacQuarrie. Miss Florence MacQuarrie, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, her gown was of Alice blue georgette. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. Mr. Calbed Nickelson friend of the groom was best man. The house was prettily decorated in honor of the bride, with a pale green color scheme of white roses. In the center hung a large wedding bell with rose petals. After the ceremony a reception was held, a large number of guests being present and a very enjoyable evening was spent. The bride is the youngest daughter of Mrs. Christina MacQuarrie, formerly of Riverview, P. E. I., and the groom is the son of Mrs. Colin MacDougall of Nine Mile Creek, P. E. I. The young couple were the recipients of many beautiful gifts and will make their home at 286 Cedar street Somerville Mass.

There was no soft bed for his mother on the night he entered the world. He was brought forth in a stable, amid animals and the animal-like men who tended them. He was wrapped in rough garments and expected almost from the beginning, to look after himself. When he was still an infant the family hurried away into Egypt, on the long trip back, some years later, he was judged old enough to walk, and so, day after day, he trudged beside the little donkey, and scurried into the woods by the roadside to find fuel. It was a hard school for babyhood but it gave him a hardness that was an enormous asset later on.

Early in his boyhood Jesus, went into Joseph's carpenter shop. The practice of carpentry was no easy business in those simpler days. Doubtless the man who took a contract for a house assumed responsibilities for digging into the rough hillsides for its foundations; for felling trees in the forest, and shaping them with an adze.

In after years those who listened to the talk of Jesus by the Sea of Galilee, and heard him speak of the "man who built his house upon a rock" had no doubt that he knew what he was talking about.

Some of them had seen him bending his strong clean shoulders to deliver heavy blows, or watched him trudge away into the woods, his ax over his shoulder, and return at nightfall with a rough-hewn beam. So he "waxed strong" as the narrative tells us—a phrase which has rather being buried under too frequent repetition of the "meek and lowly" and "the lamb". As he grew in stature and experience he developed with his personal skill an unusual capacity for directing the work of other men so that Joseph allowed him an increasing responsibility in the management of the shop. And this was fortunate, for the day came when Joseph stood at the bench no longer—having sawed his last board, and planned it smooth—and the management of the business devolved upon the shoulders of the boy who had learned it so thoroughly at his side.

Now that the iced tea and iced coffee season is at hand, remember that when drunk very rapidly iced drinks are apt to cause discomfort by too sudden chilling of the stomach. To sip them slowly is more refreshing as well as more healthful.
