VALLEYFIELD.—Usual services on Sunday Nov 9th in Valleyfield Presbyterian Church, Rev. G. E. Knight of St. John, N. B., will preach.

DICTIONARIES.—The demand for these books has been so great that we are again sold out, and we ask our subscribers to wait a few days until we receive another shipment.

SUBSCRIPTION VICTORY BONDS—Mr. W. F. Tidmarsh for the Portland Packing Co., of Portland, Me., placed an application for $7,000 in Victory Bonds. The Portland Packing Co., have purchased Victory Bonds of all the issues which plainly speaks the opinion they hold of these Bonds.

G. W. V. A. BALL.—The Great War Veterans Association purpose celebrating Armistice Bay with a grand ball in Prince of Wales College Hall on the evening of Armistice Day, November 11th, the proceeds to go to the Home Building Fund, Armistice Day is a date that will last forever in history as a day of joy and rejoicing as it commemorates the greatest event and the greatest victory in the history of the world. No better way can be devised for celebrating it than by joining those who helped to win the victory in their grand ball, helping them to build their new home and having a good time yourself.

VICTORY BONDS.—Mr. R. E. Colwill proprietor of the firm of Johnson & Johnson Druggists has placed an application for $5,000 in Victory Bonds.

HOME FOR INTERMENT.—The remains of the late William Smith who died in Roxbury, Mass arrived at Hunter River Thursday night. Funeral takes place on Friday at 1 p.m. from the residence of Mr. John Andrews, New Glasgow to Wheatley River Cemetery.

FOOTBALL ?.—It is to be regrett that the third game in the series of football matches arranged between St. Dunstan's and the Abegweits has been held up owing to a disagreement in regard to choice of referee. The last game was a decided improvement over the previous games that it is a pity that anything should arise at this stage of the proceedings. Surely a game can be arranged for Tuesday next—Armistice Day?

ROTARY CLUB.—The Rotarians held their monthly dinner in the Rose and Grey last evening under the chairmanship of Rotarian Dr. Yeo. The guests present included Mrs. J. A. Clark, Mr. Henry Smith, Mr. W. A. Gaudet and Mr. Roy Quigley—Rotarian R. H. Campbell, who represented the Charlottetown and Halifax Clubs at the great National Conference on Character Education at Winnipeg, addressed the members on the work accomplished at the Conference. It was a very able and graphic account of the proceedings, including brief character sketches of the principal participants, and a summary of his remarks is given elsewhere in this issue. On the motion of Rotarian Justice Fitzgerald, seconded by Rotarian Prof. H. H. Shaw, a hearty vote of thanks was given Rotarian Campbell for his valuable address. An enjoyable musical programme was gone through, to which Messrs Gaudet, Quigley and Rotarian Calder contributed, Miss Edrie presiding at the piano.

Fatal Shooting Accident

A deplorable fatal shooting accident occurred last Tuesday afternoon at a place called Klondyke, on the Murray Harbor road about ten miles from Montague, the victim being Cecil Campbell aged seventeen years. Campbell accompanied by another lad named George McDiarmid about the same age and a son of Mr. George McDiarmid of Montague, was hauling lumber from Klondyke to Ives Mills, Montague using a tractor. They had gone to the woods as usual and Mr. William Ives motored from Montague to meet them there. He went to a house leaving the lads waiting for him. They were sitting onthe ground tailor-fashion toying with a 22 calibre rifle, which they were used to carrying with them on their trips back and forth.

McDiarmid had the butt of the rifle under his right hip the barrel projecting from the other side of his body. Campbell had the muzzle of the rifle in his hand and was working at the safety catch it being a hammerless weapon. The rifle was accidentally discharged, the bullet entering Campbell's cheek and emerging at the back of his neck, causing instant death. The coroner Dr. Allan of Cardigan was summoned and after learning the facts decided that no inquest was necessary.

The funeral took place yesterday afternoon to Lower Montague Cemetery The deceased was a son of the late Oswald Campbell of Montague. He leaves besides his mother several brothers and sisters to mourn his untimely death.

MRS. FRANK JENKINS

There passed peacefully away at the Brighton Hospital, Mass., on Oct. 21st 1919 Mrs. Frank Jenkins, nee Miss Rachel E. MacLeod at the early age of 35 years. Of a kind and gentle disposition she won the esteem of a large circle of friends. She was the youngest daughter of the late John M. MacLeod, Poplar Point, P. E. I., and was bereft of a mother's fond love at the age of five years. The early part of her life she spent in the United States. She leaves to mourn a sorrowing husband one sister and three brothers namely Mrs. Nathan Acorn, Bridgetown, P. E. I.; John A. and Daniel J. Alliston, Mass, and James A. at home. Her remains were accompanied to her old home by her husband and brother Daniel J. The funeral on October 27th was largely attended and was conducted by the Rev. James Heron. Interment at the Presbyterian cemetery, Annandale, P. E. I. where all that was mortal of a loving wife and sister were laid to rest to await a glorious ressurrection The pall bearers were Messrs Leslie, Russel and Walter Hunter and Samuel MacLeod and Wallace MacKenzie and Walter Richards. The floral tributes were many and beautiful. Asleep in Jesus blessed sleep, From which none ever wake to weep.

CHECKED FRED'S SMILE

A few days ago he entered a hairdresser's establishment, and, with a surly "Hair-cut-and-quick-about-it," sat down in a chair.

Now, the barber was a chatty fellow, as is the custom in his trade, and he did not know Narker. After a few preliminary touches he ventured on a remark.

"Hair very thin on top sir," he said.

"Very glad to hear it!" grunted Narker. "Hate fat hair myself."

And the barber never smiled again.

How Fat Actress Was Made Slim

Many stage people now depend entirely upon Marmola Prescription Tablets for reducing and controlling fat. One clever actress tells that she reduced two to four pounds a week by using this new form of the famous Marmola Prescription and now, by taking Marmola Tablets several times a year, keeps her weight just right. All druggists sell Marmola Prescription Tablets at $1 for a large case. Or you can get them by sending price direct to the Marmola Co., 864 Woodward Ave., Detroit, Mich. If you have not tried them do so. They are harmless and effective.
