HEINZ DOUBLE VALUE!

SO RICH IT GOES TWICE AS FAR...

Purity and flavour in food have a cash value as well as a taste value. That's why there's a government "grade A.1." in eggs. That's why housewives demand a definite butter-fat content in milk. That's why Heinz' is the most famous tomato ketchup in the world. When you consider how this sauce aids your cooking, how it adds zest to scores of different dishes, you simply can't measure its flavour value in money. Certainly not in the trifling extra coppers you may pay for this economical condiment.

Thick, slow-pouring, rich Heinz Tomato Ketchup gives you a wealth of flavour in every luscious drop. Tomatoes, spices, sugar, vinegar, seasonings — every ingredient is the best the market affords. No other ketchup can be quite like Heinz'. Treat the family to this matchless flavour soon.

DO YOU EVER OVER-INDULGE?

Over-eating and drinking usually mean a bad night and an unpleasant morning after. But not for those who know the "cheer-up" value of Eno's "Fruit Salt". As far back as mid-Victorian days, when eating and drinking were favourite indoor sports, Eno saved the old-timers many a sleepless night . . . many a bad morning after.

A dash of Eno in a glass of water morning and night goes a long way in offsetting the effects of over-indulgence. Eno sweetens the stomach, sharpens the appetite, keeps the intestines free from poisonous waste, and makes you feel good all over. Eno forms no habit. It is pleasant to take and acts gently, normally, effectively. Remember, life today calls for Eno's "Fruit Salt".
