NOTICE—Parties having books or lottery in aid of Charlotetown Hospital please make returns to St. M. Paula, City Hospital. Drawing takes place Tuesday evening, April 6th. 8304-3-24,31

EXCHANGED—Sunday, Charles E. White, B. A., of Summerside, E. I., student-in-charge of St. John's Parish, reviewed, and Ernest Nelson, B. A., of Kingston, student-in-charge of St. Andrew's Church, Hanoverport, exchanged pulpits. Both preachers are students attending the Divinity Faculty of King's University.—Halifax Herald.

RECOVERING.—The Truro News says:—Mr. F. G. Spencer, proprietor of the Strand Theatre and Lessee of the Graphic, has been in the Memorial Hospital, New York for some weeks quite seriously ill. A letter from Mr. Spencer to a Truro friend today states that he is leaving the Hospital today. With Mrs. Spencer he will spend a couple of weeks further in New York, then have a further recuperating visit at Atlantic City, before retiring to his St. John home. Mr. Spencer conducts a string of Theatres throughout the Maritime Provinces. His friends at all points will be pleased to learn of the improvement in health.

HIKERS' FEET GIVE OUT—Jack Roberts, one of the hikers who set out so hopefully last Thursday enroute to California, had to abandon the trip at Hampton on account of his feet giving out. They became so blistered and sore that he was forced to return home at 36 West Street. The tramp as far as they went was made in good time. At Cornwall the hikers rested, but made Hampton by 11 p. m. where they were given a cordial welcome and well treated by the residents. Robert Harris returned to the city with his comrade but will drive back to Hampton and resume his hike Thursday accompanied by a young man from Pictou who will take Roberts' place on the long trail. Harris does not anticipate any further trouble as he says he enjoys walking and except for a little stiffness which will gradually wear off, is in good shape. The Pictou hiker is an able bodied young man with lots of enthusiasm to help him on his long hike.

VISITORS RETURN.—A large gathering assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rod. MacLeod, Brookfield, to bid farewell to John MacLeod and Alfred Wayne. Glouster, Sask., who had been spending the winter months at the former's. The evening was spent in music and dancing. Most amusing of all was step dancing by some of the nearby neighbors. Sorry to say age will not allow them to compete in the contest that is about to take place in Charlotetown latter part of his month. In concluding they all wish the boys a safe return and hope to see them back again in the near future. Owing to the abundant snow falls made it impossible for them to enjoy themselves. But the next time they return we hope to see them accompanied by some of the fair sexes of P. E. I. to help them attend the house-keeping problem as we feel it becomes monotonous fulfilling the both duties.—Mr. Rupert G. Simpson, Bay View Mills, is visiting his cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Allison Tait, City.—Mrs. Henry MacEwen, St. Peters, was a recent visitor to the city. Among the week end visitors to the city were Misses Velda Taylor and Verna Colley of Pounds Mills.—Misses Kathryn Taylor and Vera MacLeod returned to their homes in Stanley Bridge after being the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Robertson, 167 Great George Street.—Messrs. John MacLeod and Alfred Wayne left for Plenside, Sask., after spending the winter months on P. E. I.

Sweet and palatable, Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator is acceptable to children, and it does its work surely and promptly.

The chorus "It's Time to tell you all goodbye" brought the entertainment to a close and all were satisfied that an enjoyable evening had been spent.

Much credit is due to Misses Pearl McKenzie, Mabel Paquet and Matilda Brennan, under whose direction the concert was prepared, also to Messrs. W. J. Cheverie and Peter A. McLellan who prepared the Patriotic Drill which in the opinion of all was an exceptionally good number.

The leading part, that of Sam Skellings, was taken by W. J. Cheverie, who has long since proved his ability as an actor, and his clever interpretation of Sam's difficulties elicited great applause. The others on this their first public appearance acquitted themselves in a capable manner, and much credit is due Mr. W. J. Cheverie, under whose direction the play was staged.

The audience were then treated to an unique performance, a thing an utterly new, A Canoe Race. The stars were beautifully illuminated with fire works, and as the curtain was raised all eyes were turned to the canoe containing the following boys: Bernard Mooney, (Captain), Leonard Condon, Edward Moynagh, James McIntyre, Lergus Paquet, To the air of the French Canadian Boat Song, "Le Roulant Ma Boule" sung by the crew, they paddled along, and wonder, the interest and amazement of the audience grew until the canoe was hidden from view and nothing could be heard but the echo of their beautiful song.

The chorus "It's Time to tell you all goodbye" brought the entertainment to a close and all were satisfied that an enjoyable evening had been spent.

A Raw, Sore Throat

Eases Quickly When You Apply a Little Musterole. Musterole won't blister like the old-fashioned mustard plaster. Spread it on with your fingers. It penetrates to the sore spot with a gentle tingle, loosens the congestion and draws out the soreness and pain.

Musterole is a clean, white ointment made with oil of mustard. Brings quick relief from sore throat, bronchitis, tonsillitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frost-bitten feet, colds of the chest. Keep it handy for instant use.

Reports were prevalent throughout last summer of the strange monster inhabiting the water near Prince Rupert, and on Tuesday Capt. C. J. House, of the position for half a minute. It looked like a telephone pole except that the head was wider than the body. It was seen just opposite the pier of his crew witnessed the an. Turtle Point, the body coming up bits of the serpent. It raised its spirally just like a snake. The head thirty feet above the surface head looked about 18 inches wide of the water, and remained in that two and one-half feet long and was of greenish gold color. BLACKHEADS Blackheads go quickly by a simple method that just dissolves them. Get two ounces of peroxide powder from your druggist, rub this with a hot, wet cloth briskly over the blackheads—and you will wonder where they have gone.

TREE-TOD STORIES THE DISAPPOINTED FAIRY MARJORIE was riding in the street-car with her Mother one afternoon. Just across the aisle sat a lady going to a tea-party. She wore a brown silk dress, and a large brown hat with soft pink feathers on it. "I wonder what makes those feathers wave about so?" thought Marjorie. Just then a tiny face peered out between the feathers. "There's a Fairy playing up there!" exclaimed Marjorie to herself. That moment the Fairy came out and looked under the hat. "O! She flew away!" said Marjorie. "And she looked so frightened!"
