FLEET WILL MOBILISE

Shortly for Manoeuvres or War—Steamer Pawnee Burned at Sea.

LONDON, June 27.—(Special)—The St. James Gazette declares the Clan na Gael will get concessions from the Transvaal to run a privateer in the event of war to prey on the Cape liners.

CHATHAM, England June 27.—(Special)—The fleet will mobilize July 11th. This is believed to be merely preparatory to the annual naval manoeuvres, but may mean more than this.

NEW YORK, June 27.—(Special)—The Steamer Pawnee is reported burned at sea. The date of the crew is unknown, but it is supposed they have been taken off by passing steamer, as she was on the track of south bound vessels.

DEATH OF JOHN S. KENNEDY.

John S. Kennedy, son of William and Annie Kennedy, died June 6th, 1899, aged 22 years and nine months.

He was born on Prince Edward Island and was well-known by many of our readers. In his tenth year he came with his parents, brothers and sisters to New York City where he entered a public school. His cleverness and love for study helped him to advance so that in four years he was graduated from school and readily passed examinations for college. After five years more of study he successfully passed his final examinations and received the degree of B. A., also a prize for oratory.

He was an exemplary young man and was loved by a large circle of friends; best of all he was an earnest Christian an example to all with whom he came in contact.

Less than six months ago his health began to fail. Finally his parents decided to send him to a sanitarium for treatment. His mother accompanied him to one in Battle Creek, Michigan, the largest and best sanitarium in the world, where he began to improve quite rapidly and his many friends in New York City looked forward to his early return. Owing to his improved condition he decided to visit Lexington, Ky. to attend the commencement exercises of the College of Liberal Arts where one of his friends was to be graduated.

While traveling he became suddenly ill and was carried into a country house where he was kindly treated and cared for until the following day he died.

The sad news was a great shock to his friends but in the hour of trial and bereavement they all rejoice in the hope of seeing their loved one again.

He was converted when but fourteen years old in the Church of the Disciples of Christ, West 66th St., New York City, and was baptized by Dr. Tyler. He continued a faithful and active worker in this church until three years ago when he attended meetings that were being held by the writer in a large Gospel Tent under the auspices of the Seventh Day Adventists. He began immediately to walk in the new light that received and became a great help to the S. D. A. Church here, often occupying the pulpit in the absence of the regular pastor. He was a bold and vigorous speaker and stood firmly for the literal teaching of God's word.

Two days before his death he stopped at Toledo, Ohio, and preached a powerful sermon there. He decided to give his life for this work and was making preparation to that end when death came. His last rest in the New York Church will never be forgotten. Although dead, yet he still lives in the memory of his friends, and when the trump of God shall sound and that still sweet voice of Jesus shall call upon the righteous dead to rise we then shall see our dear friend and brother John S. Kennedy.

E. E. Franke Pastor of the Seventh Day Adventist church, New York City.

Officials Appointed by the Conference.

LATE W. W. TURNBULL

A Temperance Millionaire— Found a Hospital for Incurables.

ST. STEPHEN, N. B., June 27.—(Special)—The Methodist Conference chose Rev. Mr. Teasdale Chairman of the Charlottetown District and Rev. John Goldsmith Chairman of the Summerside District.

The latter is also Secretary of the Sustentation Fund; Rev. Richard Opie Financial Secretary for Charlottetown and Rev. Thomas Hicks, Charlottetown.

ST. JOHN, June 27.—(Special)—Wallace W. Turnbull, who died last evening, was probably the wealthiest citizen of St. John. He was born at Bear River, N. S., in 1828.

He removed to St. John in 1846 with his widowed mother and sisters, their united possessions being $1000. He took a ship and in 1851 started in business for himself as a wholesale flour, provision and grocery merchant. Later he added shipping and railway enterprises.

He was a director and the largest shareholder in the Bank of New Brunswick and President of the Protestant Orphan Asylum. His recent gift of $100,000 to found a hospital for incurables is an instance of his recent generosity.

Mr. Turnbull has been all his life a temperance man. In early years he was an adherent of the Presbyterian Church, but lately he attended the Church of England with his family.

AT CAMP BRIGHTON

The Militia Tents were Pitched Yesterday.

500 MEN UNDER CANVAS

Infantry and Artillery From Georgetown, Souris, Montague and City.

The Island Militia is consisting of eight companies. Staff and band of the 82nd Battalion and three companies of the 4th Regiment C. A., went into camp at Brighton yesterday afternoon. The Georgetown, Souris and Montague companies arrived at 9.15 a. m., were met by the Regimental Commander Lieut.-Col. Longworth and Capt. Carvell, and were escorted to camp by the Artillery Band. The camp was completed at noon by the arrival of the West- and city companies, the different companies undergoing a strict medical examination.

The City will assume a gay appearance during the next twelve days while the militia is in camp. The men will this morning set to work in regular drill, so that peaceful as Canada and her foreign relations are now, it is complicated one should arise, and the sword become the arbitrator of our country will have some men at least drilled in military work and prepared for her defence.

And after all the latter is the more important. The men at Brighton are in training for only twelve days in 1899. In that time they can learn but little, and that little is oftentimes soon forgotten. But the fact that these camps are being held guarantees that the military organization of Canada is a real organization and would be of use in case of service, and would not be a mere scheme on paper. That after all is the great benefit of annual camps of instruction.

Lieut.-Col. Moore is in command of the camp, while Sergeants Brewer and Bayers, R. C. R. I., will instruct the Infantry, and Sergt. Hesson, R. C. A., the Artillery.

The tents were all pitched on Monday by two men from each company who were placed under the command of the Quartermaster.

The officers' and sergeants' messes were neatly decorated and everything prepared for the arrival of the troops under the superintendence of the Quartermaster.

The 82nd band discourses music every evening on the Regimental Parade Ground.

P. E. I TO RICHMOND.

Convention City of the B. Y. P. U.—Island Delegates Leave About July 9th.

The Ninth International Convention of the B. Y. P. U. A. will be held in the Queen City of the South—Richmond V. A., July 13-16. The special attractiveness of the place of meeting; the convenient time selected, coming as it does in the vacation season; the men of distinction who will be heard, will make this one of the greatest conventions. Preparations are well under way for the holding of the assembly. The session will be held in Auditorium with seating capacity for 12,500, which will be well ventilated and supplied with electric fans, and other comforts.

Richmond which has thus become a convention city is the most attractive place in the Southland for such a gathering. It is rich in historic interest. The visitor can scarcely turn around without treading on historic ground which recalls memories of the colonial days, of the stirring days when Richmond was the capital of the Southern Confederacy and of the great events in the civic history of the country since.

The Buffalo Convention of last year was attended by nearly 20,000 delegates and visitors, but it is thought that a greater number will be in attendance this year, seeing that New York, Washington, Philadelphia and Boston are included in the itinerary. The trip will occupy ten or eleven days and cost about $50 for all expenses. Any information relative to excursion trip can be obtained from Ira J. Yoo of this City, who is transportation leader for this province.
