Lachute, Que. 25th. 1918. Minard's Liniment Co. Limited. Gentlemen,—Ever since coming home from the Boer war I have been bothered with running fever sores on my legs. I tried many salves and liniments; also doctoring continually for the blood, but got no permanent relief, till last winter when my mother got me to try MINARD'S LINIMENT. The effect of which was almost magical. After two bottles the sores completely disappeared and I have worked every working day since Yours gratefully, JOHN WALSH.

Lindsay of Hazelbrook performed the marriage ceremony, after which a hearty wedding supper was served. The rooms being prettily decorated with ferns and flowers. An extensive shower was given the bride some time previous, at the home of her pastor and his wife, Rev. R. W. and Mrs. Lindsay when her numerous friends came from far and near with valuable gifts as tokens of their love and esteem and also to express in tangible words their appreciation of her as a friend and as a talented member of the Hazelbrook Baptist Church, and choir, where she so often delighted the audience with her sweet singing. The groom is one of the gallant young men of this Province, who volunteered his services in the Great War and served two years overseas. The bride party motored to Annandale, where a large reception was tendered them at the home of the groom's mother, Mrs. John Howlett. The popularity of the young couple was amply expressed in the array of magnificent gifts received in cut glass, silver, linen, and substantial cheques. The groom's gift to the bride was a rope of pearls. After the reception Mr. and Mrs. Howlett went to their lovely new home in Annandale, where their many friends wish them every happiness for the future.
