

LIEUTENANT PEARY WOULD GO NORTH AGAIN IF HE HAD MONEY

His Interest is Still in the Arctic Regions, but He Does not See any Present Prospect of Another Expedition.

(Brooklyn Eagle.)

Lieutenant Robert E. Peary, when seen by an Eagle reporter at the St. Denis Hotel to-day, said:

"If I had an independent fortune I would go back to the Arctic at once and I would stay there until I had reached the pole or had been removed from the possibility of further effort."

This statement of the famous Arctic explorer was made in answer to the question whether he had at any time expressed a determination not to try for the pole again. Lieutenant Peary is stopping at the St. Denis Hotel with his wife and daughter. He expects to go to Washington within the next few days to report for duty to the Navy department. In explanation of the frequently published statement that he would not try again Lieutenant Peary said:

"What I did say was that I had spent all my money and that I could see no prospect of another expedition. I have nothing to fall back upon, except my place in the navy. For that reason I am going back to Washington to report."

"In regard to going to the north again to look for the Pole, I will say this: I am like other men or, at all events, I am this kind of a man. When I start out to do a thing I like to do it. If I had the means I would keep at this thing until I accomplished it."

"I had an independent fortune I would go back to the Arctic at once, and I would stay there until I had reached the Pole or had been removed from the possibility of further effort."

"I have just as deep an interest in the Polar work as I ever had and am just as eager to continue it. I have lost some of my toes, but am otherwise in perfect health. The loss of my toes has not affected my effectiveness," he added with a smile.

"I do not know where I shall be assigned to by the Navy Department. I have read in the papers that I shall be sent to the New York Navy yard, but that is all I know about the matter."

"I believe that the North Pole will be discovered within the next ten years. Perhaps sooner. In my opinion the way to get there is to go as far north as possible and wait for favorable opportunities to push on. You cannot tell in advance when such an opportunity will arrive. But an open season is sure to come sooner or later when it will be possible to make a dash from the furthest north land, at about 83 degrees, over the ice to the Pole."

"To establish a better station on this northern point of land, and to maintain it will require funds. It might be necessary to stay three or five years before the right time came, but it would surely come."

"I attribute the failure of previous expeditions to reach the Pole to lack of funds and it is because I do not see any prospect of funds that I have said that I shall probably not go again. I was there four years and spent less than $100,000 and I should say that it would take about $200,000 to give an expedition at reasonable expectation of success."

"The most valuable results of my last trip consist of geographical discoveries, but I have made what I believe are valuable meteorological observations as well. We have brought back with us a new species of walrus and have made a very careful study of the musk-ox."

Lieutenant Peary refused to discuss the failure of Baldwin to reach a high latitude. He said that he knew Baldwin well, as Baldwin was a member of his first expedition in 1893.

THE SYNOD AT NEW GLASGOW.

A NEW GLASGOW despatch says:—The Clerk of the Synod called the attention of the court to the action of the P. E. Island Presbytery in the matter of discussions at the last meeting of the Synod and General Assembly as to individual communion cups; that the Presbytery recorded and published in an Island paper minutes that reflected on the Synod. Dr. Forrest moved that the Presbytery of the Island be ordered to explain its action. Rev. T. F. Fullerton ably and clearly defined the conduct of the Presbytery in doing what it had done. Mr. Fullerton claimed for the Presbytery the right of private interpretation of last synod's ruling, that consideration of this matter be carried to the Assembly to be discussed. He contended that the matter should not have gone from the Synod as an appeal, but a consideration on its own merits. This, he said, had not been done. T. C. James followed by saying that the synod intended something other than the minute recorded by the synod clerk in connection with the appeal from the Presbytery to the synod. It was simply a case of the judgment of the clerk finding its way into the intention of the synod and retaliation on the part of the presbytery. Since the action of the clerk had interfered with the course of justice in the matter, the Presbytery of the Island meant no reflection on the clerk in this action. Dr. Falconer moved that the matter be dropped, since the Island presbytery had given ample explanation of its conduct. Dr. Forrest moved that the Island Presbytery be ordered to delete the objectionable words from its minute records. Dr. Forrest's motion was carried by a large majority. Rev. Mr. Fullerton stated on behalf of the members of the Island Presbytery and for himself his dissent from the synod's findings and stated that the Presbytery would appeal to the General Assembly. Dr. Sedgwick expressed to the Synod his thanks for the way they had sustained his action. The whole morning session was occupied by the discussion and at any time in the meeting there was no difficulty in securing speakers. By invitation the Synod will go next year to Charlottetown.

TOO GREAT EXPENSE.

Not The Reason.

It is not because Pyramid Pile Cure is so expensive that many people decline to give it a trial, but because they find it too great a tax on their credulity to believe that the published letters bearing testimony to the merit of this are genuine and bona fide; especially to those who have realized the suffering incident to piles is it incredible that anyone who has been afflicted twenty-five and thirty years with the worst forms of protruding and bleeding piles should be cured by the application of a simple remedy, when their physician has assured them that the only relief is in a surgical operation. This is rightly viewed with dread by all those afflicted, as it means at the least a great shock to the nervous system, with more than a possibility of utter collapse and death; in the majority of cases, too, there is a return of the complaint, owing to the fact that the cause is not removed.

The proprietors of Pyramid Pile Cure agree to forfeit one thousand dollars to anyone who will show a single published testimonial to be not genuine and unaltered; this latter feature is most gratifying, inasmuch as these letters are written solely out of gratitude and with the hope that those who are afflicted as the writers have been may learn that relief is at hand at a comparatively trifling expense. Pyramid Pile Cure is for sale by druggists at fifty cents a package, or will be mailed by the makers to any address upon receipt of price.

Mr. Wm. Lichtenwalter, head of the largest printing house in Canada, Ohio, says: "It is with the utmost pleasure and satisfaction that I can say I believe I am cured of protruding and bleeding piles, after suffering more than twenty-five years. I have been in bed for two weeks at a time. I have not suffered in the least for over a year, and I used only three fifty cent boxes of Pyramid Pile Cure. I advise every person suffering with this distressing and painful complaint to give this remedy a trial. I have every confidence in it." Write the Pyramid Drug Co., Marshall, Mich., for their book on the causes and cure of piles.

To The Farmers of Prince Edward Island

THE DOMINION PACKING COMPANY, Ltd., which is incorporated under the laws of Canada with a capital of $1,000,000 (one million dollars), has purchased the Pork and Beef packing business hitherto carried on here by Messrs. B. & M. Rattenbury. It is the intention of this Company to very largely increase that business. To that end the company will be prepared to make very large purchases of live and dressed HOGS, CATTLE, SHEEP and POULTRY. In fact in a very short time it expects to be able to handle at least five times as many hogs, cattle, sheep, etc., as the farmers of P. E. I. are at present raising, and it indulges the hope that the farmers of this Island will furnish all that is required.

Owing to our expert knowledge of killing, curing, etc., and our facilities for marketing our product, through our own cold storage warehouses which we intend to build at the points of consumption, such as Sydney, Halifax, St. John, N. B. and St. John's, Newfoundland, and elsewhere, we will be in a position to pay SPOT CASH and HIGHER PRICES than any company now doing business in the Maritime Provinces. We believe you will make more money by selling us your live animals than by either killing them yourself or shipping them abroad on the hoof, as the Company will be provided with the best facilities for saving all the by-products or offal which have heretofore been thrown away.

Arrangements will be made whereby all goods purchased will be properly weighed by duly sworn officials at different points on the Island.

The preliminaries incident to taking over the Rattenbury plant and property and increasing its facilities for the new business will probably cause a week or two of delay. We, therefore, request our patrons to hold their marketable stock for a short time; but should you have any animals you find it necessary to sell immediately, kindly communicate with us before offering elsewhere. We ask as a special favor that you kindly fill in the enclosed postal card and return to us without delay so that we can make our records more complete, and thus facilitate further communication.

Thanking you in advance for your co-operation, we are, sirs,

Yours sincerely,

CANADIAN TRADE WITH SOUTH AFRICA

An Opportunity is Now Presenting Itself to Canada to do a Flourishing Business in That Country.

OTTAWA, Oct. 6.—J. Jardine, Dominion trade commissioner in South Africa, has sent a report to the trade and commerce department dated Pretoria, Sept. 6, in which he sets out a variety of opportunities which are at present open to Canadian manufacturers. With the settlement of the many thousands of expatriated Boers and Australian, British and Canadian irregulars who have remained in the country, comes a large demand for agricultural implements.

The imperial government is placing these people on the land giving them a start. Mr. Jardine says he interviewed Major Leggett, an imperial officer in charge of the work, and one of his assistants, who is a Canadian, and both are exceedingly anxious to place orders with Canadian firms rather than from American ones. British firms they say, cannot compete in the market as they do not manufacture the class of goods required.

Mr. Jardine is forwarding a list of articles required. They include plows, harrows and all a rural implements which in order to meet the market, must be as cheap as possible.
