WINNIP. G'S NEWSPAPERS WAR ON LORD'S DAY ALLIANCE

Will Boycott All Church News, Puffs for Preachers And Notices And Appeals A Curious States Of Affairs Exists

WINNIPEG, Feb. 13.—A curious state of things has been caused by the sensational summoning of one thousand five hundred persons by the city police for alleged infractions of the Lord's Day Act. Goaded by the taunts of the Sabbatarians and worried by the announcement of the Attorney General of Manitoba that the police of Winnipeg would not assist him in carrying out the laws of the land, Chief McRae and his sergeants did this thing on Sunday, and now the courts will be blocked for months if the matter is proceeded with.

The vastness of the task has even staggered the Attorney General, and he has made no definite announcement as to the furtherance of his plans beyond stating that no injustice will be done. The preacher, the undertaker, the milkman and the wretched reporter are safe from jail for a day or two yet.

In the meantime the proprietors of the newspapers have been driven to a fine frenzy by the persistent campaign of the Sabbatarians. They have loaded up columns of the daily papers with manifestos, sensational sermons, letters to the editor, interviews, and so on, mostly emanating from the facile tongue and pen of one Rochester, a Rat Portage Methodist clergyman.

The arrests on Sunday turned the scale against the famous collection plate alliance. The detention from their duties on Sunday of the newspaper men has at last exasperated the long-suffering editors, and a proposal is now on the tapis that the Sabbath Day Alliance, and with it all the churches of Winnipeg, be entirely dropped from the columns of their papers. The vast number of free ads, announcements, advertisements gratis, of church grab socials, frantic Lord Day's appeals, reports of sermons, etc., will be entirely dropped from the columns. It is anticipated that this will give on ordinary days three more columns for real news and advertisements, and save much work and wages. On the Saturday editions it will save a whole page, and the work and expense incurred thereby will be pure profit to the papers.

It is said that on the publicity being stopped, which is the breath of life of the religious or any other limelight agitation, toleration will again lift up its head and the blind piggy will be throttled. An anomalous phase of the affair was that the newspapermen were at the time writing "boost" sermons on the alliance. The public seems to be in accord

PROVED BEYOND DOUBT.
The disappointed victim of poor Catarrh remedies should read the statement of J. R. Smith, of Lake Stream, N.B. In Catarrh zone he found an absolute cure and says: "Last winter my little girl of eight caught cold which lodged in her ears in the form of Catarrh. She became sick and deaf and nothing helped. By inhaling Catarrh zone she got relief and gradually the discharge went away. She was cured perfectly of Catarrh. Personally I can recommend Catarrh zone for coughs and throat irritation; it's a wonderful medicine. Sold everywhere, twenty-five cents and one dollar."

For Those Who READ

(Compiled for the Saturday Guardian.)

"Books, we know, are a substantial world, both pure and good; Round these, with tendrils strong as flesh and blood, Our pastime and our happiness will grow." —Wordsworth.

LITERATURE IN THE MAKING.
A member of a girls' club was asked to write an essay on Henry the Eighth of England, and handed in the following:
"King Henry 8 was the greatest widower that ever lived. He was born at Anno Domini in 1086 he had four hundred and thirty-five wives besides children. The first was beheaded and executed. The second was revoked. She never smiled again but she said the words 'salute' would be found on her heart after her death. The greatest man in his reign was Lord Duke Sir Garret Walsey. He was sir named the boy bachelor. He was born at the age of seventeen unmarried."

Yes, do you send me a book for my birthday. Not a bargain book bought from a haberdasher, but a beautiful book, A BEAUTIFUL BOOK; a book to caress—peculiar, distinctive, individual; a work that hath first caught your eye and then pleased your fancy, written by an author with a tender whim all right out of his heart. We will read it together in the gloaming, and when the gathering dark doth blur the page, we'll sit with hearts too full for speech and think it over. Thus saith Dorothy Wordsworth in a letter to Coleridge.

He who knows not—and knows not he knows not—is a fool; than him, He who knows not—and knows he knows not—is simple; teach him. He who knows—and knows not he knows—is asleep; waken him. He who knows—and knows he knows—is wise; follow him.
