MR. MAURICE MARTIN, Service Supt. for A. Horne & Co., returned Saturday night from Oshawa, Ontario, where he had been attending the General Motors Service School specializing on Buick, Pontiac and Chevrolet Motor Cars.

The many friends of Mr. James S. Cook, who spent several years in the Royal Bank, Charlottetown, and who has for the past four years been accountant in one of the branches of that Bank in Vancouver, will be glad to learn that he has been promoted to Bank inspector. Mr. Cook's home is in Kensington, P. E. Island.

JEALOUS HEARTS—In love with one woman, plighted to another, Tony Deering struggled for honor and happiness in a distracting situation that Mildred Barbour makes the subject of "Jealous Hearts," a powerful seral dealing with the problems of love and married life which starts this week in The Guardian.

MONTAGUE — The sacrament of The Lord's Supper will be dispensed in the United Church, Montague next Sunday at the morning service, 11 a. m. Evening service at 7 o'clock. There will be services as 7.45 p. m. during the week as follows:—Monday in Victoria Cross; Tuesday, Union Road; Wednesday and Friday in Whim Road. It is hoped that as many as possible will atttend these services.

MEETINGS WELL ATTENDED—The agricultural meetings being held throughout the Province have been well attended, some of the buildings being crowded to standing room. Mr. J. A. Clark, Superintendent of the Experimental Station is being assisted by Mr. R. C. Parent, M. S. A., Supervisor of the Illustration Station and many of the questions asked at these meetings were answered by Mr. Clark in his address before Rotary yesterday which appears elsewhere. These farmers meetings are being continued during the first week of April in Kings County and during the second week in Southen Queen's County.

PERSONALS

Mr. James Horgan, Pleasant Grove, spent yesterday in the City.

The many friends of Mr. George I. Birt will regret to learn of his severe illness in the P. E. Island Hospital.

The Canadian West

The immense possibilities for development in Canada are strikingly emphasized by the rich prairie lands of the great Canadian west awaiting the settler. It is comparable to a mighty ocean, being about one thousand miles across its extent. This vast area is a tremendous storehouse of national wealth and has as yet been scarcely tapped. To see these prairie lands of the great Canadian West, is an education in itself and a sure cure for national pessimism. Beyond the prairies lie the foothills of the Canadian Rockies which rise gradually until they culminate in snowclad peaks forming the Great Divide.

A trip across Canada is a delightful experience as well as an education and the experience is further enhanced by a stay at Jasper Park Lodge, located in Jasper National Park, in the heart of the Canadian Rockies and enjoy their health and majesty. Jasper Park Lodge is a well known mountain resort, owned and operated by the Canadian National Railways, with a world famous golf course. Jasper Park Lodge is the starting point of a tour, The Triangle Tour, which embraces practically every type of mountain scenery to be met with in the Canadian Rockies, and covers the Norwegic scenery of the coast line of British Columbia. From Jasper Park Lodge the tour extends to Vancouver by rail, thence by Canadian National steamship to Prince Rupert and back to Jasper Park Lodge. An off-shot of this tour is to Alaska, the land of the Midnight Sun.

The trip across Canada is made easy of accomplishment via the lines of the Canadian National Railways. All transcontinental tickets are good to stop off at Jasper Park Lodge. The Continental Limited, a high class, standard, all steel train, with radio equipped compartment, library-observation buffet car, leaves Montreal daily at 10.15 p. m. for points in the Canadian West and Vancouver and Victoria.

Illustrated booklets describing the country traversed by The Continental Limited, also the Canadian Rockies, The Triangle Tour, and Alaska may be had free on application to any Canadian National Railways Agent or from the General Passenger Department, Moncton, N. B. 3548-4-3-2i.

MOUNT STEWART NOTES.

Mr. Will Ross, Stanhope spent the week end in French Village the guest of his sister Mrs. Fulton Pigott.

Mr. Daniel Birt had his wood sawed by motor power Tuesday, Mr. John Jay having the outfit.

Dr. A. B. Martin is having the interior of his large and beautiful residence repaired etc by Mr. Harry Crossman, Charlottetown.

Her many friends regret to learn of the illness of Marjorie Affleck little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Affleck and a rapid recovery to health is hoped for. Dr. Toombs is in attendance.

The past week seemed to be a week for plays and dramas. One being held at Mt. Stewart Saturday night, also one at Tracadie, Vernon River, also at Georgetown, Morell, and a number of other places as well. This part of P. E. I. is getting to be a regular "Hollywood".

We regret to say that Miss Margaret Martin has been confined to her home through illness, but her manyfriends look forward to a speedy recovery.

We learn with pleasure that Dr. George Green D. D. S. Charlottetown, intends to have an office here, which he will visit one day per week. We feel that this will be a step in the right way, firstly as the doctor is well and favorably known here, and secondly there being no other dentist here, which there should be in every central town or village.

Mr. Ira Douglas, seed potatoe inspector, was at Bedford Friday where an amount of potatoes were being shipped.

Dr. Martin has purchased a third horse, and although the others are of royal stock it was found necessary to purchase the third in order to keep apace with his practice.

Now that a number of citizens have had their firewood sawn by motor, Messrs Lund, Griffen and Trainer are being kept busy attending to those who are having it split.

Mrs. McMillan, Charlottetown is spending some time at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Roy Jay.

Among those who visited the Capitol Friday was Mr. George Clark.

Mr. J. D. Timmins, our up-to-date butcher purchased some choice beef cattle and pork last week.

Another added improvement: The new window shades put upon the school windows by the women's institute here.

In last weeks notes I forgot to mention the music supplied by Mr. Lem Jay on his fiddle, at the play "safety first", but sure I thought you'd know he was there anyway, because you know Lem's a booster.

Services were held in the Presbyterian Church at seven o'clock, conducted by the Rev. Mr. Morrie.

The regular service was held in the United Church at the regular hour of eleven o'clock A. M. Conducted by the Rev. M. K. Charman.

Now that the different fishermen's houses have been moved to their new site at Savage Harbor it has become a veritable town and by reports the fishermen have nominated Mr. Wm. N. Douglas to act as mayor for the coming season.

F.

ALBNEY AND VICINITY.

Spring is at hand. And the rush of works, for the farmer and fisherman is on.

Mr. Wm. MacPhee, inspector of schools, visited Albney school on Friday, March 23rd. Mr. MacPhee is a very capable inspector, and a man who, no doubt is well liked by all teachers, and pupils and others with whom he comes in contact with.

Messrs Wm. White, James White and Mac Buell made a trip to Montague recently in the interest of purchasing horses.

Mr. Lemuel Buell has had the misfortune of losing a valuable farm horse.

Mr. James Richards has finished threshing for this season and has a few days sawing wood yet before winding up this line of work.

We are glad to have back with us again, Mr. Reginald Buell and family. Mr. Buell as been engaged for the past winter, cutting lumber at Belle River and we learn that he has done well in this business. It is a pity that lumber is so scarce in this vicinity as many of our young men could find work near home during the winter months if only lumber was plentiful. But as it is the young men have to seek employment in other lands.

Mr. John Richards has purchased a horse recently, to replace one that he sold.

Farming the chief industry of this vicinity, is carried on with success by quite a number of its residents. And others, although not doing so well, are earning a living by this industry. Looking back some fifty years or more the feilds which now bring forth beautiful crops of hay, oats, wheat, potatoes and others; were covered with a thick forest and it is only through the hard labor of our ancestors that, when hardest times come, we can stand, view the fields of golden grain. If more of our young men had the courage of our forefathers, there would not be so many vacant farms on P. E. I. There are the beautiful farms carved from the wilderness, and yet they are not satisfied to remain on them. But rather cross the border and help build up another nation. Quite a quantity of produce and livestock is exchanging hands those days. And it is all nessecary for think of the millions of people in the large cities wo are waiting for the produce of our farms. And we in turn are waiting for the produce of their factories and workshops.

STANHOPE RED LIGHTS.

"Winter, art thou going now", seems to be the prevalent question.

The mild weather is excellent for the transporting of the cobblers out of the winter store rooms to the various shippings centres.

Some of Stanhope and Covehead cobbler buyers are Mr. Percy Douglas and Mr. Garfield MacCathern. These two enterprizing young men are giving the highest mrket price for the seed and table stock.

The visitors to Covehead and Stanhope from Town were Mrs. Davis, of Cliff Hotel, Messrs Irene Lawson and Mrs. MacKenzie, Ruth Burt and Florence Burt.

We are glad to see Miss Anna MacAluay again able to be around after her severe attack of measles.

The school is showing progress in every subject under the good teacher Miss Muriel Bowen.

We, Stanhope school, extend their heartiest congratulations to the winners in the oratorical contest.

The large attendance and large amount of business transacted at the meeting of the Pig club, held in West Covehead Friday evening speaks well for the progress of the club. A Dominion live stock Representative was in attendance.

Immigration Dealt With In Parliament

OTTAWA, March 30. —In agricultural committee this morning Dr. W. J. Black, director of the Colonization Branch of the C. N. R., was a most important witness and made a splendid impression on members of the committee.

First of all he made it clear that the activities of his department were open to the most minute inspection, and he produced copies of pamphlets that were issued for distribution in Great Britain and on the continent. He also produced in bound form, telegraph correspondence, lectures prepared for the purpose of familiarizing the English prospective immigrant with actual conditions of farming in Canada under ten different heads.

The difficulty with the average British immigrant in landing in Canada was that he was afflicted with an "attitude of mind" and if he survived the first six months he was very likely to pull through. It had been found that of the 4,000 that had taken this course, and came to Canada as a consequence even without any farming experience at home, made better and more successful settlers than those who had had experience and had not taken the course.

For rapid settlement Canada could not depend upon Great Britain. The number available desiring to assume the role of pioneer in the west were small. The tendency was rather to go to the cities, towns, and villages. There were the incentives of staying at home, the wages for farm labour almost as good as in Canada, while there was an eight hour day, with a Saturday half holiday and old age pension to look forward to in the end. There was also the "dole" in case of unemployment under the guise of insurance against unemployment which farm labour in Canada has not at all.

The C. N. R. as a Canadian and British institution, would prefer British to continental immigrants, but the latter was much easier to get. The C. N. R. was not moving to have the bars let down, but if they were down there would be no difficulty in getting an indefinite number.

Mr. Black emphasized the fact that neither through its pamphlets nor its agents in Great Britain were rosy pictures painted by the C. N. R. about Canada. It was bad policy to tell anything but the exact truth, and in the end it reacted seriously against the country. He had traced a great many complaints of that kind and found that not in a single case were they true, so far as the C. N. R. was concerned. Anything of the kind was the fault of steamship agents at many outside ports, who were anxious to sell tickets. Dr. Black will appear again before the committee.

Government announcements practically completed the government legislative programme for this session, namely, a government loan to the Saint John harbor commission of $5,000,000; a loan to the Halifax harbor commission of not less than $500,000 for terminal facilities, provision for $7,000,000 for the Toronto terminals railway Co., which may be increased to $10,500,000; legislation providing for prevention of importation of liquors except by provinces, and for the prevention of smuggling in Canadian territorial waters and trade arrangements with Esthonia, Hungary, Latvia, Lithuania, Portugal, Roumania and Serb Croat and Slovene Kingdom.

In reply to a question the Hon. Mr. Cardin, Minister of Marine and Fisheries, stated that on account of many representations from many quarters the department had decided not to renew the licenses for broadcasting granted to the International Bible Students.

Mr. Woodsworth, Labor, again asked the Prime Minister what was the attitude of the government on the proposed treaty between Great Britain and Egypt. Mr. Mackenzie King replied at very considerable length reiterating statements already made in parliament on the subject, and reading press dispatches of statements in the House of Lords by Lord Salisbury.

The gist of his remarks was that Canada was in no way obligated by correspondence or in the treaty to be a party to it, and that Lord Salisbury was in entire agreement with the stand taken by the Canadian government.

Government resolutions passed enabling the minister of national revenue to appoint certain classes of officers for certain purposes and to retire any officer on payment of gratuity and to extend the period of paying $250,000 to the city of Ottawa from 16 years to 30 dating from the first day of April, 1928, and authorizing the improvement commission to issue guaranteed securities and to provide for a sinking fund to redeem such securities.

After preliminaries the house went into committee of supply, and the house was so occupied until six o'clock.

Last evening the debate on the motion of Mr. Garland to refer the final reports of Mr. Justice Clarke to the select standing committee on privileges, and elections continued. Messrs. Ryckman, Toronto, Hocken, Toronto, W. G. McQuarrie, New Westminster, L. G. Bell, St. Antoine, and George Black, Yukon with the exception of McQuarrie, spoke feelingly on the corrupt methods that had been used by political opponents in their respective constituencies.

The member for the Yukon entertained the house with some stirring stories of earlier days in the constituency. Conditions were bad. Returning officers declined to furnish voters lists to the opposition candidate. Until one day a clergyman, member of a citizens committee, threatened to bring his Winchester along if the lists were not produced. Then the lists appeared.

The Prime Minister having agreed that there was room for improvement in the elections act, the motion carried.

The remainder of the night sitting was largely devoted to putting through the bill which confirms the settlement with certain debentures holders of the old Canadian Northern Railway, and also the measure which gives effect to the changes proposed in the budget in relation to the income tax act. Progressives have as a matter of principle opposed reduction of tax and went to the extent of dividing the house upon it. In view of a recent experience some tall hustling was necessary in order to get the vote under way before eleven o'clock, and the speaker rose to read the motion before the whips came in. All the Conservatives present save Messrs. Esling and Cowan voted with the government while John Millar (Liberal Progressive) voted against it. The bill went through 85 to 21.

The Senate has cleared up all the financial bills, which have received royal assent necessary to immediate requirements of the treasury and adjourned until April 17th. The members of the house, with the exception of a number in the west, whose time would be principally occupied in coming and going, dispersed last evening for their respective homes for 10 days.
