

Abbies Meet Amherst Team Tonight; "King" Clancy To Referee

Displaying smart offensive work and a sound defense in practice sessions Jackie Kane's Abegweit crew get their first taste of competition at the Forum tonight when they stack up against Amherst Ramblers in an exhibition game at the Forum.

The game is expected to be a nip and tuck battle all the way between the squads that will be meeting in Central League battles once that schedule gets underway. There is a wealth of promising hockey ivory included in the Abbie lineup including veterans and up and coming youngsters, and the Amherst team their chances of being well to the forefront in league play will be brightened considerably.

A feature of the game, and one that is bound to attract a lot of fans, will be the appearance of "King" Clancy as referee. Clancy, who had been conducting a school for referees and coaches here, is acknowledged to be one of the smartest officials in the business. A star in his playing days he has risen to that status as an arbiter and his performance will be watched with much interest. Aiding him as linesmen will be six pupils of the school, with two performing in each period.

Amherst teams have produced many smart hockeyists in the past, one of them in particular being "Red" Stuart who performed brilliantly in the old National League with Toronto St. Pats. If tonight's squad are anywhere near as good as some of their predecessors the Abbies can expect the toughest kind of a battle.

The game will get underway at 8:30 sharp and fans are asked to be on hand as early as possible.

Following is the Abbie lineup: Goal, Davis; defence, Gallant, Pound, M. Carmichael, C. Carmichael; forwards, Perry, Beer, Strain, Carver, Sheppard, LeClair, Higson, MacGregor, Kelly.

How Amherst will lineup: Goal: Billy White; defence, Gene Forster, Dolard Gaudet, St. Joseph, Al Gallant and Carl Ripley; forwards, Vince Carter, Rusty Leger, Jimmy Keefe, Len Tower, Jim Mitchell, Willie Agnew, Henry Cormier, Roger Babinneau, Don Robertson.

Millionaires 5, Glace Bay 3

NORTH SYDNEY, Dec. 8 (CP)—Sydney Millionaires made up for a listless performance against Glace Bay Miners Tuesday by turning the tables on North Sydney Victoria 5-3 here tonight in a regular Cape Breton Senior Hockey League game.

The win lifted Millionaires four points ahead of runner-up Miners and kept Vics bedded in the trailers' position one point back of Miners.

The blueshirts, although outshot 40-21, made the most of their scoring opportunities by pumping two goals to Vics' one in the first period and the second and piling up a 2-1 advantage in the third.

Although presumed to be temporary, a coaching switch by Millionaires seemed to work wonders. Paul Platz, team captain who is currently sidelined with a heel injury, handled the team from the players' box. Jack Fritz, regular Millionaire coach is away on a business trip.

Enjoyable Hockey School Banquet Held Last Night

The great success which has been attained here by the school for hockey coaches and referees after its second day of operation under the capable teachings of Frank "King" Clancy and Pete Kelly was exemplified last night at the banquet held at the Charlottetown Hotel, when a host of outstanding citizens, both locally and from many points in the Maritime Provinces, were high in their praise of the school and the splendid opportunities that the program has offered towards the betterment of hockey both in this Province and the Maritimes as a whole.

The banquet was sponsored through the kindness of the Department of Physical Fitness for the benefit of the instructors and those attending the school as well as a number of honoured guests, and was presided over by Brigadier W. W. Reid, director of the Physical Fitness Branch of the City Council. Judge Elliott Hudson, president of the Big Four League, and Dr. Lloyd Shaw, director of education and Provincial representative to the Physical Fitness Council at Ottawa.

Brigadier Reid opened the ceremonies by welcoming the members of the school, particularly the out-of-town guests, in a warm and hearty manner. He referred briefly to the opening of the school which he said was really started "as an experiment but is proving to be a successful one as the school progresses." He then called upon and introduced Lt.-Governor Bernard and the various other speakers.

His Honour expressed a welcome to those attending the school with particular reference to King Clancy whom he said "learned from experience in a hard school and has come down here to impart that knowledge freely to us of this Province."

He also offered words of praise to Pete Kelly who is the other leading instructor of the school. In referring to the school itself, Governor Bernard said that he felt the many athletes that have been developed here in past years and hoped that in the future more people here will take a greater interest in sport from a financial aspect, which is necessary to keep the school in the fore. He suggested he would like to see a closed-in rink in every main centre in the Province.

Premier Jones spoke briefly and complimented the speaker on his fine organization of the school and said that he would like to see it carried on in future years.

Rocked King Clancy

Councillor Doyle said that he was delighted to be present and went back into the past when he said "I had the privilege of playing on the Ottawa University Canadian football championship team when King Clancy's father was its coach. As the guest of Clancy's mother and father at their home, he had rocked 'The King' in his cradle 'at the tender age of two years."

He also congratulated Brigadier Reid and said that the community should be very grateful to him for his foresight in promoting this school. In closing he offered many kind words of praise to Pete Kelly. Dr. Shaw commended this fine idea which Brigadier Reid has promoted, and spoke of the splendid accomplishments he has achieved as head of the Department of Physical Fitness, which he said was operating on the small yearly subsidy of some $1800.

He complimented his director for the splendid way he is bringing his program facilities to the small centres and communities throughout the whole Province as well as to the larger centres. In closing his remarks the speaker extended his very best wishes for the future.

Clancy Speaks

Mr. Clancy stated "I am doing what I can to help hockey on P. E. I. and I consider it a privilege and an honour to come here and meet the fine boys I have met. I am astounded at the splendid hospitality I have been accorded here." He paid high tribute to Brigadier Reid, when he stated "no place here I met a man with the stamina and energy to work the way he does. The Province should feel it a privilege to have him head of their Physical Fitness Department."

He thanked Pete Kelly for his splendid assistance at the school.

Joe Maxim Joins Heavyweight Aspirants

CLEVELAND, Dec. 8 (AP)—Joe Maxim today joined the assorted flock of heavyweight title aspirants waiting to do business with Joe Louis.

The win put Maxim in line for a probable bout with Jersey Joe Walcott here Jan. 13. Matchmaker Larry Atkins says he has offered Walcott $20,000 to fight Maxim and is certain of an acceptance.
