THE INJUNCTION "FOLLOW ME"

ther's Will—And in the second place, it is plain that Jesus Christ showed intense hatred of evil. No words so burned and blistered as those he used in reference to all sham and hypocrisy, and when he found those who were professedly religious, playing at religion, his righteous anger arose and he drove them from the church courts. And in the third place the life, here recorded is of one which was spent in doing good. He sought out the outcast, He made a companion of the man who was down and endeavored to put hope and strength into his heart. So that the lesson might never be forgotten, one of the last pictures which Jesus presents is that when down upon his knees he washes his disciple's feet. This very briefly is the life which the Gospel narrative presents and with this before us let us listen to his words, "Follow Me"—To place the Kingdom of God first, to value principle above gold, to keep our soul unsullied at any cost—This is to follow Christ.—There is no need to leave our appointed posts, the master of men toiled until his hands were hard and every toiler may follow him. The Master healed and every physician may follow Him, He taught and every teacher may follow Him. To follow Him is so to possess his spirit that it becomes impossible to do a mean thing; and looking into the face of every man to see a brother's image there. Christ never placed bread as a thing of first importance and no true follower of Him places bread first—And then Christ hated evil and no one can claim to love Him in his Righteousness, unless the spirit burns and the eye flashes at the sight of evil. On all moral questions the Christian man may show how closely he follows Christ by the attitude he takes. Then, we add to this the fact that Christ went about doing good and in his steps the true follower must never walk, at our right hand and at our left are souls carrying their burden of sin and difficulty. Some are so ashamed that they are afraid to look up, but you and I may come to them and put hope and courage into their heart and send them out to act a man's part—Christ served and his follower must serve. If on some of these back streets some minister as he engages in pastoral work were to enter some poor house and find that some prominent woman had thrown aside her silks and was nursing a sick child while its mother slept, or perhaps was down upon her knees scrubbing the floor, I can imagine I hear the pastor say: Praise God, there is one true follower of the meek and lowly Son of God. If I heard that to-morrow morning some man with wealth, had gone to some poor fellow who for months had been out of work and said "My brother I sympathize with you, I could not sleep because I thought of you: Come! I think I can help you. If I could hear of something like that I would have an impression that a revival had commenced in at least one heart.

"Come to Jesus," is the word of invitation which over and over again we give to a sinful world, but do we always use it intelligently? Come to Him for forgiveness, and mercy and peace, come to Him for these, for with Him alone are they found; but come also to Him who served and suffered and sacrificed. The way He takes is rough and blood stained and to this way he calls every one of us to-night.—"Come," says He follow Me.

Invalid Ladies This Is For You.

There are thousands of females who suffer untold miseries common to their sex.

This is largely due to the peculiar habits of life and fashion, and the improper training of girlhood. Then, too, the physical changes that mark the three eras of womanhood (the maiden, the wife, and the mother) have much to do with her sufferings, most of which are endured in silence, unknown by even the family physician and most intimate friends.

To all such whose hollow cheeks, pale faces, sunken eyes and feeble footsteps, indicate nervousness, palpitation of the heart, weak, faint and dizzy spells, we would earnestly recommend a course of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

Mrs. Jos. Sharp, Brighton, Ont., writes: "I was troubled with palpitation of the heart, weak spells and nervous trouble, and found no relief until advised to try Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. I got one box and that helped me so much I sent and got five more. I am now cured completely."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50c. per box or three boxes for $1.25, at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

George Cresceus (2 yrs) 2.28 1-4

Something about the great Cresceus King of trotters and Sire of George Cresceus

In the first place there is the fact that Cresceus is Cresceus. His name leads, when the balance, outweighs those of all the other trotting stallions "whose name the golden tongue of fame has uttered." His deeds, his achievements—they are household words wherever equine speed is known or prized. The gap that separates him from all others of his gait and sex is so wide that it is, in very truth, the case of "Eclipse first and the rest nowhere," over again. It is unnecessary to stop and enumerate his long list of world's records. Everybody knows them by heart. For one great thing that any other trotting stallion has ever done, he can show a dozen greater. His crown is thickly gemmed with stars, but one of which would be sufficient to confer celebrity on any other horse. With him they are only parts of a "stupendous whole"—a greatness so colossal as to be without precedent or parallel. He was—or is—not alone a speed marvel; but also a giant in strength, a lion in courage, a phenomenon in consistency and wearing power. In the sum of their attributes, some horses—as some men—seem to transcend the limits which nature, as we conceive it, has set. Of these is Cresceus. Every one readily admits this. It can not be denied. And out of it all stands this one important fact that he is a stallion—THE ONLY STALLION THAT EVER HAS HELD THE WORLD'S TROTTING RECORD.

George Cresceus 42246, whose 2--year--old cut appears above, is a handsome chestnut horse of splendid conformation, Sired by Cresceus and is gaited and looks like his noted Sire. He holds the Provincial 2 year old trotting record mile heats for 1907 which he won at Halifax after a few weeks training, thus proving that "blood will tell." Below are some remarks made by the Halifax papers about this fine colt when he raced there.

"The big share of the stake went to the chestnut colt from Charlottetown George Cresceus no Cresceus 2.02¼ the champion trotting stallion of the world, and George bears a MARKED RESEMBLANCE to his noted sire. "The Cresceus Colt had the speed of the quartette. The Cresceus colt's speed again gave him the lead. The Halifax Chronicle Oct 1907.

After the second heat there was nothing to it but the Fredricton mare and the [illegible] of the great Cresceus whose SUPERIOR BREEDING seemed to tell in the two final heats which he captured in rather easy style. The Halifax Herald Oct 1907.

At Charlottetown against a field of six Commodore trotters and pacers (half mile heats) he beat the whole field by many lengths, except the pacer Arena Bell which he forced to go to the wire in 1.20 in the he f mile heat

OAKLEY BARON, 42984. Record 2.23.

Oakley Baron made his record of 2.23 as a four year old on a half mile track and in a seven heat race which he won He is so well and favorably known a full description is needless, further than to say: He is conceded to be the handsomest, best bred and one of the fastest trotting stallions in Maritime Canada. He is a show horse, having won first prize at the Charlottetown Exhibitions in 1906 and 1907. He is also a sire of winners in the show ring. Some of his foals (the first crop were shown at exhibition last fall and won first, second and third money, the judge remarking that they were the best lot he ever judged. They resemble the sire in size and color with indications of early speed, big handsome colts with trotting action. He will make the season of 1908 at the old stand, McKinley Bros., warehouse, Great George Street. Fee $15.00 secured by note at first service due Nov. 1st, 1908. Liberal discount for cash.
