THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Offices in New Prowse Block—Charlottetown.

The latest news, first of all.
Rev George Millar, Cornwall, will preach on the York circuit on Sunday next.

The September Canadian Magazine contains an article by Ida Burwash on The Struggle for Prince Edward Island.

Miss Bertha M. James, Midgell, has returned home after spending a pleasant visit at Kensington and Hunter River.

Weston Peake of the Royal Bank at London, Ontario, who has been home in Charlottetown for his holidays leaves on return this morning.

H. H. Hamilton, Sackville, who was connected with the Y. M. C. A. in this city has been appointed Secretary of the Y. M. C. A. in Hamilton, Ont.

Arthur Saunders, of the Anglo-American Telegraph Co., at Sackville, returned yesterday from a three weeks vacation with friends in Charlottetown and vicinity.

On Sunday evening next the choir of the Vernon River Methodist Church will render a service of praise. Those who had the privilege of listening to them last year will wish to be present again.

Alfred and Mrs Trainor, City, have left on a holiday trip to the Magdalen Islands and Bay Fortune. During Mr Trainor's absence from his barber business Harry James, the well known Commercial man, is supplying.

The Fourth Regiment Rifle Association will hold a prize shoot on Monday morning at nine o'clock in conjunction with the other shoots. There will be three or four classes, with prizes in each, depending on the number of entries.

A correspondent from Annandale writes: "The farmers are busily engaged harvesting the abundant crop of grain.—John Howlett, one of our progressive farmers has gone on a pleasure trip to New York and Boston where he will visit friends and relatives. Miss Amanda Dingwell and her brother Judson of Bay Fortune were visiting here, the guests of Miss Lilia Dingwell. Miss Jennie Norton has returned home after spending a few days at Dingwell Mills. Miss Lulu Jenkins, a graduate of the Charlottetown Business College, intends leaving for Ottawa shortly, where she expects to get a position as stenographer. Miss Emma Dingwell and Miss Grace Jenkins of Durrell spent Sunday in Annandale, the guests of Miss Pearl A. Farlane. Adolphus Taylor is building a new house near the site of the one which was burned last winter.

In Prowse Bros southern window the fur display of last week has been supplemented with another lot of furs of the same make and quality—the famous Labrador Mink. It is certainly one of the finest ever seen in the city—and the magnificent quality of the goods, along with the most reasonable prices, is remarkable. The costumes shown in the window have also been changed, and there are on exhibit a few of the well known Summer make, handled on Prowse Bros use. One of these is priced $40.00, and is one of the most elegant in every detail. When one compares the range of suits that ranges from $12.00 to $40.00, some idea can be formed of the enormous range of ready to wear costumes Prowse Bros carry. Their window is a credit to the firm, and a treat to the towns people who daily have admired it, and then chosen from the range for their winter furs or suits.

An exceedingly pretty home wedding took place yesterday morning when Miss Elizabeth, youngest daughter of J. J. Chappell, Hillsboro St., became the wife of Reginald G. Taylor, son of G. H. and Mrs Taylor, Prince Street. The ceremony was performed by Rev E. Bell, of York Avenue, in the parlour of the bride's home, very winsome in a gown of pale blue satin with large black picture hat. The wedding march was played by Miss Cora Paton, only the immediate friends and relatives being present. A dainty wedding breakfast was served after which the popular young couple, amid showers of rice, confetti and good wishes, left on a bridal tour to Halifax. Beautiful wedding gifts were received. Mr and Mrs Taylor will reside in their pretty new home on Upper Prince Street and it is the wish of the popular friends that they may be a life of happiness and prosperity. The Guardian offers heartfelt congratulations.

Miss Bessie McKay, City, is visiting in Stanley Bridge the guest of Miss Lena Nicholson.
On Sunday next, Sept. 4th, Principal J. D. Seaman will preach at Fownall at 11 and 7 and at Millview at 2.30.
The property known as Mrs Catherine McNeill's farm at Rose Valley, Lot 67, is for sale as will be seen by ad in this issue.
On Sunday afternoon Sept 4th, Rev D. B. McLeod will take the service at Cherry Valley Methodist Church, exchanging with Rev Geo Orman.
A sample of the Tussock Moth so prevalent in this city, was picked up on the street Tuesday by J. P. McCloskey and sent to this office.
Mrs. John Levens, Everett, Mass., and three children, who have been visiting the former's mother, Mrs. Joseph Clark, city, have returned home.
Ernest G. Drake, left on return to Wasech, Sask., yesterday morning after a pleasant two months holiday at his old home in Waterside, Pownal.
Mrs M. G. Dickieson and Miss Ethel Dickieson, who have been visiting here the guests of Mrs Williams, Sydney St., left yesterday morning for their home in Ottawa.
J. J. Gay & Son, Every Day market have an interesting ad in this issue which should be read by all housekeepers who are preparing for the pickling season.
The star attraction for the season will be the play in the Opera House on the evening of Labor Day, when the Prince Edward Dramatic Club will surpass all previous efforts in the production of one of the most charming dramas ever presented here. Vocal selections by Mr Berry and Miss Blanchard will undoubtedly make this occasion one of exceptional enjoyment.
The city rifle championship, for which a valuable cup was last year purchased and which was won by Lieut. E. McNutt, will this year be competed for on Labor Day morning at nine o'clock. It will be shot for in two stages. The first stage will be two eighters and seven shots each at 200, 500 and 600 yards. The second stage, the date for which will be decided on Monday, will be two eighters and ten rounds each at 800 and 900 yards. The cup will be on display in the McKinnon Drug Co's window.
