A paragraph in one of the local papers lately stated that a number of the Orangemen, of Trenton, New Glasgow, etc., were planning to go to Charlottetown on the Twelfth. This is not altogether correct. There are some natives of the Island in Trenton and New Glasgow who are going over on a visit on account of the vacation season, and the cheap rate of travel. That is all. The great majority of Orangemen will celebrate the twelfth with their brethren at Westville.—New Glasgow Ex.

The death occurred at Hermitage on July 2nd of Philip J. Lane after a lingering and painful illness which was borne with Christian patience. The deceased was the eldest son of the late Josiah Lane and was a man of sterling character dying happy in the thought of a Home above where there is neither pain nor sorrow. Besides a sorrowing wife and aged mother, four brothers and four sisters remain to mourn. The funeral which was largely attended took place at Pownal Cemetery, the Rev. E. E. Styles officiating.

Miss Minnie Kelly, city, daughter of Michael and Mrs. Kelly, Fitzroy Street, has arrived in this city from Vancouver, B. She speaks well of the West and intends returning in about two months to resume her duties. Miss Kelly met many P. E. Islanders in Vancouver and thought it a pleasing feature of a trip across the continent that one could meet and greet a large number of the sons and daughters of their native soil so far distant from the "Garden of the Gulf."
