WHEN NEWS IS NEWS.—Esteemed correspondents are reminded that a daily newspaper is not a book of history, and are requested to send in news for publication within at least a week of their happening. The Guardian has unfortunately had to turn down recently several reports of important news, which have reached us long after the event occurred. "News while it is news" is the slogan.—11.

THE BAPTIST CHURCH.—The fifth and concluding sermon in a series on Great Doctrines of the Church will be delivered at the morning service by Rev. H. L. Denton, B. Th., B. D., with the subject "Did the Resurrection really happen?" The Church School meets as usual at 2:30 P. M. The senior groups have their session from 12 to 12:30. A mass meeting for men will be held under the sponsorship of the Junior Brotherhood at 4 P. M. All men over 15 are invited to hear Dr. B. C. Keeping, Deputy Minister of Health in his address on Social Diseases. The Charlottetown Male Chorus will have charge of the music. At the evening service, which opens at 8:15 P. M. the Male Choir will lead in the music, opening with a congregational song service. The Rev. H. L. Denton speaks on "When foundations fall." Attention is called to the personal conference period each Thursday afternoon from 3 to 6 o'clock in the Church Study, with door on Fitzroy Street. Mr. Denton will be glad to meet any who wish to take advantage of this service.

ISLAND NURSE RECEIVES APPOINTMENT.—Friends in Charlottetown and vicinity will be pleased to hear that Miss Marion C. Rodd, R. N., formerly a resident in this city, has been appointed to a position as nurse in the Red Cross Hospital at Key-que on the west coast of Vancouver Island. The hospital in question is one recently opened by the Red Cross Society of Vancouver, and is modern in every respect. It is situated in the Van-couver World carried a likeness of the above young nurse and some very complimentary remarks about her appointment. She graduated from the Goddard Hospital, Brockton, Mass., in 1927.

DIES IN PLANE CRASH.—Charles Heber-Percey was killed on January 23rd when his plane crashed after taking off from the British aircraft carrier Glorious. Pilot Heber-Percey is the only son of Capt. Neville Heber-Percey, who together with his son, have spent several summers in Prince Edward Island at their bungalow at Bay Fortune. Charles who was about 19 years of age, joined the Royal Air Force after leaving here last summer and was assigned to the aircraft carrier Glorious which was on duty patrol around Malta when the accident occurred. He is a cousin of the Duke of Northumberland.

TO NEW QUARTERS.—Mr. G. F. Hutcheson will be in his new quarters on Monday, January 31st, at 53 Grafton Street just below the Prince Edward Theatre. This building was built specially for clinical work and with some changes being made the building will be adapted perfectly to Mr. Hutcheson's growing optometrical business. It is over 35 years since Mr. Hutcheson opened business at the present place in the Desbri-les building. This is a long time to stay in one place, which goes to show what persistency and service will take place. The newspaper also has played an important part in the success of this business. An announcement appears in this issue and the Guardian wishes Mr. Hutcheson continued success in his new quarters.

TRINITY UNITED CHURCH.—Services on Sunday will be conducted by the Minister, Rev. Hugh Miller, M. A., B. D., will preach in the morning. The sermon subject being "Shallows and Deepes". At the evening service the installation of Stewards will take place. The music will be Simpson's Anthem "I Will Feed My Flock." Sunday School and the usual classes will be held at the usual hour 2:30 P. M. In the evening Rev. E. MacKenzie, B. A., will preach and it will be a special Young People's Service, the sermon subject being "The Discharging of Our Duty" will be the Re-Dedication of the Y.P.U. Officers will take place. A Young People's choir will lead the singing and a special number, a duet will be given by Mrs. T. Roy Cudmore and Miss Thelma Burns.

Funeral Today.—The funeral of the late Mrs. Joseph Noonan, Albany, will take place from her late residence on Saturday morning at 10 o'clock at the St. James Church, leaving the house at 9 o'clock.

DR. P. A. CREELMAN will be absent from the Sanatorium from January 29th to February 21st. Clinics at the Sanatorium, Friday afternoon and Saturday morning and in Summerside the third Thursday of the month will be carried on as usual. L-228-1-29-11.

GOING TO NEW YORK.—Dr. P. A. Creelman is going to New York City to attend an Institute for Tuberculosis Workers, January 31 to February 12, 1938. This course is conducted by the National Tuberculosis Association connected with the Division General Education New York University. Dr. Creelman is a member of the Health Association. In addition while Dr. Creelman is away he plans on visiting the Sanatorium in New York and Boston, and expects to be away three or four weeks.

Called to Higher Service.—On Monday evening January 10 a second Class Scout, Lloyd Oatway, passed on to Higher Service. He had been an enthusiastic member of the 1st, Borden Troop 31, for several years and during this time had earnestly endeavored to live up to the principles of Scouting.

The Provincial Council together with the 1st, Borden Troop, extended their deepest sympathy to the parents of the late Scout Oatway.

Recently we have had a pleasant visit from Mr. Putman, retired Manager of the Royal Bank of Canada at Sackville. Mr. Putman spends the summer at Eldon and has been instrumental in the organization of a Scout Troop in his district. He is very interested in Scouting and has been actively connected with the movement for some years.

1st. Borden Scout Troop.—The late Scout Oatway was buried at Searstown on January 13th. The funeral service was conducted at the house by Rev. Mr. R. Barker. The Scouts led the procession and were followed by the Girl Guides. School children and teachers. They marched as far as the railway crossing where they lined up on each side of the road as the remains passed.

Mount Stewart.—We are expecting a Scout Troop in this community in the near future. We have several persons who are willing to act on the Group Committee and a capable person to act as Scoutmaster. The Provincial Council is very interested in the progress in this district and is looking forward to the organization of a Scout Troop.

1st. Cardigan Troop.—This Troop has recently been visited by Headquarters and are showing wonderful progress in Scouting. There is considerable interest in the Scout Movement in this district and the Group is increasing rapidly and now consists of a Scout Troop and a Cub Pack. The boys are all looking forward to the Provincial Camp this summer and especially to attending the Jamboree.

1st. Cardigan Group Committee.—The Group Committee from this Group appears to be very active and are giving great support to the leaders. They have been instrumental in obtaining a Headquarters for the Scouts and have given good encouragement that a Cub Pack is now formed.

1st. Cardigan Cub Pack.—This Pack held their initial meeting last Saturday when a representative from Headquarters was present and assisted in the organization. Andrew MacDonald who is very interested in this work for the younger boys. At the first meeting the Cubs learned the Grand Howl, Cub Salute, a number of other Cub activities, and enjoyed several games. At present the Pack consists of two complete Sixes but the interest taken by the boys shows that there will be a rapid increase in the numbers.

Broadcast of Speech by the Chief Scout.—The Canadian Broadcasting Corporation is arranging to broadcast Lord Tweedsmuir's speech to the Canadian General Council of the Boy Scouts Association, from

Scout News and Notices

Community Rover Scout Crew.—The newly formed Rover Crew will meet at the Rovers Den, 181 Great George St., on Tuesday, February 1st, at 7:30 p. m. All members and any others who are interested are asked to attend.

Gilwell.—Headquarters is making a strenuous effort to have a Scouters Gilwell in the province this summer. The dates of the camp are from July 12th till July 22nd. We expect some of the Dominion Headquarters staff to be on hand, also Scout Leaders from New Brunswick and part of Nova Scotia will attend. Scout Leaders in our province are advised to take this wonderful opportunity of adding this Course to their Scouting knowledge. Application forms are now being prepared at Provincial Headquarters and are obtainable by any leaders who are desirous of taking the course.

1st. Montague Troop.—This Troop has recently been visited by Headquarters and as the Scoutmaster was unable to present, the meeting was presided over by Scoutmaster Mr. Archie. The Scouts appeared very interested in the program of the Troop. They are intending to have a large attendance at the Jamboree and are eagerly awaiting the camping season.

1st. Montague Cub Pack.—This Troop had their first meeting on Friday January 21. The reason for not holding meetings at an earlier date is that a suitable Headquarters was not to be found. However, through the work of a group committee the Pack obtained the use of the High School, and are now holding weekly meetings under the leadership of Mr. Allister Currie.

1st. Montague Group Committee.—A meeting of the Group Committee was held on Friday evening January 21. At this meeting a large number were present including the Executive Secretary, Mr. Gordon Hyde, who has been doing Scout work in the district. Mr. McLaughlin, the chairman of the committee for the ensuing year was re-elected.

1st. Georgetown Sea Scouts.—This section has been added to the group in Montague within the past few weeks and has been formed by obtaining as their "Skipper," Dr. Johnson, and Mr. R. K. Cements as First Mate. This ship's company is composed largely of boys who have already passed in Scouting and have shown an interest in the movement. With the addition of the Rovers, 11. Montague Group is now complete and consists of Scouts, Cubs, and Rovers. The Provincial Council takes this opportunity of extending the best wishes to the newly organized Rovers.

1st. Georgetown Group.—On Monday evening a very enthusiastic meeting in connection with the organization of a group in Georgetown was held. The group consists of an energetic Rover Scout Crew and a Scout Troop. There was a large representation of the Group Committee and all the members appear very interested in Scouting. The Group Committee seems very active and appears to be well organized. The Chairman of the Committee is Wm. Doyle. He is planning to hold a meeting in the near future to see whether the group is making suitable progress and reports will be submitted by the Rover Leader and the Scoutmaster.

1st. Georgetown Troop.—The Provincial Council takes this opportunity of extending the best wishes and good luck to this newly formed Troop. There is a number of Scouts in this Troop who appear very interested in this work and are eagerly looking forward to the camping season and especially towards attending our annual Provincial Scout Camp and the Jamboree. The Troop is in charge of the Scoutmaster, Mr. Donovan and Assistant Scoutmasters Bud Doyle and Buster Jenkins. We have every reason to believe that this Troop will advance rapidly and be one of our leading Troops.

1st. Georgetown Rover Scout Crew.—This Crew was formed last Monday evening and consists of a number of very interesting young men. The Crew is under the capable leadership of Mr. Wm. Doyle as Rover Leader and Mr. J. Macdonald as Assistant Rover Leader. The Rovers are planning on attending the Rover Moot in full strength and are looking forward to the summer activities. These Rovers are entering into the game with a real Scout spirit and will "Do Their Best" to make a really successful Crew.

1st. Souris Group.—This Troop had not been holding regular meetings but, however, held meetings whenever possible and a considerable interest is shown in the Troop. The Troop is under the leadership of Basil Johnson and is progressing favorably. The Troop is intending to attend the Jamboree and the Provincial Camp this summer. This Group is also considering the formation of a Wolf Cub Pack which should prove a valuable asset in bringing boys into Scouting. The Troop has a very large number and they are planning to have instructions in test work and also practice in demonstrating work in preparation for the Jamboree.

2nd. Charlottetown Scout Troop.—This Troop will hold a meeting on Monday evening and all the Scouts are asked to be present. The Troop will endeavor to make some equipment for the test work and are planning to start their preparation for the Jamboree. Any who wish to be considered eligible of representing this Troop at the opening of the camp site must be present at this meeting and be prepared to do their best in the competition work and demonstrations which will be required for the Jamboree.
