BEANS AND BROWN BREAD! Where? Zion Church Hall. When? Saturday of course, Feb. 23rd. 2599-2-16M31.

P. S. S. CONCERT.—Among the pleasant features of the Prince Street School Concert recorded Saturday, was a recitation by little Margaret Essery, which was greatly enjoyed. This young performer who is only six years of age is a great favorite and had to respond to an insistent encore which she did most winsomely.

PRESENTATION.—Messrs. Hugh MacDonald of Nine Mile Creek, and Martin MacDonald of Rice Point representing their sections of the congregation under the pastorate of the Rev. D. MacLean waited upon him last week and in the name and on behalf of the people presented him with a valuable sleigh robe a pair of driving mitts and a whip. The present was entirely unexpected and it was only on the preceding evening the young men made up their minds to secure them. The people cheerfully responded with the above result. During the last twenty-five years they have given many valuable gifts to him and it is a great pleasure to find that although many who contributed to former presents have passed into the Eternal world, that the young are exhibiting the same benevolent spirit. The recipient of these gifts asked the representatives to convey his hearty felt thanks to all who contributed of their means for his comfort.

THE MORNING GUARDIAN may be had at the News and Variety Store, 70 Great George St., opposite St. Dunstan's Cathedral.

BEAN SUPPER—Follow the crowd and come to the bean supper in Zion church Hall Saturday, Feb. 23rd. 2599-2-16M31.

CHESS TOURNAMENT.—President T. B. Woodman has called a meeting of chessmen together at the Club Rooms, Royal Bank Building, Tuesday evening the 19th to arrange for the Dr. Ross Enchanted Trophy. This trophy has been won once by five different members, and must be won twice before becoming the final property of any competitor. Great interest is therefore being taken in the competitors this year. Last year the tournament commenced on Monday, Feb. 26th, and it is thought quite like these match games will commence next Monday night the 27th at Club rooms. These competitions are held chiefly to create an interest in the Royal Game of brains and strategy, and any citizens who would like to learn the game, will be made welcome and members are only too pleased to show the moves, and give instructions. This special meeting is called for 8 o'clock Tuesday night.

Teutons Facing Difficult Problem

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—Diplomatic observers here say Germany is confronted with the most difficult and unprecedented problem she has met during the present war as a result of the declaration that Russia has abandoned hostilities without the signing of a peace treaty. The refusal of the Russians to sign any treaties alienating the Russian western provinces, the diplomats point out, will leave the Central Powers without any legal claim to their possession. German and Austrian tenure will rest entirely upon the assertion of force, without international law, and consequently must be subject to the decision of whatever form of tribunal finally determines the basis of general peace. The one clear thing in the whole situation from a military point of view, is that the struggle has narrowed down to the western front, of which the Italian theatre already has been officially recognized as a portion by the allied chiefs. The final test of arms is to come on that front.

Salvation Army Tag Day and Street Collection :: Feb. 23rd. COMMISSIONER RICHARDS appeals for $20,000 Which is Urgently Needed for the Upkeep and Extension of The Army's War-Time Work Amongst the Canadian Troops

Throughout Canada a Tag Day and Street Collection is to be held in every city and town where The Army is established. The date of this effort has been fixed for FEBRUARY 23rd. The object is to raise money for our War Work, the needs of which must appeal to every Canadian. Just what is being done for our boys overseas will be evident from the following statement:—

REST HUTS FOR CANADIANS

Rest Huts are being operated for and used exclusively by Canadian troops, as follows: Great Britain: Bramshot (near Haslemere), 2 Huts; Witley (Milford), 3 West Sandling, 1; East Sandling 1, St. Martin's Plain (Shorncliffe), 1; Diggate Plain, 1; Seaford, 1; Shoreham-by-Sea, 1. France: Hut at Base Camp (Havre). Another at Etampes. The huts at Seaford and Shoreham are what may be termed double Huts, meaning that there is one Hut for recreation and refreshments and another for meetings. At the other places there is one Hut which is for refreshments and recreation at certain times, but which is on frequent occasions used for meetings.

In addition to the above three large marquees have been sent over to France by International Headquarters and are under the charge of Chaplain-Captain Steele.

WHAT THE HUTS STAND FOR

While this goes some of the way towards describing in actual terms a little that has been accomplished, the greater, vaster, and more valuable work can never be expressed, since so very much of Salvation Army force is active in spirit. A lad enters an Army Hut with the ostensible purpose of purchasing a cup of cocoa. He is away from home for the first time; he is missing many things which have made up his life. Now, when needed most of all, for he is up against terrible odds, he knows they are out of reach; so he comes to pay his penny for cocoa and to receive the gift of a friendly smile from The Army Adjutant's wife. That the Adjutant should find time to sit at his table for just a minute appears quite natural, that the boy should tell him something of what is in his heart, quite the simplest thing in the world; that the Adjutant should guess a lot more and say a lot more than words can make plain, all happens in the most ordinary way; and that the boy should leave the Hut with a new elasticity in his stride and a firm tili to his chin is what The Army expects, for our optimistic ministry aims at making men—good men!

SERVING THE SERVICE MEN

If You Want to Know What The Salvation Army's War-Time Work is in a Wider Sense, Here are a Few Items

Huts, Homes, etc., for Soldiers at some 100 Centres in England, thousands of men helped daily. Numerous Homes and Agencies for Soldiers in Northern France. Work amongst the Forces in Canada. Egypt, Malta, South Africa, Australia, New Zealand, India, Ceylon (thirty-four Salvation Army Officers are officially appointed as Chaplains.) Visitation of wounded in French and English Hospitals by Women Officers doing the work. The Army's Motor Ambulance Cars and Officers. Canteens and Lodging-Houses for Employes at Munition Works. Officers Tracing the Missing on the Continent, and Caring for Relatives visiting their dying men. Food and Clothing for Prisoners of War in Germany. Rest Rooms for Troops at Railway Stations. The Army's fifteen permanent Naval and Military Homes, where thousands of Service men are cared for. Organized Visitation of Soldiers' Wives and other dependents.

SALVATION ARMY CHAPLAINS

Out of the thirty-four Chaplains mentioned above six are with the Canadians. They are as follows: Captain Steele, now at the Front in Flanders; Adjutant Penfold, Bramshot Camp (England); Adjutant Carroll, at the Base in France; Major McGillivray, London (England); Major Walton, London (England); and Staff-Captain White, Exhibition Camp (Toronto.) All of these Officers are doing devoted service amongst our Boys in Khaki, caring for their temporal and spiritual welfare, advising and helping them in their temporal affairs, and doing all in their power to keep them cheerful and straight in spite of the great temptations they are up against.

THIS WORK MUST BE KEPT UP

Heavy expenditures have been incurred in connection with this War-Time Work, and the above-named sum is needed at once. We ask our friends, therefore, to give generously on Tag Day.

RECEPTION TO GR. DOYLE

On Sunday the 10th, instant a reception was tendered the returned Gunner Doyle, and the reunion was of more than usual interest. Gunner Doyle joined the 8th Siege Battery and left with it for the front in the fall of 1915, and crossed to France the following spring. He went through several of the historic actions with that battery. He was wounded at Arras, at the time that five of his comrades were killed and three, including himself, seriously wounded as well as fifty gassed. In a word, the whole section was practically put out of action. Captain Stanley, of Charlottetown was at the time O. C. and was himself severely gassed. Gunner Doyle showed great fortitude in his wounded condition by helping to carry his dying comrades to points of safety and was exceptionally commended in letters home from other boys at the time. He was himself severely wounded in the leg and back and went to England, where he has been in the Hospital until three weeks ago. He is the first of the large English Contingent which responded to the Nation's call, to return home with the badges of honor in the shape of the wound he bears. His welcome home was in consequence all the more enthusiastic.

He also expressed a wish that he might become far enough recovered to be able to return to his comrades at the front.
