Peters Road And Vicinity

Beautiful weather! With the warmth of sunshine prevailing, may the Giver all good also send us copious showers so that vegetation may be refreshed and the fields yield their increase and may the heart of man rejoice in thankfulness for all His favors.

Mr. J. L. McKinnon has had his residence and store thoroughly cleaned and disinfected in the most approved way, following the convalescence of his family from scarlet fever.

Taken all over the consensus of opinion is that a most favorable season in the lobster fishing industry has been successfully concluded.

Among the arrivals from the U. S. to their native province, Mrs. Harry Jenkins, (nee Miss Irene McLean), of Watertown, Mass., is spending her vacation at her home, Peter's Road, with her parents Mr. and Mrs. W. L. McLean. Accompanying Mrs. Jenkins was an acquaintance—Miss Winnie McLeod, a former resident of P. E. I., but now with her family residing in Watertown. Miss McLeod, who is at present visiting relatives and friends in Cardigan and vicinity, will renew many old acquaintances during her vacation here.

Mr. J. C. McLean, teacher, Peter's Road, who was absent from the district during the time the school was closed as a result of scarlet fever, has returned to resume his labors, and is endeavoring to rally his scattered forces into formation in the school-room.

Certain low-lying parts of our improved roads are being treated to a generous ballasting with gravel, which should have the effect of holding them firm during the muddiness.

Mr. Tyler Beck, Boston, with party—Mrs. George Luco and daughter, Miss Stella, motored from the places named to their old homes at Alliston, Montague and Greek River, where they will spend their vacations during the summer months.

Some of our motorists seem to be of extraordinary haste or their business must be very important ahead, for in their flying carnival, they raise dense clouds of dust, polluting the air, and spurning every other weaker mortal in their "race for life." Others have much consideration for the public. And others, like the ship the poet talks about, "pass in the night."

Strong opposition in Australia to the proposed government tax on gasoline to raise road-improvement funds is expected to defeat the plan.

ADDRESS AND PRESENTATIONS

On Monday evening June 24th, the residents of York gathered at the home of Dr. MacDonald to bid him farewell and wish him Godspeed, on the eve of his departure for his new field of labour at Mt. Stewart. The meeting was called to order by the chairman, Mr. B. R. Brown, and the following address to Mrs. McDonald was read by Miss Eliza Vessey.

Mrs. (Dr.) J. C. McDonald: Dear Sister of Alpha Ins.

We have learned with regret that you are leaving our community to make your home in Mt. Stewart.

Our best wishes for happiness and prosperity be with you to your new home and environment. We will miss the kindly, gracious influence of your presence at our meetings and will miss also this home in which we found hospitality and friendship freely offered to our society. To yourself and the Dr. we at this time of separation tender our grateful thanks for the good influence you have exerted in behalf of our community life. Your ideal has been uplifting, emphasized by geniality and thoughtful expression and we have found pleasure and profit in our mutual discussions.

The members of your family, born and nurtured amongst us will cherish as those of our own. To them York will in the memories of years to come always be home. To us they will always be ours, our young people, and our sympathetic thoughts will follow them through life.

Like "Ships that pass in the Night"

—we meet and pass on our trust—to find safe harbor together on the great landing place Eternal, Immovable, where tears are wiped away and where partings are unknown. We present you with this remembrance of our meetings with you in Alpha Ins. Signed, Executive.

Mrs. Milton Vessey then presented her with a beautiful jardiniere on behalf of the Women's Institute. The address to Dr. MacDonald, read by Rev. Mr. Boothroyd was as follows. Dr. J. C. McDonald, York.

Dear Doctor:

As you are shortly to leave this community to take up your residence in another part of the province, the people of York and the members of the York Rifle Club take this opportunity of expressing our regret at your departure, and paying tribute to your work and worth as a physician and as a resident.

During your twenty years practice here, you have won the respect and esteem of all. As a physician, you were necessarily brought into close contact with our people, you had an opportunity of gaining a deep insight into our character and into our family life, and we can truthfully say you have never once betrayed the confidence which has been invariably placed in you.

As a highly qualified, conscientious and devoted physician, you have won a warm place in our hearts, and many a home which was under the shadow of a serious illness has been made happier and brighter as a result of your skill and attention.

The members of the York Rifle Club of which you have been captain for a number of years, appreciate your untiring efforts on behalf of this organization. You have shown an active and most commendable interest in education, whilst every movement tending to advance the welfare of this district has had your effective and enthusiastic support. We have no doubt that in your new field of labor your splendid qualities as a professional man, and as a true gentleman, will receive the same appreciation as they have received here. As a token of our regard for you and as a souvenir of the many years you have passed among us, we ask you to accept the accompanying gift together with the sincere wish that happiness and prosperity may attend you and yours in your new home.

Signed on behalf of the York Rifle Club and the York District. PETER BRODIE, EBENEZER BROWN, LEMUEL CROCKET, MILTON F. VESSEY.

Mr. Lemuel Crockett and Mr. Milton Vessey then presented the Doctor, in behalf of the people of York and the Rifle Club, with a Morris office chair, also a pipe, presented by Mr. Peter Brodie. Short speeches were made by Rev. Mr. Boothroyd, Mr. Peter Brodie, Mr. Milton Vessey, and the chairman. The Dr. Made a suitable reply, especially referring to the pleasant associations he had enjoyed while in York. After singing For They are Jolly Good Fellows, the ladies served a dainty lunch and the rest of the evening was spent in music and games.
