ST. VERONICA'S GUILD

The regular meeting of St. Veronica's Guild was held in the Morris house on December 15th with fifteen members present.

The president presided and the meeting was opened with prayer followed by the roll call and the minutes of the previous meeting.

Treasurer's report showed a balance of $116.74. Minutes of meetings held by the Jeanne MacKenzie Guild of Charlottetown, N. B., were read.

Reports were heard from the sick and sewing committees, the latter committee reported that three dozen articles have been made since the previous meeting.

St. Hugh directress of the Guild was asked to conduct a sewing class for the Junior members in January. Mrs. Revell was appointed to interview Father Baldwin regarding Study Clubs to be held after Christmas.

It was moved and seconded that $500 be donated to Social Service for Christmas and also that $10.00 be donated to the Children's Ward for Christmas gifts and decorations.

The lottery tickets were drawn by St. Hugh. 1st prize, (fruit cake) was won by Mrs. C. L. MacDonald, 211 King Street. 2nd prize (1 pair Nyons) won by Gerald MacAdam, 1000 St. John's. 3rd prize (1 box chocolates) was won by Gertrude Scully.

After the business meeting a very informative talk was given by St. Hugh on a recent Laboratory Course she had taken in Ottawa; also on the operation of a central dressing room system which we hope to see materialize in our new wing.

After the meeting was adjourned a delicious lunch was served by the committee in charge.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of my dear brother Peter Charles McMahon, who was killed December 22nd, 1944.

I often sit and think of you
When I am all alone
For memory is the only friend
That I can call my own.

Thy voice is gone forever,
And your face I cannot see
But the heart that always loved you
Is the heart that can't forget.

Ever Remembered and Sadly Missed
By His Sister, Mrs. Walter Connick, Kinkora.

United States sports writers named Byron Nelson, Toledo golfer, winner of the year four years ago today. The 32-year-old shotmaker averaged fewer than 70 strokes for 78 rounds of big-time tournament play and became the second golfer to win the title. He was preceded by Gene Sarazen in 1932.

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. JAMES McTAGUE

On Oct. 13, the angel of death visited the home of James McTague, Iona, and whispered in the ear of his wife, "Come the Master Calath", and at the age of 70 years she went to her eternal home.

The deceased had been in failing health for some time and in spite of all that medical science and loving care could accomplish, her condition progressively grew worse until on the above date her soul winged its way to eternity.

During her illness she was frequently visited by her Parish Priest, Father McCarthy, who administered to her the last rites of the Catholic Church, of which she was a faithful follower.

The deceased (nee Annie Connolly) was a woman of fine character, loving and devoted to her family, and vitally interested in all that promoted the advancement of human welfare. Her passing leaves a void that is difficult to fill, but death has removed "the touch of a tender hand and the sound of a voice that is loved."

She leaves to mourn besides her husband, the following children: Mrs. Ray McClary (Josephine), Boston, Mass.; Mrs. William Dougherty (Margaret), Boston, Mass.; Mrs. Walter Krol (Rose), New York; Mrs. Albert Jobert (Mary), Saint John, N.B.; James Wilbur, Pictou, N. S.; and Andrew and Joseph of Iona, also two brothers, John of Iona and Michael of Boston, Mass.

The funeral was held on Oct. 15 to St. Michael's Church, Iona, where a Requiem High Mass was celebrated by the Pastor, Father McCarthy, after which her mortal remains were interred in the adjoining cemetery. The pall bearers were: Harold McCloskey, Sophus Fielan, W. M. MacKenzie, John Connolly, John Rooney, Peter McKenna.

GIANT "PRO"

More than 50 tons of bronze was used recently in casting a new propeller for the giant ocean liner, the Queen Mary.

LEWISTON, Me., Dec. 17 (AP)—Johnny Fortunato said today he had been named a New England Baseball umpire. Last summer, he was umpire in chief of the Halifax and District League.

IN MEMORIAM

1948—MR. DAVID BERNER—1948

Today our thoughts they all go back,
To just five years ago,
When all our smiles were turned to tears

By a sad and bitter blow,
Forget you Father, we never will
We always loved you and always will.

Your memory is as fresh today,
As in the hour you passed away.

Ever Remembered by Wife and Daughters.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 13 (AP)—Joe Louis said today he will demand $250,000 from television and radio rights when he defends his heavyweight title next June in New York.

"I sold myself too cheap in my last fight with Jersey Joe Walcott", the champion told a reporter. "My end from the television and radio was $40,000."

Louis is in Philadelphia for a six-round exhibition bout tomorrow night at Convention Hall with Arturo Godoy of Chile.

The television-radio fee for the Louis-Walcott bout last June 25 was $100,000. The Brown Bomber received $40,000 or 40 per cent, Walcott 22½ per cent.
