Sketch Of Summerside
Unbeaten Maritime Champions
Primrose Sisters

(Special to the Guardian)
Summerside is all agog over the prospect of seeing their favourite hockey team clashing with the winners of the lady champions for Upper Canada on local ice next week.

Summerside and the Province must certainly extend the hand to the Primrose Sisters as unlike their brothers, they have never known defeat.

For some years past women have been taking up new fields of labour, proving they are equal to men in any field of endeavour.

The Crystal Sisters, organized in 1926, were drawn from two ladies teams that had been playing for a year or two in Summerside, known as the Red and White Roses.

The new team whose fame was destined to go far afield was made up of the following ladies. Captain, Miss Fausta MacCullough, daughter of the late Joseph MacCullough, now a registered nurse practicing her profession in the city.

Interested Notes From the Report of That First Game
"Misses Ann Green, Ella Gay and Fausta MacCullough played an exceptionally good game.

"Much credit is due to the special athletic trainer of the Crystal Sisters, Chief Labial-sur-le-Souffle-Violent, who has had special training in the care and handling of children.

"The swift charges by Miss MacCullough were greatly admired."
"Mr. Clifford Montgomery made an efficient and courteous referee."

"For the Red Macs, the Misses Fraught, Benoit, and MacGuigan in the manner in which she played her position as centre, in fact showed some of the male hockey stars just how the position should be played."

"The Crystal Sisters were again declared Island Champions."
In 1928 the Crystal Sisters played both the Abbies and Red Macs from Charlottetown and won both games with 2-1 scores.

"A little later the Crystal Sisters met the Canning Sisters on Summerside ice, the game going to a two overtime period without scoring. The game resolved itself through-out into a strong offensive by the Crystals and a stone wall defensive by the Canning ladies.

Tessie MacNeill was the goalie that year and three new players, Miss Ruth Campbell, now Mrs.

BARNSTORMING
TOUR PLANNED,
IF NO RACE

Owners of Bluenose
Await Word From
Captain Ben Pine Re
Trans Atlantic Race.

(C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)
LUNenburg, N. S., Feb. 28.—If the swift Gloucester schooner Gertrude L. Thebaud is not entered in the proposed trans-Atlantic race this spring, the Bluenose owners will cross the Atlantic alone for a barnstorming tour of British ports.

Shareholders of the Bluenose Schooner Company Limited instructed their directors to interview Captain Ben Pine, one of the Thebauds' owners, regarding the prospects for an ocean race.

Present plans call for a race across from Boston beginning about May 20, a cruise around the British Isles and a race out of Plymouth around Eastern Ireland during the King's Jubilee celebration in August.

The Royal Ocean Racing Club of England has offered to put up a prize for the Plymouth contest, and it has been suggested that the United States and Canada put up prizes for the ocean races.

Discussing the possibility that Captain Pine might not be interested in the series, the Bluenose shareholders decided they could make more money by sending their famous schooner on a barnstorming tour than by putting her out fishing on the Grand Banks.

Wherever Bluenose goes she will be under command of Captain Angus Walters, fiery veteran of schooner racing.

Fuller & Ambers
Battle Tonight
(A.P. By Guardian's Special Wire)
NEW YORK, Feb. 28.—Sammy Fuller, and Lou Ambers, two sterling lightweights, will assault each other in Madison Square Garden tomorrow night in a 15 round bout that has all the earmarks of a fistie "natural."

The bout is important, for the winner is pretty certain to be given a crack next summer at the lightweight crown worn by Chicago's Barney Ross. The champion is under technical disbarment in New York State now as a result of his failure to defend the title, within the customary six months limit, and refusal to accept Ambers' challenge.

Nominated the no. one lightweight challenger by the Chicago and New York fight solons, Fuller and Ambers have been sought for months as a Garden offering. Previously Fuller refused to meet the Herkimer product at the class limit but finally agreed to the match at 135 pounds.

Three tanks filled with the gas were sent to his home, an old red brick town house, late this afternoon. Several empty containers were taken away.

Friends said that the venerable jurist had been ill since last Saturday and reports were that he was stricken with bronchial pneumonia. His physician, Dr. Thomas A. Clayton, merely said: "The justice is ill and his age all illness is serious."

Holmes, who served 29 years on the Supreme Court bench, will be 94 on March 8. He knew President Abraham Lincoln and was thrice wounded in the United States Civil War.

An intimate friend, Felix Frankfurter, Harvard professor, left Boston today for his bedside and with Frankfurter was John G. Palfrey, the jurist's professional and legal representative.

Holmes, whose dissenting opinions often were more famous than the majority ruling, prevailed, left the bench Jan. 12, 1932. Always he was a prodigious worker. His opinions were not only profound in the legal sense but they were so phrased that laymen read many of them as literature. He had the gift of being able to write for his father, Oliver Wendell Holmes, author of "The Autocrat of the Breakfast Table," and other works.

Since the death of his wife several years ago, the justice has availed himself of the Supreme Court bench, he was a veteran judge, having served 20 years in the Supreme Court of Massachusetts. He was born in Boston.

Wembly Lions
Break Monarchs'
Winning Streak

(C. P. Cable)
(LONDON, Feb. 28.—Before an excited crowd of 10,000 at White City Stadium, the speedy Winnipeg Monarchs tonight were defeated for the first time in their invasion of British and European hockey cushions.

Wembly Lions, with six Canadians on the team, handed the Monarchs a 2-0 reverse and were given a tremendous ovation by the crowd for their achievement. A team of heavyweights, the Lions outweighed the Manitobans in every department.

The first period was scoreless. Murphy scored on solo effort in the second session and in the third scored Walton with a pass for a shot which beat Art Rice-Jones.

Monarchs played 40 games before they met defeat in their tour. Twice they were held to a tie however. The first of these was against the club which they defeated in December and on Feb. 17 Paris French-Canadians earned a 5-5 deadlock.

Midget Blues 3

An excellent brand of hockey was displayed at the Crystal rink before the Junior Abbie-Crystal fixture on Wednesday evening, when the Midgets, the Reds and Blues, both promising young teams, battled for honours.

These teams practice every Saturday and in a couple of years, the players will no doubt figure in the High School lineup.

Blues—Goal, Leonce Arsenault; defence, Kenneth Walker, Norman MacLeod; forwards, Stewart MacNeil, Jimmie Woods, Murray Willert, Arthur Allen, Everett MacLellan.

Blues—Goal, John DesRoches; defence, Roy Bostes and Wilfred Mountain; forwards, Ralph Rogers, Lloyd Allen, Stanley Gallant, Douglas Downing, John Lecky.

AGED JURIST
GRAVELY ILL

(A. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—Oliver Wendell Holmes, once the "Great Liberator" of the United States Supreme Court, was so gravely ill tonight that oxygen was being used in an effort to save his life.

Three tanks filled with the gas were sent to his home, an old red brick town house, late this afternoon. Several empty containers were taken away.

Friends said that the venerable jurist had been ill since last Saturday and reports were that he was stricken with bronchial pneumonia. His physician, Dr. Thomas A. Clayton, merely said: "The justice is ill and his age all illness is serious."

GREETED

The "Babe" Warmly
Welcomed to Beau-
town After 15 Years Absence.

(By Bill King, Associated Press Sports Writer)
(A. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)
BOSTON, Feb. 28.—A wild-eyed, cheering mob at the tiny Trinity place railroad station tonight almost lifted the roof as it welcomed Babe Ruth back to Boston after a 15-year absence.

Police kept most of the crowd on the upper level of the station, but several hundreds managed to get down to the incoming train platform where Police Commissioner Eugene H. Mcweeney and Superintendent Martin H. King greeted Ruth.

Mrs. Ruth was presented with a bouquet of roses and hurried to the hotel where the major events of the welcome Babe programme were to be held.

Emil Fuchs, President of Boston Braves, boarded the train at Providence and accompanied the new vice-president and assistant manager of the Boston National League club here.

Ruth and his party finally pushed through the swirling crowd and made their way to an hotel where the Bambino retired to a suite to wash off the stains of travel.

Then he sat down with President Fuchs and Charles Adams, owners of the Braves, to sign the contract that guarantees him a salary of $25,000 for whatever playing he does, $5,000 for his executive work and a share in the club's profits.

(By Mary Elizabeth Plummer, Associated Press Staff Writer)
NEW YORK, Feb. 28.—Babe Ruth's wife, who has cheered his home runs for 15 years, said today that if he becomes manager of Boston Braves in 1936 "he's plenty able to handle the job."

"Shouldn't he go? Haven't I seen him play since the first time I came to New York in 1920?" Mrs. Ruth, who is Babe's dietitian, secretary and accountant, went to Boston with him to sign his new three-year contract with the Braves.

She smiled as some of the boys clapped for Babe at the station, and he waved his brown cap.

"Jiminy!" Babe puffed, when he stopped waving and rubbed his arm.

Mrs. Ruth said she was "well satisfied" with her husband's return to baseball, and that it didn't come as a surprise.

"He got his major league baseball start in Boston, and since he desires to remain in baseball I'm glad to go there—I've always loved Boston. We'll live there while the Braves play their 77 home games, then I'll go on the road with them, to see that Babe gets his sleep."

"He's a big man, but has just one heart, and he gets absolutely no rest unless I watch him."

Johnny Gagnon made it safe for Canucks in the final minute, when he slammed home a relay from Nels Crutchfield and Jack Riley.

Lerc Goldworthy snapped up Arma Mondou's pass at centre-ice and slick-handed through to blast a hard back-hander into the corner for Canadiens first goal.

Rogers Jenkins tallied on a similar play, taking Jerry Carson's pass to sweep past Vernon Ayles and beat Beveridge with ease.

St. Louis started off strong in the second period and Frank Jerwa talked on a near relay from Joe Lamb and Vic Ripley. Canadiens lightened their grip again a minute later with George Mantha combining with brother Silvio to slam home a shot from close range but in the 15th minute of play Pete Kelly picked up a loose puck on the edge of the crease and shoved it into the net before Cude could move.

St. Louis were all up the ice when Gagnon scored.

NEW YORK, Feb. 28.—In a "pre-view" of their possible meeting in National Hockey League playoffs, Montreal Maroons tonight defeated New York Rangers 5-2 at Madison Square Garden in their final meet of the regular season.

Victory gave Maroons the series with three wins, two losses and a tie.

A crowd of 10,000 fans saw Jimmy Ward and Bob Gracie lead Maroons to a repeat of their 3-1 win at Montreal on Tuesday.
