THE GUARDIAN COVERS THE FIELD

The Guardian covers the City and Province within which it is published more fully and completely than any other newspaper printed in Canada.

It is a daily circulation of its morning and rural edition now about 3,000, and growing from day to day, it has broken all records for a daily publication in this community.

Charlottetown has a population of 12,000 and Prince Edward Island has 108,000. The Guardian's daily circulation is therefore as 1 to 14 of population in the city in which it is published, or 1 to 18 of the population of the Province. This is the management believes unequalled by any daily newspaper published in Canada.

Take one or two comparisons with other leading newspapers in other cities and Provinces.

St. John has a population of 40,000 and the Province of New Brunswick 300,000. The Guardian has five newspapers and a million circulation of the morning and evening papers of the Province. Each claims a circulation of about 8,000 or say as 1 to 5 of the population of that city and 1 to 40 of the population of the Province.

Or again: Toronto has a population of about 250,000. The Toronto Globe is the largest Canadian newspaper, however, and covers the world as one of the foremost journals. The Globe's published daily circulation is slightly under 20,000. This is as 1 to 5 of the population of Toronto and 1 to 45 of the population of Ontario.

The point is this that The Guardian covers the field of its circulation three and a half times as well, if compared with population as well, taking the population of its Province, as the best New Brunswick and Ontario daily newspapers, and these are admittedly among the best in Canada.

These facts are printed in no spirit of boasting, but for the satisfaction of Guardian readers and advertising patrons alike. They have a right to know how completely their favorite journal's circulation is covered by the reading public, among whom it circulates and how completely it covers the field as an advertising medium in this City and Province.

GREATEST FEMALE STRENGTHENER ON EARTH.

Thousands of women are war, pallid, languid and debilitated. What they need is this nourishing tonic. Ferragone. Soon they regain their health, their bright eyes and rosy cheeks. For women's diseases and more so Mrs. L. E. Ferragone of 115 St. John Street, St. John, N.B. My daughter was very much troubled and was considerable trouble at times. When I was able to know what to do, I was able to give her Ferragone and I feel that Ferragone cleared up all the trouble, and my daughter is now healthy and well. Ferragone gives most appetite, regularity, and strength. I consider it a medicine every woman should use regularly if she wants to feel her best. It builds with it. Ferragone is the King of all cures. Price 50c per box at all dealers.
