Farador Again Proves Its Merit In Charlottetown

Sir,—This is to certify that I have been a user of the Farador for the past three years, and have obtained satisfactory results from it.

I was troubled with rheumatism in my left arm for ten years, and had consulted doctors, tried various patent medicines, but could obtain no relief. Having heard of the wonderful healing power of the Farador, I finally decided to give it a trial, and soon found great relief, and can now say that I have not felt a pain nor an ache in my arm since.

I also had a touch of lumbago in my back for several years and am feeling much better since I made use of the Farador.

On many occasions the Farador has been used in my family for severe colds, fever, measles and other ailments, and have always met with entire good results, and have not found it necessary to use any other remedy.

I cannot speak too highly of the Farador and urgently recommend it. LAWRENCE DOIRON, 29 Richmond St., Charlottetown, January 10, 1918.

The foregoing letter is addressed to W. E. Enman, Farador Representative, 226 Richmond St., Charlottetown. Interesting literature given to all applicants. 2228

..WOMEN'S INSTITUTE MEETING.—On Monday evening, Jan. 11, the Elmira Women's Institute met at the home of Miss Mary A. McPhee. Eight members and two visitors were present. The minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted. After some discussion the members decided to send $20.00 to the Halifax Relief Fund. Means of raising more funds were then discussed. No definite conclusion was arrived at as to what means the Institute would adopt. It was also decided to invite the members of Lakewood Institute to our next meeting. A very interesting paper, "Women and the War," was read by the secretary. After a vote of thanks was tendered Miss McPhee, the next meeting was invited to the home of Mrs. William Harris.

..CONCERT.—The Brooklyn Annual Christmas Concert was held in the Brooklyn school house on Friday, Dec. 21. The school room was artistically decorated for the occasion with evergreens and flags, while the Christmas tree, nicely ornamented and heavily laden, stood in the corner. Mr. John Matheson acted as chairman, and everyone responded with loud applause to the dialogues, choruses and recitations given by the children also the dialogues of the young people, trios and duets by Messrs. Mack McKinnon, Jack Matheson and Mack McKinnon of Brooklyn, and Alex. Munroe of Commercial Cross, and violin and harp selections by Charles Stewart, of Commercial Cross and Mack McKinnon of Brooklyn. A pleasing feature of the evening was a stentorian by Mr. James Bears. Last of all came a Santa Claus exercise by six of the pupils in which Santa appeared, and distributed the many presents. The sale of creams and home-made candy as well as the admission fee made a neat sum for patriotic purposes. Much credit is due the teacher and the young people of Brooklyn who helped to make the evening such a grand success.

..A CHRISTMAS CONCERT.—The Christmas tree and entertainment with the semi-annual examination of New Acadia School took place on Thursday night, Dec. 20, 1917. The schoolhouse was nicely decorated with evergreen and Xmas bells, etc., and a tree glittering with tinsel and lighted with vari-colored candles illuminated the happy children. A large crowd was present and all were pleased. In addition to the subjects that the pupils were examined in, the following program was rendered:—song Santa Claus is Coming, school recitation, The death of Napoleon, Agnes M. Galant, Dialogue, Five little boys, by five little girls, Song, Island of Hyam, Mary, Elsie and Alice Gallant, Recitation, A visit from St. Nicholas, Gertie Peters, Recitation, Sin is Sin, Margaret Gallant, Recitation, The Last Roll Call, Elsie Gallant, Songs by Mary Gallant and others, Recitation, The Ocean Tragedy, Alice Gallant, Recitation, The man behind the Gun, Aubrey Dancette, Recitation, The Woodbox, Cleophas Gallant, Dialogue, The Spelling Lesson, 9 pupils and one pupil as teacher. Victrola selections were then played to the great enjoyment of one and all. During the evening Mr. James Gallant rendered violin selections pleasing to everyone. But the best was yet to come, at least in the juvenile mind, when a ringing of sleigh bells was heard approaching the school house and Santa Claus marched in, dressed in full costume and a heavy bagful of toys slung across his shoulder. The boys having been distributed to the evident satisfaction of the pupils, someone in the audience called out Santa Claus to "give us a treat". Whereupon Mr. Gallant soon had Santa "tripping the light fantastic" to the sweet strain of the violin. St. Nick then took his departure and several other well known torpische can artists were prevailed upon to go up on the stage and "break or down". The great altar and showing of the scholars and the way they rendered their different parts is worthy of special mention, while the splendid manner in which Mr. Acolphus Peters acted Santa Claus is also deserving of great credit. At the close the children were treated to candy and presented with Xmas cards by the teacher. A special prize given by the teacher to the pupils who had done the best individual work of the evening was awarded to Master Jerry Plincau, Mr. Leo Dancette, trustee, in an admirable speech complimented the pupils on their performance, admonished them to attend school regularly and thanked the teacher Mr. Gordon Cantwell for the trouble taken and the good progress shown. The National Anthem was then sung and all dispersed having spent a very enjoyable time.

Now is the time to replace broken and missing pieces in that good china set.
