—KENSINGTON BUILDING BOOM—Judging by the number of new and remodelled buildings in Kensington during this season, the intermittent cycle of "seven lean years" (1929-1936) has passed into history. Business people seem to know by intuition that the dawn of a better day is approaching, that a cycle of material prosperity is approaching. The largest of the new buildings erected is the cold storage plant built by Russell Champion early in the past summer. Next in size is the new hide emporium built by George Brookins, in close proximity to the Kennedy property. This is one of the best of its kind in the whole province. A new bakery has been built and is in operation in the rear of the McPherson building. A beautiful new residence was erected on Main St. N. by Mr. Fred Davison. Mr. Chas. Kennedy hauled and remodelled his house on Russell St. Messrs. Tombs and McLeod remodelled a store building near the post office. Mr. Ramsay's house was sold, divided and made into two dwelling houses. Two or three large new horse and wagon sheds were built by storekeepers for the convenience of patrons and the public. Orville Darrach has remodelled some of the R. Tuplin Co. warehouses for produce business. Many other improvements and additions in buildings have been made which the writer cannot recall at the present moment.—K.
