SPENT HOLIDAY IN KINGSBORO.—Mr. and Mrs. Robert MacGregor recently returned to Saint John, N. B., after spending ten days visiting Mr. MacGregor's brother and sister and other relatives in Kingsboro, P.E.I. They were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Stewart, the latter a cousin of Mr. MacGregor.

RESIGNS.—Mr. Frank H. Brown, C. B. E., Deputy Minister of National Revenue for Taxation, has severed his connection with the tax department, according to word received here by Mr. G. E. Ritchie, Chief Inspector of Income Tax for the Province. Mr. Brown spent his vacation here this summer.

FUNERAL SERVICES.—The funeral of Joseph J. Weil was held yesterday morning from his late residence in Scotchfort to St. Bonaventure's Church, Tracadie, where Requiem High Mass was celebrated by the pastor, Rev. Kenneth MacPherson. The pallbearers were Messrs. Joseph Fisher, Alexander MacKenzie, Plus McBride, Elmer MacDonald, Frank McNally and Francis McKenna. Interment took place in the church cemetery where services were conducted by Rev. Kenneth MacMillan.

ATTENDED LIBRARIANS' MEETING.—The following were in attendance at a two-day convention of librarians held this week in the headquarters of the Prince Edward Island Librarians: Miss Eva Dyer, Alberton; Mrs. Alex MacDonald, Bradalbane; Miss G. Solomon, Georgetown; Mrs. Townsend, Kensington; Mrs. Laura MacLean, Montserrat; Mrs. A. MacDonald, Souris; Miss Constance Burrows, Summerside; Miss Margaret Conroy, Tignish; Miss Elsie Perry, Wellington; Miss Jean Gill, Miss Agnes McQuaid and Miss Newsum of the Charlottetown Public Library.

W.M.S. MEETING.—The October meeting of the auxiliary of the Women's Missionary Society of Hunter River United Church was held in the Manse, the president, Mrs. J. S. McLeod, occupying the chair. After the devotional exercises, the prescribed work, dealing with the translation of the Scriptures into the language of the American Indians, was taken up by Mrs. Seaman and Mrs. Morrison. Mrs. McLeod conducted a study period on Ezekiel and his work. Those taking part in the readings were, Mrs. J. Andrews, Mrs. Robertson, Mrs. C. Smith, Mrs. L. Ripley, Mrs. J. LePage, Mrs. Geo. Smith, Mrs. G. Nisbet and Mrs. E. Seaman. Fifteen members and three visitors were present. Three new members were welcomed into the Society. A letter was read from Mrs. MacFarlane concerning the financial receipts which were lower than in the previous year in the P.E.I. Presbyterian. A special effort must be made before the end of the year to remedy this situation. An interesting reading was given by the Temperance Secretary, Mrs. Edison Newman. Two solos were beautifully rendered by Miss Mary Muttart. The November meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. J. LePage when roll-calls will be answered by a verse containing the word "receive".
