

SUCCESSFUL MEN

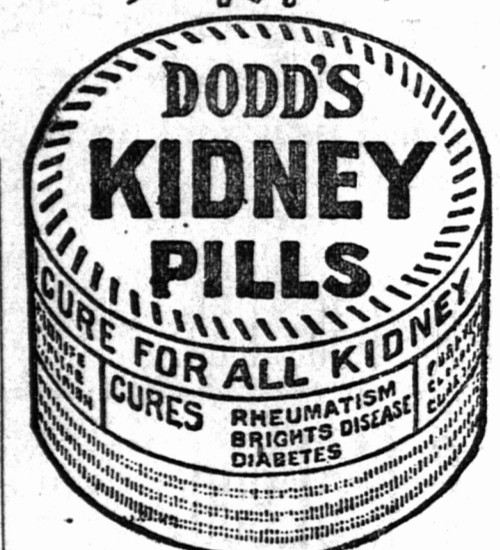

MANY OF THEM ARE HANDICAPPED WITH CATARRHAL DISEASES.

Dr. A. W. CHASE COMES TO THEIR AID.

Success in life is almost impossible for a man with bad breath. Nobody wants to do business with him.

Many men understand this, and make every effort to cure it, but it is beyond the reach of ordinary practice.

HER LIFE WAS SAVED

Sent Home from the Hospital to Die.

Yet Dodd's Kidney Pills Saved Edna Rathburn—Her Case was One in a Thousand—Tortured by Diabetes—A remarkable Cure.

Hampstead, N. B. March 20.—If ever any remedy for human ills was put to a stringent test, in practical experience, that medicine is Dodd's Kidney Pills, and the test was the case of little Edna Rathburn, of this place.

The case is still fresh in the memory of the inhabitants of York County, for it was the principal topic of discussion throughout the country, for weeks.

Six years ago, Edna, who was then only two years old, met with a terrible accident, two of her ribs being torn from her spine. The fractured ends enfolded to "knit." The child could not strengthen her body, but was bent almost double, and could walk only with the greatest pain and difficulty.

Diabetes set in, and her sufferings were terrible to witness. Night and day she was in the most awful agony. The doctors could do nothing to relieve her, and advised that she be sent to the St. John Hospital. The surgeons there said the case was hopeless. They sent her home again, with the advice to give her the greatest care as that was all that could be done for her.

In despair, Mrs. Rathburn one day decided to try Dodd's Kidney Pills which would help the child. They did. Day by day she improved under their influence, till after a time came perfect health. Not a vestige of Diabetes was left.

Now, Mrs. Rathburn says: "Our child's life was saved solely by Dodd's Kidney Pills."

Sufferers from Diabetes who read of this case can rest assured that they will find a cure just as surely as did little Edna Rathburn, in Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Walkerton People.

Greatly interested in the recovery of Mrs. A. H. Schwelger, a highly respected lady of that town.

She suffered from rush of blood to the head, smothering feeling, nervousness and despondency. She had severe headaches, her heart was weak, and she often thought she would die.

Many people in Walkerton, Ont., and surrounding country have been talking of the remarkable cure of Mrs. A. H. Schwelger, a lady with a large circle of friends in that town.

To satisfy the desire of all to know about her case and to do good to other sufferers she made the following statement:

"Since I had the scarlet fever five years ago my nervous system had been almost completely prostrated. The least excitement set me shaking and trembling. My heart seemed to stop beating at times, and again would beat very rapidly, the blood rushed to my head and a suffocation feeling coming on so badly that I had to go out doors to get air and recover my breath. Sometimes I thought I would die in one of these spells. I never slept well, and would often start up in bed gasping and choking for breath, and trembling all over, my heart beating as if it would burst. I had fearful headaches which confined me to bed three days at a time and I became so weak that I was unable to comb my hair.

In March last I went to Cryderman's Drug Store here and got a box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. I have taken three boxes and am cured entirely. Every one of the distressing symptoms I had has disappeared; my blood has been enriched, and I enjoy healthful, restful sleep. In fact, my nervous system has been built up and invigorated to its old time standard. The improvement was rapid from the very first and since the cure was performed I am glad to say that I have not had any indication of this terrible bad spells which formerly afflicted me."

MUST FURNISH THE STAMPS.

CHICAGO, Ill., March 18.—The appellate court has unanimously sustained the decision rendered by Judge Toley last summer, that express companies are obliged to furnish war revenue stamps to all shippers.

The Medical Profession Recommend Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment.

Dr. C. M. Hallan, writing in the American Journal of Health, February 10th, says:—"Among the proprietary medicines deserving recognition is Dr. Chase's Ointment, as a remedy for Piles, Eczematous skin eruptions of all kinds, for which it has been used with marked success and has affected remarkable cures in many obstinate cases which seem to baffle the skillful medical attendant."

FELL FIFTY FEET.

WOODSTOCK, March 17.—James Kelly, of Bristol, Thursday night, while walking in his sleep, he stepped out of the fourth story window and fell at a distance of 50 feet into a snow bank. There was three or four feet of snow where he fell and he escaped with but slight injury.

Baby Eczema and Scald Head.

Infants and young children are peculiarly subject to this terrible disorder, and if not promptly arrested it will eventually become chronic. Dr. Chase made a special study of Eczema and disease of the skin, and we can confidently recommend Dr. Chase's Ointment to cure all forms of Eczema. The first application soothes the irritation and puts the little sufferer to rest.

Mrs Joseph Langtry Brockville Ont., says: "I have used Dr. Low's Worm Syrup and I can say that it has done my children good. It never fails to act promptly." Price 25c.

Lawyer—Are you a married man? Witness—No, but I was run over by a trolley car once.

A Phrenologist Speaks.

Prof. J. W. Crouter writes from Pen-tanguishene: "I was troubled with palpitation of the heart which became very severe. Hearing of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills I determined to try them and after taking them for about a week, was cured."
