ALEXANDER C. SHAW.

By the death of Mr. Alexander C. Shaw, J. P., who passed away at his home at West River Bridge on Thursday evening, August 23rd, this province has lost another of her most respected and leading farmers. Deceased was 72 years, having been born at West River on October 8, 1845, a son of Donald and Mary (Campbell) Shaw. He was educated in the common school and Prince of Wales College. He afterwards engaged for a time in teaching and next took up farming which he prosecuted with great success. Deceased had made a thoughtful study of the science of agriculture and devoted much time to experiments in which he had been very successful. As proof of this it may be noted that in the year 1886 he received a Commemorative Medal and diploma for grain sent to the Colonial and Indian Exhibition in London. In 1889 he was married to Miss Isabel Maynard, the daughter of William and Barbara (Yeo) Maynard, natives of Cornwall, Eng., who survives him; also the following sons and daughters: William D., at home, Walter R., in the Department of Agriculture, Charlottetown, Mrs. Arthur Horton in Portsmouth, N. H., Mrs. Eugene, Herod, Palm Beach, Fla., Bertha in Boston and Louise in New York.

In politics Mr. Shaw was a conservative, fearlessly defending and upholding the rights of the people. He has occupied a prominent position in the community and for fourteen years served capably as clerk of the County Court at Bonshaw, and in the various matters which brought him in contact with the public won the goodwill and esteem of all. To those bereaved The Guardian extends sincere sympathy. The funeral takes place today (Saturday) at 2.30 p. m. to St. Catherine's Cemetery.

MRS. RICHARD HENDERSON

On the evening of August 17th, 1917, Bessie Warren, beloved wife of Mr. Richard Henderson of Kingston, P. E. I., departed this life at the age of 52 years. Her illness extended over a period of about four months and at times she suffered a great deal. Everything that human kindness and medical skill could suggest was done in order to lessen her suffering and give her life. She passed through the trying time with remarkable patience and strong Christian faith. She looked into the future with that calmness which comes from a consciousness of the Saviour's presence and the assurance that all is well through His merits and grace. Death found her ready and in sure and certain hope of a blessed immortality she passed away on Sunday, 19th at 2 o'clock. The service was held on the lawn and was a most impressive scene. The coffin covered with floral tributes, the sun beaming down; the leaves fluttering in the breeze; the large concourse of people gathered about; the service with music and scripture and words of inspiration and hope made a combination of features which gave it power to impress the minds and hearts of all present.

Mrs. Henderson will be much missed in the community. She was an active member of the Baptist Church and was always ready to do all in her power to advance the interests of the Redeemer's Kingdom. Much sympathy is felt for her sorrowing husband in the hour of her bereavement. There are left to mourn besides her husband, one sister and two brothers—Mrs. John Moreside and Oliver and Spurgeon Warren, all of North River, as well as a large circle of relatives and friends.
