Farewell Presentation

It is the element of surprise in life which makes it so fascinating, then Mr. and Mrs. Allie B. Cutcliffe and family of Hunter River must have been agreeably charmed on Thursday evening, April 14, 1938, when the Masonic Hall was the scene of a remarkable demonstration for this popular couple, who are soon to take their departure from this community. The many friends and neighbours who filled the hall to capacity, surely indicated the hold this family have on the affections of all our citizens. Commendatory addresses and appropriate gifts were presented to the guests of honor.

After the formal addresses were read, the Chairman, Rev. W. A. MacQuarrie called on many in brief remarks. Representatives of all phases of life here, including the church, the school, the fraternal organizations and the community spoke in high terms, all eulogizing the activities of these citizens during their sojourn in this vicinity. The presentation was honored by the presence of Mrs. Cutcliffe's father, Senator John E. Sinclair, who spoke briefly on the privileges and duties of citizenship.

Following these addresses, a dainty lunch was served by the ladies of the Women's Association, and then all entered into a spirit of merriment for the remainder of the evening.

The main address to the family was read by Mr. W. A. Patterson, and the gifts, including a lovely china cabinet, were presented by Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Andrews.

Mr. Cutcliffe responded fittingly, thanking all present for this manifestation of their good will.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Cutcliffe, Hunter River, P. E. I.

Greeting:—
Of all the blessings that come to grace our human lot, the privilege of friendship is the most sublime. The eighteenth century poet.

Samuel Johnson, has appropriately said:

"Friendship, peculiar boon of Heaven, The noble mind's delight and pride, To men and Angels only given, To all the lower world denied."

In friendship, we share one another's burdens and joys, defeats and triumphs. The encouragement of friends give us strength to face courageously the vicissitudes of life. Back of every human soul that is the possessor of honour, there is found a company of friends that were interested in the adventurer and his dreams.

Dear Allie and Jean:—
We, your neighbours, feel that we help to constitute a vast company of friends who have been sincerely interested in you during your sojourn in Hunter River. Your record as citizens of this community has been gratifying to us, and we feel justly proud that you are going to take your place in a larger sphere of activity, where your opportunities for service in your special field will be much greater. We cherish your worth of character, and the spirit with which you both have acquitted yourselves on all occasions. The readiness and the aptitude with which you have served in many capacities in our church, school and community life are greatly appreciated and highly commended.

We modestly express the hope that in some way we as your friends have been helpful to you and we want you to know that we shall continue to have that kindly interest in you, as you go from us to greater service in our neighbourhood.

Both of you, as well as your lovely children have endeared yourselves to us all in many ways, and we shall miss you greatly.

The universal note sounded in this vicinity during the past few weeks has been "how ye shall miss Allie and Jean when they leave Hunter River." In our selfishness, we regret your departure, but we anticipate great success for you in your larger work.

To you Allie, will be accorded a rare privilege of ministering to many, at the time of great sorrow, and by your kindly way and your generous sympathy, you will have an opportunity of performing a service which, if done in the spirit of christian charity, will greatly encourage many of their pilgrim way.

In recognition of the qualities of you both, as an expression of our pride in your accomplishments, and as a token of our sincere friendship, we make this presentation, with best wishes for your future success.

Your Friends and Neighbours of Hunter River and Vicinity

Earlier in the week, the girls of the sewing circle presented their instructor and leader, Mrs. Cutcliffe, with an address and gift, the Misses Gladys MacNeill, and Marion Whitlock doing the honors. Hunter River, P. E. I., April 14, 1938

Mrs. A. B. Cutcliffe.

Dear Mrs. Cutcliffe:—It is with a feeling of profound regret that we, your members of the Women's Association of the United Church, have heard of your contemplated departure from our midst.

Even though we realize that your going away will be a distinct loss to our local group, yet we feel sure that it will not be so to the church as a whole, for you no doubt will soon find a place for your energies in similar, if not in greater duties at your new location. We have gathered here to-night, amidst a host of other well-wishers, to express our appreciation of the excellent part you have played in our group, not only as a member, but also in your capacity for leadership.

Your spirit for service has permeated our whole work and the church is the better because of your life in it.

It is a peculiar trait of human nature not to recognize openly such virtues as you possess, not to show our gratitude to persons who merit our praise while they are still with us, but to-night we have been given the privilege to express in this way our feelings towards you. You have been a great source of strength to our group, and we hope that you will continue to inspire others in christian living, inspire your natural aptitude for making friends wherever you may go, in appreciation of your endeavours, we present you with this small token of our esteem, wishing you great happiness in your new home.

Signed on Behalf of the Women's Association.

Hunter River, P. E. I., April 11, 1938

Dear Leader of the Hunter River Hustlers:—

As we have heard of your decision to leave Hunter River, we felt that we could not let you go without expressing to you our regret.

You have shown the deepest interest in our Club's welfare and we appreciate all you did to help us and realize our place will be hard to fill.

We know that in your new home you will have equal opportunities for service and our loss will be their gain.

Rest assured that our kindest thoughts and best wishes will follow you to your new home and we will be ever eager to hear of your success.

We ask you then to accept this little gift as a small token of our esteem and may it ever be a reminder of the pleasant association we have had and of sincere friends left behind.

Donna forget all the past and its pleasures, Dreams whose white wings may overshadow you yet Friends and God's gifts and the best of life's treasures Memory enshrines them Ah! Donna forget, Signed on behalf of the Sewing Circle Girls.

Tempest Surges Every So Often Over Orientals

(By Charles Nichols) (Canadian Press Staff Writer) VANCOUVER May 2 (AP)—A storm of controversy is apparently blowing into a lull over the Oriental heads of 26,000 Japanese inhabitants of British Columbia. The storm, given force by opponents of Oriental infiltration into this coast province's economic life, surges periodically, it became sharper in 1927, manifesting itself in riots which saw whites and Orientals arm themselves and clash in city streets. Since then it has broken out at intervals in varying intensity.

In Memoriam

MRS. JOHN BEATON

The death took place at Hunter River, P. E. I., on April 18th, 1938, of Mrs. John Beaton, at the age of seventy-six years. She had been ill for about eight months, with a heart ailment, and though for a time she seemed to improve, a few weeks ago a serious relapse occurred and the end came peacefully on the morning of April 18th. She was a native of Hunter River, and lived almost her whole life in her native community, where she was highly regarded for her kind and neighborly qualities and for her domestic and Christian virtues. During her long illness, she was tenderly nursed and cared for by her daughter, Mrs. Emma Dowling, who came from New York City for this purpose.

Her funeral took place on Thursday, April 21st and was largely attended by relatives and friends. The services at the home, church and cemetery, were conducted by her pastor, Rev. W. A. MacQuarrie, Hunter River, assisted by Rev. A. O. Thompson, Brookfield. After a brief family service in the home, services were held in the Hunter River United Church of which Mrs. Beaton had long been a faithful and esteemed member. Favorite hymns were sung by the choir and congregation. Rock of Ages, All the way my Saviour leads me, Lead, Kindly Light, and Face to Face. Mr. Gordon Carey sang by request, Some day We'll Understand, and Rev. and Mrs. Thompson. We Shall Know Him.

MacQuarrie paid a fitting tribute to the deceased, and spoke a message of comfort to the bereaved, from the words of St. Paul, "Thanks be unto God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ." The pall bearers were Messrs. Wm. McDougall, Thos. W. G. McCre, Jas. McSwain, Wellington Patterson, John Bertram and Darrell White. The interment took place in the Hunter River Cemetery, beside her husband, who predeceased her four years ago.

Six daughters and three sons survive, as follows: Mrs. Kate Wohlrahe, New York, N. Y.; Mrs. Jos. Dowling, New York, N. Y.; Mrs. Jas. Stafford, Vancouver, B. C.; Mrs. Brian C. Brisco, Vancouver, B. C.; Mrs. Clyde C. Rimmer, Waltham, Mass.; Mrs. Claude MacMillan, Charlottetown, P. E. I.; Mrs. A. Beaton New Rochelle, N. Y.; and John E. Beaton, Killaloe, Ont. She is also survived by the following sisters: Mrs. David Chaisson, New York, N. Y.; Mrs. Jas. A. White, Revelstoke, B. C.; Mrs. Bernard Brown, Lowell, Mass.; Mrs. Lillian, another sister, Mary in Bangor, Me., and a brother, Thos. McInnis, in Summerside, P. E. I. To all these and other relatives we join in extending sincere sympathy.

Meaning in East

Premier T. D. Pattullo reflected this view when he suggested to the Rowell Commission on Dominion-Provincial Relations that action would be taken to solve the problem of eastern Canada appreciated the actual situation on the coast where Orientals controlled many lines of endeavor on a standard of living below that of Canadians.

To Test Validity Of Alberta Tax Act

(C. P. by Guardian's Special Wire) EDMONTON, May 2—Test of validity of the proposed Alberta production tax probably will bring place at the June sitting of the appellate division of the Supreme Court of Alberta in Calgary, Hon. Lucien Maynard, Minister of Municipal Affairs, said today.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

The liver should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You get constipated. Harmful poisons go into the body and you feel sour, sunk and the world looks punk.

A new bowel movement doesn't always come at the cause. You need something that works on the liver as well. It takes those good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get those two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up". Harmless and gentle, they make the bile flow freely. They do the work of calomel but have no calomel or mercury in them. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name! Stubbornly refuse anything else. See

MR. ALFRED E. MACKENNA

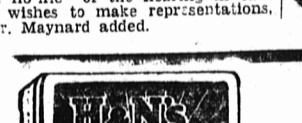

Funeral service for Alfred E. McKenna was held at 9 o'clock Saturday morning at St. Benedict's Chapel Cascade, N. H. with Rev. Thomas J. Connors officiating at a high requiem Mass. Singing was by St. Benedict's choir with Miss Cecile Rhenault organist. Interment was in the Holy Family cemetery Rev. Maurice Leclerc read the committal prayers.

Meaning in East

Howard C. Green, member of parliament for Vancouver South, sought to translate the problem into terms easily understood by Eastern Canada by telling the House that if Japanese settled in other provinces, in relation to urban centres and nearby municipalities, as in British Columbia, the situation would be this: Toronto would have 150,000 Japanese living in its environs; Winnipeg would have 30,000 within a few miles of her city limits; Montreal would have 120,000 near by and Halifax would have 20,000.
