Silver Fox Industry Is Steadily Growing

How often do we hear the expression, "Prince Edward Island is the best little spot of earth under the canopy of heaven." How often do we hear the Garden of the Gulf extolled not only for its wonderful fertility, but as a tourist paradise.

On the other hand too we hear of the Island becoming depopulated, of our sons and daughters leaving here to help build up other lands by their industry and intelligence.

We need more of the optimistic utterances regarding our own Province. One of the most enthusiastic advocates of the present opportunities, and the great possibilities of Prince Edward Island is Mr. W. K. Rogers.

Mr. Rogers, who is becoming recognized not only in Canada and in the United States, but in the Old Country, as the Morgan of the fur farming interests, could not have achieved that enviable and well-deserved distinction had he not full faith in the great silver fox industry of Prince Edward Island and his recent trip was one of the many which he has made for some years past in extending the ramifications of his rapidly expanding business abroad, and in selling large numbers of live foxes.

On his recent trip Mr. Rogers established a ranch at Des Moines, Iowa, and another at Spokane, Washington, where he entered into partnership with another prominent breeder. He has a third interest also in a big ranch in the north of Scotland, and last year sent over a man from Prince Edward Island to take charge.

He has also sent foxes to France, Switzerland, and Norway, as well as Scotland; and in Europe, therefore, the nucleus has been laid of what is destined to be a very great industry.

U. S. Menace To World Peace, He Says

CINCINNATI, April 17.—Every intelligent European sees the United States as the greatest menace to world peace because of our policy of alcoholism to organizations seeking to minimize the possibility of war and outlaw it. Major General John F. O'Ryan, of New York, declared in an address here last night.

"We are not the peaceful people we are made out to be," said the speaker. "All of our possessions were gotten by the sword. Large sections of our country were taken by the sword. Europeans know that."

"The world organization for peace is not complete until our country is contented to play its part in the great effort," he said.

FAREWELL PARTY

On the evening of March 26th, a large number of people assembled at the comfortable home of Mr. and Mrs. George Rogers, Freetown, the occasion being a farewell party given in honor of Mr. George V. Paynter who was shortly to leave for the United States.

The assemblage was called to order and a nicely worded address read by W. Reginald Reeves and presentation of a valuable watch was made by Austin W. Rogers.

This was suitably replied to by Mr. Paynter who thanked all present for their expression of good will and assured them of his always remembering his many friends.

The remainder of the evening was pleasantly spent in games and music; a dainty lunch was served and heartily enjoyed by all.

After the usual "bouncing" the very enjoyable evening was brought to a close with singing "For He is a Jolly Good Fellow" and "Auld Lang Syne".

ADDRESS

Dear George:— We, your friends and neighbors of Freetown have gathered tonight to express our sincere regret at your departure from our community to the United States, where they say the roses are always blooming, and to assure you that you are leaving friendly hearts and kind memories behind.

We know that you will be greatly missed from among us for you have endeared yourself to us all by your bright face and attractive personality, and the many pleasant hours spent in your company will be cherished amongst our most precious memories, and wherever your future may be you may rest assured the best wishes of your many friends will follow you.

We are well aware that on an occasion of this kind, words are weak, we therefore ask you to accept this small gift, not for its intrinsic value, but as a small token of our esteem and regards.

Signed on behalf of your Freetown friends.

IN MEMORIAM

THE LATE MR. L. ROGERSON

"In the midst of life we are in death," was very forcibly impressed upon the community of Mihi and vicinity with a very sad and unexpected fatality occurred on Sunday, March 8th, 1925 and it became known that Mr. Leonard Rogerson, an old and respected resident, was suddenly called to the life beyond at the age of 62 years. He had been in his usual good health and was out attending to his evening duties. The family was about to partake of their evening meal and becoming anxious at the delay of the father's return, his eldest son went out to call him. After a few minutes search he came upon the prostrate body, lying lifeless beside a set of bob sleds, where he evidently slipped and fell, striking his temple on the iron mounting causing instant death. Mr. Rogerson was a member of the Church of Scotland, a very kind and obliging neighbor, beloved by young and old alike, and the loss to the community is deeply felt. The funeral which was largely attended was conducted by the Rev. Ewen MacDonnell assisted by the Rev. Mr. Turpel, and the remains laid to rest in the Kirk cemetery at Mihi on Thursday, March 12th. Besides his grief stricken wife, he leaves to mourn the loss of a kind husband and father five sons: James and Jefferson of Bangor, Me; Wm. of Brockton, Mass.; and John and Philip at home; also three sisters Mrs. Edith Currie of Canoe Cove; Mrs. Daniel McFadyen of Lowell, River Jct., Vernon; and two brothers, Robert and Artemas of Canoe Cove.

The pall bearers were Messrs. Robt. Milligan, Roderick MacLean, John D. MacLean, Donald MacDonnell, Neil H. McNevin and Gordon Campbell. (Other papers please copy.)

MRS. TERENCE LANIGAN The death occurred in the Charlottetown Hospital at an early hour of Wednesday morning, April 1st, of Lottie McGuigan, beloved wife of Mr. Terence Lanigan of Sturgeon.

The deceased was only twenty-nine years of age, entered the hospital just the previous Monday for treatment, but despite every possible care and attention she steadily grew weaker until the end came on the above mentioned date. She was a most estimable woman, possessing admirable qualities of mind and heart. She had a lovable and attractive personality and was a general favorite.

She having been called away when in the natural course of events, there were many years of usefulness before her. The great sympathy extended to the bereaved husband. There are also left to mourn five brothers: James and Emmet, St. Mary's Road; Christopher and John in Bristol, Conn., and Charles Victor in Medford, Mass.

The funeral which was an uncommonly large one, perhaps the largest ever seen in Sturgeon Parish was held on Friday afternoon to St. Paul's Church and thence to the Roman Catholic Cemetery where service was held by Rev. Theo. Gallant and all that was mortal was laid to rest until the great call of Judgment Day.

To the grief stricken husband and bereaved relatives, the Guardian extends its sincere sympathy.

JOHN C. PROCTOR The many friends and relatives of the late John C. Proctor in town and country were greatly shocked in hearing of his death on April 6th at the home of his son-in-law, Mr. Hector McQuarrie, Charlottetown.

Mr. Proctor's health although impaired from asthma and bronchitis had never been confined to bed, the end coming so unexpectedly forcibly reminds us of the truthfulness of the words, in the midst of life we are in death and at a time we know not the call may come. Mr. Proctor was in his seventieth year—had been a long resident of New Glasgow excepting three years in Western Canada and about two years with his daughters at Loyalist and Charlottetown. He was regarded in the community as an honest, industrious citizen, a devoted husband and kind father.

He leaves to mourn his loss, five daughters and three sons, five brothers and one sister; his daughters are Clara, Mrs. Spurgeon Gillespie, Loyalist; Martha Mrs. Arthur Davidson, Lowell, Mass.; Jennie Mrs. William Johns, Concord, N.H.; Blanche Mrs. Hector McQuarrie, Charlottetown; and Ethel, Edward of Paton, Maine. The brothers are Edwin of Charlottetown, Simon of Portland, Me.; James of Boston, Mass., and sister, Mrs. Chems Walsh, Stanley Bridge. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. D. Lamont at the home of his daughter, Mrs. McQuarrie, Charlottetown and the remains were conveyed by rail to Hunter River thence to New Glasgow Cemetery and laid to rest beside his wife, who predeceased him eight years, the service at the grave was conducted by Rev. M. E. Aitken. The pall bearers were George Brown, Cecil Laird, John White, Daniel Hickey, John Ross and Watson Semple.

A. D. MACDONALD At his home Forest Hill, March 22nd, 1925, there passed peacefully to rest Alexander D. MacDonnell in his 67th year. He was a son of the late Donald and Mary MacDonnell, Brookfield he spent over twenty five years in Nevada and some years near Charlottetown and the last ten years at Forest Hill, where he will be greatly missed as a kind and obliging neighbor. He leaves to mourn a widow and eight children, Miss Florence MacDonnell, teacher in Middleboro, Mass.; and seven at home also the following brothers W. M. S.

To Name Cemetery For Canine Hero PARIS, April 17.—The population of Genevilliers, a Paris suburb, turned out today for the dedication of a cat and dog cemetery in honor of Raoul, a small watchdog, who several months ago started half the settlement from destruction. Raoul was awakened by smoke in the chemical factory which was his home. Discovering that the flames were eating through the walls of the explosive department, he immediately began barking and aroused the suburban fire department.

LETTER OF SYMPATHY To Mrs. W. A. Bernard, French River. Dear Sister Member A few short months ago we sorrowed with you over the death of your father, today we are again mourning with you in your double sorrow caused by the recent death of your loved mother. How apt we are to feel as though the grave hides our dear ones from us, and we feel so desolate but that is one reason we have for our belief in a glorious re-union for at the grave we hear the glad Easter message "He is risen here! He is risen." We feel that words are so little avail in a great sorrow such as yours. But we as sisters extend our sincerest sympathy in this your dark hour feeling that the God of your dear parents will indeed be your comforter. When the dear ones are called to a higher life we feel that the call comes to us to help with the work they have laid down. How we long for our loved ones but God hath taken them to Himself safe for evermore.

THE JOKE Our advice to a young man about marrying would be: "Don't get married until you find an old-fashioned girl who wears cotton stockings! What? Why, of course, a confound find one. That's the joke.—Buffalo Evening Times.
