

CONGOLEUM GOLD SEAL ART-RUGS

Beautiful—Low Priced

The beauty of Congoleum Art-Rugs is no more remarkable than their durability. And both are amazing when you consider the exceedingly low price of these popular, easy-to-clean rugs.

For the rich, fadeless colors in which Congoleum patterns are executed are as permanent as the sturdy, waterproof base beneath.

All you need do to secure these exceptional qualities is: look for the Gold Seal when you buy.

ON AUTO TRIP.—Mr. and Mrs. Hagen of New York, Mr. W. T. Tilley of Boston, and Chas. L. Schaffner of Middleton, N. S., were in Amherst, Friday on their way by motor to P. E. Island.

POWNAW CIRCUIT.—Thanks giving services with sermons appropriate to the occasion will be held next Sunday at Clifton, 11 a. m., Mt. Herbert, 2.30 p. m. and Pownaw at 7 p. m. F. H. Littlejohn, Pastor.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO ADVERTISERS.—Advertisers are respectfully requested to see that their advertisements for the Guardian reach the office by noon of the day preceding publication, otherwise insertion will not be guaranteed. On Saturday ads must be received by 10 A. M.

FIFTIETH WEDDING.—Rev. Thomas Marshall, and Mrs. Marshall celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage in Montreal on October 3rd, with their daughters, Miss Helen Marshall and Mrs. A. W. Seaman and the latter's family at 318 Claremont Avenue, Westmount. Mr. and Mrs. Marshall were married in Woodstock, New Brunswick by the late Charles Paisley, D. D. Their hosts of friends in P. E. Island extend hearty congratulations.

ISLANDERS REUNITED.—The Spokane News says: Because he likes the looks of eastern Washington so well, J. Herbert Simpson, brother of J. G. Simpson, auditor of the Dessert hotels, had decided to acquire farm land in the Palouse and reside there, he announced Saturday. Herbert Simpson is a sawmill operator and farmer of Prince Edward Island, Canada. His visit to Spokane was a long-desired reunion, for the two brothers had not seen each other in 21 years. The brothers plan on making a trip to the Palouse shortly, that Herbert Simpson may have opportunity to look over the farm-

Mrs. Fred Hardy, Elmsdale, is the guest of Dr. J. A. and Mrs. Stewart.

Mrs. Elizabeth Fraser, Belmont, Lot 16, is visiting friends and relatives in Tyne Valley and Ellerslie.

J. B. and Mrs. Gardner, Free-town, are spending a few weeks with their daughter, Mrs. R. J. McNeill, Tyne Valley.

Mr. Eldon Miller, Blanford, has returned from the Canadian West. He is much pleased with his trip, and is greatly impressed with the method of farming in the West.

Mr. Elmer Baker, who has spent the past year with his grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ritchie, left on Saturday morning for his home in Portland, Me. He will be greatly missed by the young folk with whom he was a general favorite; he was accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Mabel Baker.

Many of the farmers have not yet finished digging their potato crop. The reports which come in of the abundant yields are almost unbelievable. One man from Arlington reports a yield of one-half bushel from three tubers. We feel that this cannot be beaten in any other district.

Saturday night was Hallowe'en, and many practical jokes were played on all. One man in this vicinity lost his horse out of his stable, and he was found about noon on Sunday, tied in a neighbor's shed. It is thought that the witches must have been riding abroad as in the days of Burns' "Tamshanter."

Mr. John Campbell, Victoria West, who some weeks ago had the misfortune of being attacked by an infuriated bull, and had several ribs broken besides sustaining other injuries, is yet unable to leave his bed. His many friends hope that he may soon be able to be out again after his almost miraculous escape from death.

His visit to Spokane was a long-desired reunion, for the two brothers had not seen each other in 21 years. The brothers plan on making a trip to the Palouse shortly, that Herbert Simpson may have opportunity to look over the farm-
