

SCRAPS.

A PLAINT.

Backward, turn backward, O Time, in thy flight! Give us an autoless morn, noon and night.

I know, Father Time, I am asking too much, But turn to a day ere a dinner was lunch.

UNCLE EZRA SAYS.

"The longest way round may be the surest way home, but there's a question about that eternal feminine question: 'Where have you been?'"

AT THE BARBER'S.

A little soap, A little rub, A little scrape, A little scrub.

A little grease, A little scalp, A little 'life', If head is bald.

A little scent, A little chalk, A little brush, A lot of talk.

A MONEY-MAKER.

"Talking about inventions," said the business man. "I have a little machine in my place that would make me a millionaire if I could keep it going all the time."

"What is it?" "A cash register."

"Pa, what is a bigot?" "A bigot, my son, is a person who doesn't think as I do, and sticks to it."

The moon affects the tide, and the untied.

Fewer flowers to the dead and a little more charity to the living would help some.

The social climber is anxious to go to heaven because that is where the best people go.

HE STILL LIVES.

The world cannot bury a Christ. The earth is not deep enough for His tomb, the clouds are not wide enough for his winding sheet.
