CHARLOTTETOWN AND QUEEN'S COUNTY

It pays to buy in this Province. William Morris, city, is rapidly improving from an attack of La grippe. J. Frank Jenkins, Alberry Plains, has returned home after a three months visit to Western Canada. In a recent issue of Brain's a piano ad of Miller Bros, City, which appeared in the Guardian, was reproduced.

The following Mission grants are published in The Wesleyan.—Alma, $70, Hillsboro, $295; Winslow, $330; Montague, $345; Souris, $405; Mt. Stewart, $370 and Bideford, $350.

The A. W. Perry will sail tonight for Boston, taking the place of the Halifax on the Halifax to Boston route. Captain Ellis, of the Halifax, will take command of the vessel. W. Perry, as Captain Hawes is in Scotland superintending the construction of the new Plant liner.—Halifax Exc.

Zion's Herald, of last week, had an appreciative In Memoriam notice and portrait of the late Rev Wm Full, who died in August, at Saugus, Mass. Mr Full was born in Halifax, was a brother of Geo. E. Full, of Charlottetown, and married Miss Emma G. Beer of that city. He was an earnest preacher and temperance advocate.

Kruse & Banks, the well-known shipbuilders of North Bend, Oregon, have had an unusually busy summer building vessels for the coast trade. A large steam schooner, built for the Simpson Lumber Company, will soon be launched into the waters of the broad Pacific. Robert Banks, a member of the firm, is a native of P. E. Island.—Oakland, Cal. Maple Leaf.

The special services in the Methodist church at Fredericton, N. B., are attracting large congregations. Bright singing and brief and interesting addresses are the chief characteristics of the gatherings. Rev Neil McLaughlin the pastor, is the evangelist and James Lamont conducts the musical portion of the exercises, and the performers are not limited to the choir of the church.—Exc. Mr McLaughlin is a brother to Dr McLaughlin, City.

On Monday, Oct. 31st, in St. Joseph's Catholic Church, at Nash's Creek, N. B., a very quiet but pretty wedding took place when Miss Beatrice Melanson was united in marriage to John McSair in the presence of intimate friends and relatives. Rev. J. J. Lambert performed the ceremony. The twin brothers of the bride served Mass. The bride was becomingly attired in a dark blue travelling suit with hat to match and carried prayer book. She was given away by her brother Ulric Melanson while the groom was escorted by Fred Hickie. The children of Mary sang hymns during the Mass, a society of which the bride was a member. Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple left on the 8.20 train for a trip to P. E. I., amid the showers of rice and best wishes of their many friends.—Exc.

Harry and Mrs. Humphries, "the Kelsey Kids," left Halifax last night—sooner than they expected to leave. They had intended leaving by the Rappahannock, but found they would be too much delayed if they waited for her to sail. Last night about 11 o'clock the Kelsey Kids saw John E. Furness, of the Furness Withy Company, in regard to passage by the Rappahannock. Mr. Furness told them the steamer was to go via Newfoundland. He stated that the Durango would sail in ten minutes for London. We'll be on board by that time said the globe walkers, and in fact it was very little longer before they were on hand with their baggage on their backs. The steamer was held a short time to allow them to take passage. The Kelsey Kids had to get to London in order to carry out their program. They might have had difficulty in getting there under the conditions of their wager had they not found a "friend in need" in Mr. Furness. In exchange for a couple of souvenir post cards he generously furnished them with a passage enabling them to carry out their plans. They are now on the Atlantic ocean, en route for the old world.—Halifax Exc. (Mr. and Mrs. Humphries passed through Charlottetown recently.)

Myias "Laxacold" is a laxative treatment for grippes, "colds" (Coryza), coughs, headaches, neuralgia, etc. It acts quickly (a day and a night), is tasteless (chocolate coated), and checks a cold at once if taken promptly. 25c. a box.
