—CARD PARTY AT INDIAN RIVER—The card party, under the auspices of the Catholic Women's League, held May 13 at the home of Mr. John A. MacLellan was a wonderful success. Card playing began at nine o'clock and continued until eleven o'clock. The ladies' prize was won by Mrs. Elizabeth Brennan, Kensington, and the men's prize by Mr. Wilbert DeLaney, Malpeque. A delicious luncheon was then served and the remainder of the evening spent in dancing. The music was furnished by Messrs. —FIRST COMMUNION—On Friday morning at 8 o'clock over fifty little boys and girls took their first communion at St. Paul's Church, Summerside. They made a charming picture, the little girls in their white dresses and veils and the little boys in neat black suits, and wearing the white badge, as they walked up the aisle to the altar. The convent choir composed of the pupils of St. Mary's Academy, sang very sweetly appropriate hymns for the children's Mass. Rev. G. J. McLennan, D. D., pastor of the church, officiated at the Mass, and welcomed the children and their parents, many of whom received the Holy Eucharist with their children. After the beautiful ceremony was over Rev. Father McLennan gave the children his blessing and granted them a holiday for the day. S.

—PROHIBITION COURT—Mr. George M. Mathews, Magistrate for Prince County, was in Summerside on Friday to hear a number of prohibition cases. The first case was against a Summerside party for having liquor in his possession and the second was against another Summerside man for consuming liquor contrary to the Prohibition Act. Both these cases were adjourned, as Mr. McCallum, counsel for the defence, objected to the jurisdiction of the magistrate under amendment passed at the last session of the Legislature, purporting to confer jurisdiction on the Stipendiary Magistrates of Prince County to try prohibition cases in incorporated towns. These cases will come up next Friday. Two men from Richmond were tried under the Excise Act and their case adjourned until Friday next for judgment. A man tried under the Highway Traffic Act for operating a car without a license was fined $2 and costs. S.

DEPRESSION HELPS REVIVE INDUSTRY

FORT SMITH, Ark., May 20—(C.P.)—Believe it or not, but it took the depression to bring a dying industry back on its feet and start paying dividends.

Increased demand for old lamp chimneys and lantern globes since hard times had been felt, resulted in the doubling of work forces of a local glass company and huge increases in others. Glass products have been slumping since the "horse and buggy era."

An officer of one of the companies said the oil lamps are cheaper to operate than electric or gas lights. He also asserted the "back to the farm" movement had contributed to prosperity in the industry.

GREEK ART NEEDS ORIGINAL SETTING

MONTREAL, May 21—(C.P.)—Greek works of art in foreign galleries should be returned to their original setting to bring out their true beauty and glory in the opinion of E. Maillard, principal of the Ecole des Beaux Arts of this city. The blue sky and bright sunshine of Greece, he said, gave to works of art a setting that could not be equalled in any other part of the world.

Mr. Maillard, who has just returned from a trip to Greece, where he studied Greek art, states that Greece is today progressing towards a glory that would equal that of the past, and urges Greeks to retain their ancient traditions, and think with pride of their birth place.

Fear
The brave man is not he who feels no fear, for that were stupid and irrational; but he whose noble soul subdues its fear and bravely dares the danger which it shrinks from.

HIGH BROW NOT INDICATIVE INTELLIGENCE

WASHINGTON, May 21—(C.P.)—Dr. Ales Hrdlicka, curator of the physical anthropology of the Smithsonian Institution, has reported to the American Philosophical Society the high brow is no indication of superior intelligence.

Dr. Hrdlicka has been making measurements for foreheads for more than 30 years, and he came to the conclusion "the lowness or height of the forehead does not express, nor have any relation to, the kind of brain it helps to harbor."

If the intellect was actually correlated with height of brow, he added, the Alaskan Eskimos would rate as the world's supreme intellects.
A committee of five usually consists of the man who does the work, three others to pat him on the back, and one to bring in a minority report.

more likely he or she will remain so according to Professor T. Earl Sullenger of Omaha Municipal University. Prof. Sullenger reduced the life expectancy of marriage to har-splitting mathematics thus:
"Couples married for one year have 82 chances out of 100 to remain wed 14 years more. Those married 14 years have a 99 to one chance of holding on 15 years more and if you celebrate your silver wedding the chances are 9,999 to one you'll observe your golden wedding, provided you live that long."
